West Raleigh Gets No Excursion Rates For Annual Educational Gathering This Year; Funeral of Col. John S. Battle, Native of Warrenton, Held in Washington

The News and Observer Bureau, 603 District National Bank Bldg. By S. R. WINTERS (By Special Leased Wire).

Washington, July 30.—Tar heel farmers, journeying to the annual convention of the North Carolina Farmers Association, to be held in West Raleigh from August 27 to 29, will be denied the opportunity of sharing excursion rates. Edward W. Chambers of the Railroad Administration, in a letter to Senator Simmons, classified the farmers organization in the same category with jewelry, real estate dealers and hardware merchants—namely, a business or professional organization.

"The operating costs of the railroads," observes Mr. Chambers, "like those of many other important industries at the present time, are exceedingly high and if adequate service is to be rendered, the passenger traffic must produce its share of the needed revenue."

He suggests that to let down the bars for farmers would invite similar requests for reduced fares from other organizations. Consequently "the country would have been blanketed with reduced excursion fares thus almost nullifying the existing regular fare arrangements."

Answering the appeal that the North Carolina farmers organization is an essential educational in nature, Mr. Chambers would label every organization in the country as having some fraternal or educational features. Therefore, the application for excursion rates to West Raleigh from the uttermost corners of agricultural North Carolina has been rejected.

Opens Cotton Exporter.

W. B. Cooper, cotton exporter, business man of Wilmington, and more recently identified in the role of candidate for the office of lieutenant-governor, writes his brother, Wade H. Cooper, of Washington, that he has succeeded in re-establishing his cotton exchanges in European countries. In Italy, England, France and even Germany, he will renew business relations as an outlet for the white lint which is grown in such prolific quantities at its assembling point—Wilmington, favorably termed the "Gateway of Eastern North Carolina."

Mr. Cooper is sojourning in foreign countries for several months. He anticipates returning to the United States early in September.

Funeral of Col. Battle.

The funeral of Col. John S. Battle, U. S. Army, who died suddenly at Walter Reed Hospital of pneumonia, following an operation, was held this afternoon at Arlington National cemetery. He was buried with military honors. The coffin, wrapped in an American flag and covered with flowers, was borne to the grave on an artillery caisson. A platoon of infantry formed the military escort, and the pall-bearers were fellow army officers of the dead colonel. Chaplain C. H. Reese, U. S. A., who was senior chaplain of the 90th division, read the impressive funeral service at the grave, which is on the south slope of Arlington overlooking the Potomac, where the gallant officers who served in the great war are interred.

Among the members of the family who attended the funeral were Brigadier General William C. Rivers and Mrs. Rivers, formerly Miss Mary Dancy Battle; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. K. Cowan, of White Thorn, the latter formerly Miss Maud Battle; Col. William S. Battle, of Roanoke, Va., chief claim agent of the Norfolk & Western railroad; and a number of members of the family and friends from Virginia and North Carolina.

Colonel Battle was a native of Warrenton, N. C., the son of Capt. James S. Battle, and was born February 19, 1872. He was appointed to the United States Military Academy at West Point, June 15, 1890, graduated in 1893, was appointed second lieutenant of infantry June 12, 1894; first lieutenant April 26, 1898; captain February 12, 1901; major July 10, 1916; lieutenant-colonel April 2, 1918, that being his rank in the permanent establishment. On August 5, 1917, he was appointed colonel of infantry, national army, and commanded his regiment in France during the American participation in the war. In the Spanish war he won distinction especially in Forto Rico, where he was adjutant and one of the best known and beloved young officers in the American force.

Colonel Battle had made an enviable record in the army and was considered one of the able officers North Carolina has contributed to the country. He was a superb specimen of physical manhood, distinguished in any group or gathering. He had only recently returned from service in France.

To Close Baltimore Hospital.

Among the six army general hospitals that will be closed by the Surgeon-General of the War Department on September 1, will be General Hospital No. 12, at Baltimore, N. C. According to a computation on July 25, there were 31,407 patients in hospitals under the jurisdiction of the Surgeon-General of the army.

The Postoffice Department has accepted the proposal of E. H. Cramer and R. W. Davis to renew lease of the present postoffice quarters at Southport, Brunswick county, for a term of five years, beginning August 1, 1919. Andrew F. Windham has been appointed postmaster at Walsenburg, Greene county. Robert F. Holoman who was appointed in March declined to serve.

R. J. Powell, general manager of a department store in Kinston, was in Washington today on his way to Northern markets. Chas. H. Boyd, of Greensboro, is a visitor to the National capital. Rev. R. N. Von Miller, of Wilson, is visiting his sister in Washington. Capt. W. C. Rodman, of Washington, N. C., is registered at the Raleigh hotel.

Visiting in Washington.

Mrs. Amos Wooten, of Pine Top, N. C., and Mrs. J. W. Creswell, of Salisbury, were here today arranging plans to have their brother, Corporal Tyler Bullock, U. S. A., given special treatment by the army at Fort Fox Hill, N. Y. Corporal Bullock lost his hearing completely as the result of an attack of meningitis after returning from France.

While here Mrs. Wooten and Mrs. Creswell were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Britton, and members of a box party given by them at the Belasco at the first presentation of Thomas Dixon's new play, "The Red Dawn."

NEUSE RIVER NOW FALLING FOLLOWING BIG OVERFLOW

Lenoir County People Suffered Greatly From Recent Flood in That Section

(Special to News and Observer.) Kinston, July 30.—The Neuse river here reminds one of the Mississippi in flood. Debris is floating down the swollen stream. Tens of thousands of trees for many miles along the banks are under water, the tops of many just visible above the surface. A house or two sailing seaward would complete the picture. A number of animals have been drowned at points along the river.

The river is falling, the receding waters having accomplished the destruction of lowland crops valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars. It will be days yet before the stream gets back to normal. Numerous persons usually optimistic can be found to estimate the total crop and property damage of the past two weeks at a cool million dollars in Lenoir county alone. This figure may not be greatly exaggerated. The excessive rains probably did as much damage as the flood has, although that has wrought damage enough for many miles on either side of Kinston.

Railroad passengers have been transferred across the Neuse during the past two or three days. Though there was no actual washout, the Norfolk Southern tracks have been deep under water near the stream. Women passengers were not transferred, but men who insisted upon crossing were taken to the other side to waiting trains. Even the men were discouraged, but some with urgent reasons for continuing their journey braved the danger; all were safely transferred.

An Every Name Movement was launched by the Episcopal church in New York to reach every person whose name is inscribed on the church roster, and awakes all to a sense of duty.

Uninterrupted service is what every truck user wants and what every Corbitt Truck gives.

The dependable every-day service given by Corbitt Motor Trucks has created the Corbitt reputation for exceedingly low operating costs. Williams, Inc., of Burlington, N. C., voiced the opinion of a small army of Corbitt users when it wrote to another manufacturer as follows:

"We have a Corbitt Truck which has been giving us uninterrupted service for a little over five years; our truck is the old chain drive type, and there has been no occasion to make any replacement except chains and sprockets, outside of tires.

"The manufacturers now are making worm-drive style only, a great improvement over chain drive or internal gear drive, and several of their two-ton capacity worm-drives are in service in this County among our mills, all of which are giving perfect service.

"During our experience with trucks, we have had six other makes, and the Corbitt has given us the best service of all; we have had to junk three of the others, in above-named period, and we shall replace with Corbitts as we need for them.

"It is our belief that a better truck cannot be obtained for a thousand dollars more money than a Corbitt would cost us. We know of one man in this County who has replaced (well-known standard make) trucks with three Corbitts within the past twelve months, and all of them are giving perfect satisfaction and service."

There are six sizes of Corbitt Trucks, one to five tons. All models are worm driven, have Continental Motors, and construction includes standard parts throughout.

There is a Corbitt model which will exactly meet your requirements. Our Dealer will gladly help you to select the model best suited to your needs. See him or write to us. Ask for catalog which describes and illustrates the various models and gives interesting facts.

Tonight! Take Dodson's Liver Tone!

Better Than Calomel For Liver

Calomel sickens! If bilious, constipated and head-achy read my guarantee.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work!

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with our bile, crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful tonight, and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning, I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salfate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.—Adv.
