Healthy, Robust People Popular Everywhere

Good Health Creates an Attractive, Magnetic Personality and Wins Admiration

Healthy People Are Happiest

Pepto-Mangan Has Put Thousands into the Healthy, Full-Blooded Class

How the red-blooded, energetic and attractive man or woman is envied by those who feel that it will always be their unfortunate lot to be thin, pale, and weak-bodied!

And yet why continue to envy men and women who possess a vigorous, healthy physical condition and an attractive, magnetic personality? Poor health and lack of vitality are often merely the result of impoverished blood.

ed to his logical conclusion and imperialism. All of the nations have this to a certain extent. Even our own country has not confined itself strictly to the rules of geography and language in the acquisition of new possessions.

General Tyson Speaks. General Tyson was presented by Col. Albert L. Cox, who praised him as a soldier, a native son of North Carolina who had twice responded to the call of his country in the time of war.

General Tyson, one of the brigade commanders in the 30th division made it plain in the very beginning that he did not intend, in his address, to detract any of the glory that was due the 27th division, of New York, for which the honor of breaking the Hindenburg line had been disputed.

This canal ran through a tunnel fifty feet under the ground for six thousand yards, and before going into the tunnel it ran through a cut fifty feet deep.

General Tyson's presentation of the strenuous days of these operations was the clearest exposition of the fight that a Raleigh audience had ever heard.

Finally, as clinching proof of the fact that infantry divisions of the 30th Division were the first to penetrate the Hindenburg line and hold these positions, General Tyson quoted official statements of the War Department, published in a recent issue of the New York Times.

30th Division had attained their objectives, beyond the Hindenburg line. By dusk on that same day the most southern wing of the 27th had entered the village in the Hindenburg defense lines.

Another Recess Appointment For Thomas D. Warren

Of quite a few names suggested for the chairmanship in view of the possible retirement of Mr. Warren, one looms far above all others, with the indications very strong that he will be chosen should a vacancy be declared.

There are several reasons for advancing a guess that Hines will succeed Warren, if anybody does. The first one is that he is close to the younger element of the party and has been free from factionalism in North Carolina politics.

Another, and a more striking reason, is that Mr. Hines is conceded to be a man with an exceedingly level head. At the same time there are few so-called "better mixers" in the State.

Some time ago the candidacy of Dave Norwood, of Salisbury, was getting a good deal of attention in Democratic circles, but the Norwood boom seems to have gone like the popular bubbles.

GREAT BELIEVER IN BLACK-DRAUGHT

Oklahoma Lady Tells How Her Husband Believes in Black-Draught and Uses It For Many Ailments.

Nowata, Okla.—Mrs. W. E. Dawson, a resident of this place, says: "My husband is a great believer in Black-Draught and thinks it cures about everything."

It is splendid for headache, constipation (which usually causes headache), indigestion, or any kind of stomach trouble, and we just keep it for these troubles. I don't know when we haven't used it, and we always find it satisfactory.

I know it has done us both a lot of good and saved us many dollars. I use it in teaspoon doses at first and follow with small doses, and it sure does make a person feel like new.

It cleanses the liver better than any other liver tonic I have ever used, and after taking a thorough course nature asserts itself and you are not left in a constipated condition that follows a lot of other active medicines.

For over 70 years Theodor's Black-Draught has been in use for many simple ailments and today is a recognized standard remedy in thousands of family medicine chests. It will pay you to keep Black-Draught in the house for use when needed.
