

Misunderstanding About Money To Be Paid Starts Small Sized Affray

> News and Observer Bureau, 104 South John Street,

Telephone 396. By EMMETT R. BROWN. Goldsboro, Aug. 28 .-- U. M. Gillikin, local fish dealer, and a member of the City Board of Aldermen, was arraigned in Police Court this morning charged with disorderly conduct in connection with an affray he had yesterday afternoon with Arthur B. Morgan, Jr., of Raleigh, a young man in charge of the local circulation bureau of The News and Observer in Goldsboro.

The case was called this morning at 10 o'clock and was presided over by Alderman J. M. Edgerton, Mayor Pro Tem, at the request of Mayor E. H. Bain, who stated that in declining to preside over the case, he did so not be cause of any personal feeling he maintained toward either of the defendants in question, but because he had heard the case discussed at different angles.

The warrant drawn up against Alderman Gillikin charged him with disorderly conduct, and when he faced this charge at the trial this morning he stated he was willing to plead guilty. Mr. Morgan stated that he also desired to enter a charge of assault against Mr. Gillikin. This request was granted by Acting Mayor Edgerton, who then ordered the case continued until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The trouble between Messrs, Gillikin and Morgan happened yesterday afternoon in regard to some money which Mr. Gillikin claimed was due his son for carrying a route in this city.

Mr. Morgan refused to pay this money to Mr. Gillikin, claiming that the lat-ter's son had failed to make the collections on his route as agreed upon at the time he was employed as a carrier. When Mr. Morgan insisted that he would refuse to pay Mr. Gillikin's son for his work until he had made his collections, Mr. Gillikin then struck Mr. Morgan with his fist, who fell to the floor, and Mr. Gillikin was astride the former assaulting him with his fist, so it is said, when spectators interceded and stopped the affray.

Three young white women-Maggie Potter, Annie Alphin and Mary Kingwere tried in the City Court this morning upon the charge of vagrancy and sentenced to serve one year each at Samarcand Manor, the State institution located in Moore county.

CAMP LEE IS AGAIN SCENE OF MUCH ACTIVITY

Petersburg, Va., Aug. 28 .- The mustering office at Camp Lee has been the acene of considerable activity for the past two days during which time a large number of Western troops, who recently arrived at the camp, have been demoblized. Several hundred men reeeived their discharges yesterday, among whom were six hundred negroes who are from various sections of South Carolina. A large number of white

COAL-LESS WINTER NOW Berlin, Aug. 28 .- That any possibility of averting a coal-less winter is regarded as a forlorn hope is indicated by reports received from the Silesian and Ruhr coal fields, the action taken by municipalities in many sections of the country and the restrictive measures agreed upon by the coal commission, which promise about as much light and warmth as the winter moon. Greater Berlin has been informed

Kitchen ranges will not be permitted to operate between the hours of 8 and 11:30 a. m. and 2 and 7 p. m. The use of bathroom ovens and for all emergency heating devices consuming coke bri-quettes is also prohibited. The first warning, emanating from the workers and addressed to the government by the labor unions at Bochum, urging the adoption of the severest measures to curtail the needless consumption of coal, advises the government to restrict show window illumination by the early closing of shops and by shutting down places of entertainment and amusement long before midnight.

CONVICT SUBMITS RULES FOR FAILURE

"Rules for Success" have always been given wide publicity. We've read reams and reams of stuff about how Andrew Carnegie made his fortune by start. ing with a box of oranges, etc. But it seems that we have found something new in "Rules for Failure" as prepared by a prisoner in the Ohio State Penitentiary and printed in the Ohio State Penitentiary News. The writer guaran-tees results. Hear how: 1. Believe that everything is right hat you are not caught at. 2. Be careless of responsibilities-let George do it. 3. Fly into a passion on slight pretext -lose your self-control.

4. Always think of Get never about Give 5. Look gloomy; never see good in other people. 6. Regard every man who differs with you as a knocker. 7. Never indulge in self-analysis; you may learn your faults and that you haven't enough sand to cure them.

These are good rules for attaining the hugest perfection of failure. You can either follow them to their gosl-or you can take the other road that leads to financial success. The three best precepts for reaching this are: 1. Invest regularly in War Savings Stamps.

2. Buy only what you need and want. 3. .Treat your purchases as if they were real money.

Here are two sets of rules, leading to as many ends. It's not fancy to say that the, choice of the two lies with each individual. Take the one You want. from who are from various sections of South Carolina. A large number of white troops from North Carolina, including many from Raleigh, were among those who were mustered out of service yes-terday. A large number of overseas men, both white and colored, were demob-lized today. There arrived at the camp yesterday from Camp Travis, Texas, the first battalion of the Forty-Third in-fantry, numbering three hundred and fifty men, for garison duty. TWO HOMICIDES IN ABERDEEN SECTION

picion of White Man

Aberdeen, Aug. 28 .- The dead body of Joe Wood, a negro boy who was last on Tuesday of last week when he left Hamlet in an automobile with a white to the country, was found this morn-ing four miles from Aberdeen. He had been shot through the back of the head. A negro man who had left Hamlet under similar circumstances two or three weeks before had also been murdered, his body with a bullet hole in the back of the head having been found in the woods. When the car in which Wood and the white man whom he was to drive to the country failed to return in a reasonable length of time a search was in-stituted. It was located Saturday afternoon in the possession of a white man named Parsons. He said he bought it from Joe Wood, paying him fifty dollars for it and that he carried Wood to Durham, where he bought a ticket for Greensboro. Parsons was held for Richmond county court on the charge of stealing the car.

Today when it was found that the dead body of Wood had been found, Parsons was locked up in jail in Rockngham on a charge of murder. While there is no direct evidence to connect him with the killing of the first negro there is a suspicion, in view of the similarity of the circumstances surrounding the deaths of the two negroes. that Parsons had something to do with the killing of both. The car which figured in the first murder has never been located. Both were jitney cars maintained by their owners, Hamlet men, for hire. Conference of Presiding Elders. Asheville, Aug. 28 .- With some he most prominent Methodists of the South in attendance the annual conforence of the Presiding Elders and Mission board is being held at the Southern Methodist assembly grounds at Lake Junaluska. The sessions will continue for several days and the attendance is said to be very pleasing to the authorities in charge.
