

GRANVILLE CLUBS HOLD CONVENTION

O. Max Gardner Speaks at Community Gathering in Oxford

Oxford, July 17.—Granville county's Federation of Corn and Canning Clubs held an all day convention here today with experts from the State Departments of Agriculture and Health filling the morning program and Lieutenant Governor O. Max Gardner addressing a four-hour session full of people in the afternoon. Between times, the ladies of Oxford served a lunch to the county folks who came here to attend the meeting.

Ten different clubs, including the well known pig clubs, were represented in the Federation meeting and with the clubs met the Boy Scouts from Camp 3314 with a report that rated as fine for war service as did the "crusader clubs for company spirit. Granville Boy Scouts, in the five Liberty Loan campaigns, secured subscriptions for $28,000 in bonds and found 533 walnut trees that were made available to the government for making gas masks.

The convention opened in the Oxford graded school building with an address of welcome by Mrs. A. H. Powell. Following this, Mrs. Kate Brew Vaughan, of Raleigh, spoke on "Developing a Health Conscience in the County." Mr. S. G. Rubinov spoke on Community Spirit and Mr. E. A. Pound, supervisor of the American Red Cross, from Atlanta, spoke on "The Public Health."

Following a basket lunch served at the school building, the meeting adjourned to the Granville courthouse where a large crowd had gathered to hear the Lieutenant-Governor. Mr. Gardner spoke on "The Bearing and Direction of North Carolina."

"It was a blessing and not a curse," he said, "it was in merry and not in wrath that man was commanded to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow. Labor is the source of all wealth and all happiness and this meeting here is representative of labor scientifically applied to agriculture. The impulse of the Boys' Corn Clubs and the Girls' Canning Clubs is touching the life of our State as nothing else and through their activities we see everywhere a desire to press onward and upward."

"I have always had sympathy," he said, "for the boy who has never had the experience of going barefooted, stamping his toes, getting stonebruises or enjoying the exquisite torture of eating green apples."

Mr. Gardner was introduced by D. G. Brummitt, Speaker of the House of Representatives. After his talk, Mrs. R. E. Ransom told several stories for the amusement of the young people and she was followed by several of the boys and girls in recitations and musical numbers that were enjoyed by all present.

STARTS PRESIDENTIAL BOOM FOR SECRETARY DANIELS

Elizabeth City Independent.

Edmund Alexander, for many years a resident of Elizabeth, but now District Manager of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co., at Santa Barbara, Calif., has started a presidential boom for Josephus Daniels, on the Pacific Coast.

Geo. A. Cox, of this city, has recently received marked copies of Pacific Coast papers containing evidence of Mr. Alexander's activities in behalf of the Secretary of the Navy. Mr. Alexander was in the University of North Carolina with Mr. Daniels and has followed his career with increasing admiration ever since. He says Josephus Daniels is the biggest, sanest figure in American public life today.

ENLISTED AS PRIVATE, WINS A CAPTAINCY

(Special to News and Observer.)

Richmond, Va., July 18.—Penton Jacobs, formerly on the advertising staff of The News and Observer, at Raleigh, N. C., and later with the News-Leader in Richmond, who enlisted as a private with the Richmond Blues for Mexican border service and when the war against Germany started went to Fort Myer and came away with a commission as second lieutenant tucked away in his inside pocket, today wears the two silver bars of a captain, having gained his promotions overseas.

Captain Jacobs is in Richmond and will spend several days in Virginia before returning to Fort Ethan Allen, where he is stationed, being now a member of the regular army. He has an interesting story to tell. He was in the army of occupation after the armistice, stationed on the Rhine, near Coblenz. He says the Germans firmly believe that they are only temporarily subdued and will be able to "come back" in fifteen years. Also, he says there is considerable sentiment there to have the Kaiser back in power.

"Is it true that some of the American officers want to marry German girls?" Captain Jacobs was asked.

"It certainly is," he replied. "Many of the American soldiers are of German descent and can speak the German language. It is no uncommon thing for a German to ask the question of an American soldier, 'Do you know my uncle, Heine Schmidt, in Milwaukee?' or some other such question."

"We made those Germans uncover every day at retreat, while the Star Spangled Banner was being played. They are disciplined properly."

John L. Keeter Dead.

Haliux, July 18.—After many months of great suffering and total blindness, John L. Keeter passed away at the home of his son, Waverly Keeter, recently, in the sixty-second year of his age. In his early manhood he connected himself with the M. E. Church at Ebenezer. As farmer, blacksmith, carpenter, wheelwright and brick mason he was the most useful citizen in the Darlington community. He was a loving husband and tender father and leaves a devoted wife, one daughter and three sons to mourn his passing.

It isn't all profit. Even the baker doesn't lie in floury beds of ease.

Heal your child's sick skin with Resinol

The minor skin troubles to which infants and children are subject—itching patches, bits of chafing, rash or redness—so easily develop into serious, stubborn affections, that every mother should have Resinol Ointment on hand to check them before they get the upper hand. Doctors and nurses recommend Resinol for this with the utmost confidence because of its harmless ingredients and its success in healing eczema and similar serious skin diseases.

Resinol Ointment is sold by all druggists.

MAMMOTH DANCE IS GIVEN AT WILSON

Between 750 and 1,000 Couples Participate in The Grand March

(Special to News and Observer.)

Wilson, July 18.—The first annual dance of the Garber-Davis orchestra given at the Banner warehouse last evening—was, perhaps, the largest affair of the kind ever given in Eastern Carolina.

Under the supervision of Madam Corinna Barnes the interior of the building was a bower of beauty.

On the stroke of 12 the Grand March began, and it is estimated that there were between 750 and 1,000 couples on the floor.

There were big jams at the railroad depots, occasioned by crowds arriving on every incoming train to attend the dance. At the A. C. L. passenger station two ladies, Miss Helen Woodson, chaperoned by Mrs. Gertrude Smiley, both of Rocky Mount, was run over by Mr. J. T. Barnes, Jr., who was driving his father's car. Both were taken to a local hospital where it was found that their injuries were slight. Another accident occurred at the corner of Greene and Goldsboro streets—one car was badly damaged; the other got away unidentified. No one injured.

Hoax—"That fellow gives me a fit." Joax—"Who is he?" Hoax—"My tailor."

THE WAR IS OVER

But the soldiers and sailors will never stop talking about the comfort they got from the Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes, which their sweethearts, mothers or sisters sent them. Until it is tried no one knows what a quick and wonderful relief Allen's Foot-Ease is to painful, aching, swollen, tender feet, Corns, Bunions and Calluses. It makes walking a delight. Sold everywhere.—(adv.)

KINSTON BARBER FOUND DEAD, PROBABLY KILLED

Kinston, July 18.—William Dew, an old negro barber known and respected by many white people who had been his patrons for years, was found dead at a tobacco barn in the outskirts of Ayden early today. He had been shot, apparently, while sleeping beside the barn. Bloodhounds have failed to locate the unidentified slayer.

You never can tell. Just because a man throws bouquets at himself doesn't prove that he pays the florist.

CROSS KIDS

Don't say "they're just bad." Something else is the matter with them. Probably it's "worms."

DR. TEACHER'S WORM SYRUP

has been taking the "cross" out of "kiddies" for half a century. They LIKE it because it tastes good. Can't hurt them! Get it at your drug store.
