PLUMB CONTINUES BEFORE COMMITTEE

Attorney For Railroad Brotherhoods Clings Steadfastly To His Position

Washington, Aug. 8.—All day long from a witness chair before the House Interstate Commerce Committee, Glenn E. Plumb, counsel for the railroad brotherhoods and author of organized labor's plan for tripartite control of the railroads, responded today to sharp questioning from the semi-circle of committee members who called on him to explain every phase of the labor bill.

Through it all Mr. Plumb clung steadfastly to the assertion, numberless times repeated, that the railroad unions aimed "to eliminate the motive of operation for profit and substitute the motive of operation for service," to which he added the corollary that "it means democracy in industry, without which democracy in politics is a mere shell and a sham."

Gravelly, Plumb talked of revolution as an alternative in case the adoption of "some such plan" was not obtained by political action through Congress, and said that was the determination of the masses of men whom he represented, "though I hope never to live to see the day."

The income of the Plumb Plan League, organized to forward the labor's bill passage, he said, was "in the neighborhood of $100,000 or $125,000 annually now," though only organized in July. He estimated that its income shortly would be $500,000, and implied that it might run up to five or six millions. All of it, he said, was coming from brotherhood members.

"The situation is that our men believe they have come to a new day," Plumb told the committee. "They have spent their money and their lives to secure liberty, and have now found that without liberty and democracy in industry they have only the shell of liberty to live. We intend to get it lawfully, and through the constitution, by the ballot."

"But if that is not possible, what will be done?" Representative Saunders, Republican, of Indiana, asked. "Then it means something else."

"What else?" the Indiana representative persisted.

"As there is no doubt in your mind or in mine as to that," Mr. Plumb responded. "If the forces of reaction prevent the adoption of this program by lawful means, we know the way of history."

"Revolution is a word that should not be used lightly," Mr. Saunders observed.

"What is Soviet Plan?"

"I hope never to live to see the day when the methods necessary go further than these I have outlined," Mr. Plumb responded.

"In essentials, this is the Russian soviet plan of industrial operation, is it not?" Mr. Saunders continued.

"I don't know anything about the soviet plan," Mr. Plumb said. "Or, rather, I am only familiar with the popular misconception of what is the Russian soviet plan."

"Misconception?" Mr. Saunders probed at the expression. "I am at least to understand how you know the popular understanding to be a misconception or the soviet system unless you understand as well what the understanding should be."

"Well, in popular understanding, the soviet is a system by which a bunch of workmen grab all the property and divide it up among themselves," Plumb retorted, "and I cannot believe that such a state of affairs could actually exist in any society. It is inconceivable to me that this should be the fact about the Russian situation."

STRIKE CONTINUES IN CHICAGO STOCK YARDS

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 8.—State troops were ordered removed today from the scenes of last week's race riots and the stock yards today after a general strike of union workers had badly crippled the packing companies, and live stock dealers had notified producers to suspend shipments to Chicago temporarily. Although four regiments, including all troops at the stock yards, were withdrawn tonight by order of Adjutant General Dickson on request of Mayor Thompson, union leaders declared the strike would continue until policemen and deputy sheriffs also had left the yards.

Differing claims as to the number of men involved were made by packers and union leaders tonight. J. W. Johnston, secretary of the Black Yards labor council, declared that with a thousand wool workers who had agreed tonight to join the walkout, 36,000 men had quit work and that 4,000 carpenters and woodworkers and 1,300 stationary engineers were expected to join them.

It is a wise man who, when he is dubbed "Colonel" by common consent, studiously lives up to the title.

CARRIED BIBLE SURE! AND ALSO FOUR GALLONS

Elizabeth City, Aug. 8.—"Rev." Raleigh Keays, a Martin county negro, was in the recorder's court this week for blind tugging. Keays' father is conducting a meeting at the negro Baptist church on York street in "Saverton," and the Reverend Raleigh had come down to assist him.

Chief Holmes was at the depot when the evangelist arrived and politely requested permission to search his grip, a large tan colored hand bag.

"Certainly, sah," said the preacher with uplift. "You'll find nothin' but my Bible in that grip."

Opening the grip disclosed a big Bible sure enough but beneath the Bible and some clothes were four gallons of liquor in fruit jars.

EXHIBIT AT SANATORIUM BY PUPILS OF GOVERNMENT

Aberdeen, Aug. 8.—If there is a North Carolinian who doubts the wisdom of the government in providing vocational training for convalescent and disabled soldiers, he has only to go down to the State Sanatorium at Montrose and take a look at the handiwork of the ex-soldier patients on exhibit this week in the assembly hall. Reed baskets, raffia baskets, baskets made of fragrant pine needles, big baskets and little baskets, baskets severely plain and baskets conspicuously ornate—in short, baskets of every conceivable shape, size, material and use—furnish indisputable evidence that there is nothing about the art of basketry that has managed to elude the vigilance of Mr. Hyde, the almost uncannily accomplished young man who represents Uncle Sam's teaching force at the sanatorium.

Piles of neatly typed exercises, well made book racks, hand-carved candlesticks, pretty plate mats to match any color scheme exquisite bits of hand-made feminine finery—all these things present that verify this young man knows his own business and everybody else's, too.

But best yet get the idea that Mr. Hyde's instruction trains only in the pretty-pretty of life, step out into the yard and climb up on the man-size heavy artillery repair truck that has been converted into the most amazingly complete and compact laboratory for budding mechanics you ever saw. Electrically equipped from start to finish, furnished with a lathe, a drill press and goodness only knows what else, Mr. Hyde's apprentices on this new stars to repair anything from a surgeon's instrument to a machine gun. Perhaps the best thing about the whole business is the really remarkable esprit de corps which Mr. Hyde has so admirably succeeded in arousing among his pupils. Such a spirit coupled with instruction of a high order makes a mighty hard combination to beat. Dr. Macbrayer exercised his customary agency in adding such a feature to one of the most useful institutions in the State.

LINCOLNTON 11: CHERAW 9

Cheraw, S. C., Aug. 8.—Cheraw lost the final game of the series to Lincolnton, 11 to 9. Cheraw's team going to pieces which was responsible for a majority of Lincolnton's runs. The Lincolnton boys are a clean fast aggregation and will make any team go some to beat them. The feature of the series was the pitching of Glenn for Lincolnton, who pitched all three games with the exception of part of one inning. His good nature is worth the price of the game.

Made Perfect Score.

PINETOPS BEATS FREMONT.

ARREST NEGRO BOYS FOR ROCKING SHOW

Three negroes, William Penny, Milton Jones, and Henry Kelly, were arrested last night on the charge of rocking the test of "The Smart Set," a travelling negro test show.

Complaint has been made a number of times this week that negroes have rocked the show directly after the night's performance. Last night policemen were on watch and three of those engaged were caught. There were more involved but they escaped.

A tramping trip across the continent will cure dyspepsia, though a man to throw away his business to make it.
