JEWELRY

The clever woman considers jewelry more than a detail of the costume. With it she gains that elusive touch of style which makes her gowns smartly distinc-

GUION-JONES.

Wedding of Prominent Couple Solemnized at New Bern.

New Bern, Aug. 13.—A wedding, distinguished for its beauty and the prominence of both bride and groom throughout the Old North State, was solemnized in Gusteney Methodist church last evening at nine-thirty o'clock, when Miss Mary Louise Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A.
Jones of this city became the bride of Mr. John A. Guion, also of New Bern.
Mrs. Garrison Farrow presided at the organ and rendered a delightful recital before the arrival of the bridal party.

Miss Eleanor Freeman, of New York, intimate friend of the bride, sang sweetly "Calm as the Night," by Bohm.
At nine-thirty o'clock the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march broke upon the ear, and the first brides' maid, Miss Susan Guion, and first groomsmen, Mr.
John Haywood Guion, Jr., proceeded down the main aisles of the church.
They were followed by the four ushers, Mr. John Haywood Jones, Mr. Jere P. Zollieffer, of Henderson; Dr. Robert Drane, of Edenton, and Mr. William Griffin. The brides' maids, Miss Cora Munger, Miss Laura Ives, Miss Sophie Hollister and Miss Cammie Rodman, of Norfolk, Va., entered singly. The brides' maids wore rose moire taffeta gowns, and carried bouquets of pink Killarney roses and fern.

The dame of honor, Mrs. John A.
Jones, mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of black lace with jet trimmings, and entered alone. Mrs.
Jones carried a bouquet of white roses and fern. The maid of honor, Miss Julia Bryan Jones, sister of the bride, wore a turquoise blue satin gown with flower decorations, and carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses. Young Miss Leah Jones, sister of the bride, as flower girl, was dainty and sweet in white net over a blue frock. She carried a basket of pink Killarney roses tied with tulle, and immediately preceded the bride.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. John A. Jones, by whom she was given in marriage. Her elegant bridal robe was of white satin with duchess lace, and court train. Bands of pearls ornamented the bodice, with a pearl tassel falling from the drapery in the back, and the decorations were of orange blossoms. The net veil was worn in coronet effect. The lace of which the coronet was made was presented by the groom, and was made in France. The veil was fastened with a wreath of orange blossoms. The bride's exquisite shower bouquet was of white orchids and white roses. Her only ornament was a platinum and diamond lace pin, the gift of the groom.

The groom, with his brother, Capt.
W. B. Rodman Guion, as best man, entered from the side aisle of the church, and met the bride at the altar. The Rev. Hillary A. Humble, pastor of the centenary, read the betrothal, and ring service of the Methodist Episcopal church impressively.

The organist discoursed soft, sweet music during the plighting of the troth, breaking into the triumphant strains of Mendelssohn's recessional as the bridal party left the church.

After the ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents on Broad street, a reception—beautiful and informal, was held. The colonial residence presented a scene of brilliancy and splendor. In the spacious hall were stately palms, ferns and asters. Mrs. John T. Hattister in black satin, Mrs. R. B. Nixon in white georgette, and Mrs. Hayner Jones in white chiffon, greeted the guests at the door. Notwithstanding the inclement weather the reception was largely attended by friends who showered the bride and groom with congratulations and blessings.

The bride is one of New Bern's most popular and accomplished young ladies.

She possesses a marvelous voice, and has been a much appreciated soloist for the Centenary congregation for several years. Her magnetic personality, and her queenly beauty command the admiration of all who know her. She is noted for her activities in Red Cross work as chairman of the New Bern organization, and her interest in what pertains to civic affairs.

The groom is a son of Judge and Mrs. Owen Guion of this city, and is a young and promising attorney, associated with Guion and Guion. He inherits the qualifications for a successful career. Courteous and genial, he wins the esteem of all with whom he comes in contact. The marriage unites two of the oldest and most prominent families of Eastern North Carolina.

As the bride ascended the stairs she threw the bouquet which was caught by Miss Munger.

The bride and groom left on the midnight train for New York and Niagara Falls, where the honeymoon will be spent. The bride's going-away suit was braided taupe tricolette with hat to match.

Named As Minister To Prague.

Washington, Aug. 13.—Count Michal Karolyi, former premier of Hungary, who escaped from his country in a row-boat after the signing of the armistice and later was imprisoned in Czecho-Slovakia, has been appointed minister from Hungary to Prague, according to a report received at the State Department from Prague, based upon press reports there.

It's all right to meet trouble half way,

A DISCOVERY THAT BENEFITS MANKIND

Two discoveries have added greatly to human welfare.

In 1835 Newton originated the vacuum process for condensing milk with cane sugar to a semi-liquid form.

In 1883 Horlick at Racine, Wis., discovered how to reduce milk to a dry powder form with extract of malted grains, without cane sugar.

This product HORLICK'S named Malted Milk. (Name since copied by others.) Its nutritive value, digestibility and ease of preparation (by simply stirring in water) and the fact that it keeps in any climate, has proved of much value to mankind as an ideal food-drink from infancy to old age.

WILMINGTON RECALL
NOT-YET UNDER WAY

Wilmington, Aug. 13.—The petitioners who want to recall Mayor P. Q. Moore and all six councilmen, including three councilmen who are favorable to them, at last have compiled a petition carrying enough names of qualified voters to demand an election. The recall, however, isn't yet under way. It is hinted that the machinery for holding the election is inadequate and there is belief that the whole thing will go into the courts.

The recall movement began when, after voting with them on several propositions, it being generally understood that he owed his election largely to them, Mayor Moore began voting against the labor element's wishes, and finally in a city hall shake-up, ousted the two leading labor councilmen from the police and fire departments and de-

Anyone Now Can Have Pretty Curls and Waves

Here's a hair curling secret that is decidedly "worth while." At bedtime apply a little liquid siliceous with a clean tooth brush, drawing this down the hair from root to tip. In the morning when you look in your mirror you will be astonished and delighted to find your hair has dried in so beautiful curls as you've ever worn. The waviness will look so natural no one will guess it was artificially acquired.
You can obtain liquid siliceous at any drug store and a few ounces will last a long time. It is neither sticky nor greasy and is pleasant to use. It is doubly useful because of also serving as a beneficial dressing, keeping the hair soft, silky and lustrous. After one trial you will never go back to the barbarous curling iron.—(Adv.)
