A Narrow Window.
A narrow window may let in the light, a tiny star dispel the gloom of night, a little deed a mighty wrong set right.

A rope, a bloom, may make a desert fair, a single cloud may darken all the air, a spark may kindle ruin and despair.

A smile, and there may be an end to strife, a look of love, and hate may sheathe the knife;

A word—ah, it may be a word of life!

SEPT. 1ST CLOSING DATE
STATE AID FOR FAIRS

Only Sixty-two Counties Thus Far Have Made Application For Help

September first is closing date for all applications for State aid and provision of judges for fairs. Those counties which desire State aid this year should file their application with the Extension Service at once. Applications received after September first will not be considered. According to Mr. S. G. Rubinow, chairman of the Fair Committee, only 62 counties now have applications on file. Of these, 16 are for county fairs, 4 for district fairs, 3 for negro fares and 39 for community fairs. Every county can have a county fair, four community fairs and two negro fairs. These should be organized at once, and applications filed.

Every fair should strive for better attendance, more exhibitors, better exhibits, finer program, more contests, more interest and a permanent organization. To secure each of these, premium lists ought to be distributed by this time and in the hands of every man, woman and child in your community.

Extension Circular No. 94 gives the record the people of the State have made in fair work during the past five years. This circular is free, as long as the present supply lasts, and can be obtained by writing to the Agricultural Editor, Agricultural Extension Service, Raleigh, N. C.

The State's Greatest Clothing Store

For Men and Women

"The greatest things are done by the help of small ones"

THIS old saying is true in the clothing business as well as in other things. That is why we do not overlook the least little thing that makes for the satisfaction of our customers and the betterment of our service.

Little things that seem insignificant to others are very important to us. What others do good, bad or indifferently, we try to do best.

Herein lies the success of this store-service — success that comes from the confidence and satisfaction of our patrons. Confidence and satisfaction that are the result of a broader, more enlightened, more intensified service
