NOTICE OF SALE UNDER DEED OF TRUST.

Default having been made in payment of indebtedness secured by that certain deed of trust made to me as Trustee by Berry W. Brown and wife, Alice E. Brown, on the 18th day of January, 1919, as recorded in Book 331 at Page 432 in the Registry of Wake County, North Carolina, I will, under and by virtue of the power of sale vested in me by said deed of trust, and at the request of the holder of the note secured by said deed of trust and for the purpose of discharging the said indebtedness secured by said deed of trust, proceed to sell to the highest bidder for cash at the Court House door in Raleigh, Wake County, North Carolina:

On Saturday, 20th of September, 1919, at 12 o'clock noon, the following described real estate, situated in Holly Springs Township, Wake County, North Carolina, and more particularly defined and described as follows:

First Tract—Adjoining the lands of J. B. Mason (the Rogers land), Mrs. Lillian Bell (the Waddell land), E. R. Penny, the S. H. Scott lands (owned by J. H. Pou and others), the lands of W. T. Williams, the old Isaac Hunter place and others, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a maple on the East bank of White Oak Creek, about 20 yards above the Chair Ford, running North 86 degrees East 96 poles to a pine stump; thence North 180 poles to a stake and post on the creek; thence East 120 poles to two post oak, Mary Ann Rogers' corner; thence South 401 poles to a white oak on the Fall Branch, Isaac Hunter's corner; thence down the meanderings of said branch 222 poles to White Oak Creek, at the Smithfield Road; thence up the meanderings of said creek 808 poles to the first station containing 320 acres, more or less, being the land conveyed to J. B. Mason by J. Daniel Honeycutt the 2nd day of November, 1916, by deed recorded in Book No. 310, at Page 242, in the office of Register of Deeds of Wake County, which deed, as recorded, is hereby expressly referred to and made a part hereof for better description of the land herein conveyed.

Second Tract—Adjoining the lands of G. W. Woodall, now D. F. Bell, deceased, formerly J. D. Honeycutt, and bounded as follows: Beginning at an iron stake on the East bank of White Oak Creek, about 20 yards up said Creek from the Chair Ford. J. G. Brown's corner; runs East 86 poles to a stake and post; thence North 83 1/2 poles to a red bud tree, Mrs. B. F. Bell's corner; thence West 48 poles to Beedy Branch; thence down said branch to White Oak Creek; thence down said creek to the beginning, containing 26 1/2 acres, more or less, and more fully described in a deed from A. B. Freeman and wife, to J. C. Hunter, dated February 1st, 1917, and of record in Book 221, Page 155, in the office of Register of Deeds of Wake County, and being the same land conveyed by A. B. Hunter, J. B. Hunter and others, June 4th, 1917, to J. B. Mason, by deed recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Wake County, which deed, as recorded, is hereby expressly referred to and made a part hereof for better description.

Both the foregoing tracts of land were conveyed on December 3rd, 1917, by J. B. Mason and wife, to Garry W. Johnson, by deed of record in Book 324, Page 119, in the office of Register of Deeds of Wake County, and being the same land conveyed by said Garry W. Johnson and wife, to said Berry W. Brown, by deed dated December 19, 1918, and recorded in Book 332, Page 207, Registry of Wake County. This 19th day of August, 1919.

HENRY A. BLAND, Trustee.

YOUNG MAN DROWNED WHEN BOAT CAPSIZES

Roxboro, Aug. 18.—Isaac Crews, of Lenoir, Va., was drowned at Loch Lily near here Sunday. With a party from South Boston Mr. Crews was out on the lake in a small boat.

The body was recovered in about an hour and desperate efforts made to resuscitate the young man, but in vain.

Another of our obligations is to distribute for Willard a battery that will last longer and doesn't need so many repairs.

It gives longer life with fewer troubles just as a cord tire does.

Drop in and let us tell you its remarkable performance record after over four years of service.
