RUSSIAN SOVIET MAKE BID FOR CHINA'S HELP

London, Aug. 28.—The Russian Soviet apparently is making a bid for the support of the Chinese to whom a mani-festo has been sent. Attention is first called to the Soviet campaign in Siberia, and the Chinese people are then promised liberation "from foreign bayonets and from the yoke of foreign

The manifesto is quoted in a Bolshe-vik wireless message received here as

"The people's commissaries address fraternal words to all the people of China on the day when the Soviet troops, having crushed the counter revolutionary despot Kolchak, victoriously entered Siberia.

"Soviet Russia's red army, after two years of struggle, and incredible strain, is marching onwards to the east across the Urals. Not in order to enforce their will on other nationals; not to their will on other nationals; not to ensiave them nor conquer them—we are bringing freedem to the people, liberation from foreign bayonets and from the yoke of foreign gold, which is throttling the enslaved peoples of the east, particularly the great Chinese sation.

"We are bringing help not only to our own working masses, but to the

Closely Contested Match From tragic result of our own national guilt. The ruthless cruelty with which we were Washburn In Third Round of Playing Forest Hill, Aug. 28.—Gerald L. Patterson, of Australia, holder of the 1919 out of five sets, in the third round of the National Lawn Tennis championship tournament here today. More than 7,000 spectators crowded the grandstand to witness the most spectacular match of the day. The match was a nip and tuc': affair, Patterson winning the first set 7-5 and at 45 points to 40, Washburn came back and won the sec-ond at 6-1 and 29 points to 19, the play-ing of both men improving while there were a number of long and thrilling rallics. Patterson won the third set 6-1 and 32 points to 21, the steadiness of his play having a telling effect. Washburn gained steadiness and took the fourth 6-3, the errors of each player more than nullifying their winning strokes. The Australian led off the set in whirlwind fashion and smashed his way to victory by taking the set 6-1.

Maurice E. McLoughlin, of Los Angeles, defeated Leonard Beekman, of New York, 6-3, 8-6, 6-3, playing most of his winning shots from mid-court. Four games ran to deuce, several of them two or three times. The first of the important East vs. West matches was staged on the grandstand court in early afternoon when R Norris Williams, 2nd., of Boston, faced Willis E. Davis, of San Francisco, for-mer National Clay court champion. Williams, maintaining his remarkable high standard of tennis, ran through the match, winning 6-2, 6-2, 6-2.

Norman E. Brookes, Australia, defeated Wm. H. Benedict, Roselle, 6-2, 6-2 6-1. Junior National championship, second round: Vincent Richards, Yonkers, defeated G. B. Morland, 6-0, 6-1

R. Lindley Murray, present champion won in straight sets from Lucien Williams, of Illinois. E. V. Thomas, Australia, defeated H. H. Bassford, New York.
