

N. C. STATE TAKES GAME FROM YALE

Backs Up Murray's Pitching With World of Pep and Dash

Displaying a world of pep and ginger behind Murray's brilliant pitching, State College smothered Yale at Riddick Field yesterday afternoon to the tune of 8 to 1. The victory was clean cut. The Techs showed a decided superiority over the northern visitors in every department of the game, and never for one instant did the Blue stand even a ghost of a chance of winning.

Several hundred fans braved the wintry breezes and were rewarded with a first class exhibition of the national pastime. To George Murray, largely belongs the credit for the victory. The Charlotte boy had the big Yale sluggers eating out of his hand from start to finish. Two measly singles was the Yale contribution to the hit column, and nine Blue hitters took three healthy swings at the ozone, examined the big stick with care, cast a puzzled glance at Fifer's prize hurler, and assumed the air of a lass-booze. Opposed to Murray at the beginning of the game was one Mr. Chittenden, who lasted just two and two-thirds innings. A couple of hits by his shortstop coupled with two walks, a wild pitch and two solid clouts by Faucett sent him to the showers, and Calhoun, a big left hander, went to the fring line. Aldrich pitched the final frame.

"Runt" Faucett uncorked one of the best games of his career. His holding at the initial sack was faultless, and the local boy banged out a double and two singles in four times at the plate. In the second inning while Chittenden, apparently, was critically examining the ruins of the shop building, Faucett stole home. Deberry and Norwood featured with nice catches in the outfield. Deberry brought the stand to its feet when he speared Fabery's hard drive in the fourth and doubled Sawyer at second.

Aldrich and Gaillard, although credited with two errors each, bore the brunt of the fielding for the Yale infield. They handled all chances cleanly and their errors were on bad throws to first. Diamond and Sawyer also felded well and the former, especially, looked good at first base. Crane, in left field, robbed Norwood of a double when he climbed the bank in left center and captured his long fly.

State scored two runs in the first inning on one hit. Faucett first up scratched a hit to short and took second on Gurley's sacrifice. Wood rapped a hard grounder to Aldrich, who threw low to first. Johnson followed with another hot one in the same place, and again the visiting short stop muffed up the play. Faucett and Wood scoring in the miscs. Four more runs were added in the fourth on two walks, a sacrifice, two errors and Faucett's double to left. The final markers for State came in the fourth session on singles by Murray, Faucett and Gurley, mixed in with a fielder's choice. Faucett scoring from second while Gaillard was throwing out Wood.

Yale's lone tally came in the last inning when Peters walked and scored on Fabery's two-putt shot to center.

Line-up table with columns for State and Yale, and rows for players and scores.

voice application of the Federal statute. The first detachment of women picketed the Embassy at noon bearing banners.

Before a crowd had opportunity to collect a police patrol dashed up. Captain Robert Emmett Doyl and Inspector Daniel Sullivan asked them if they were aware they were picketing the British Embassy. Both pickets smiled and nodded their assent.

They were informed they were violating a Federal statute and would be arrested unless they desisted. The women resumed the picketing and police women took their banners and arrested them.

Missing One Replaced. As soon as word of the arrests reached headquarters of the pickets another pair with fresh banners was dispatched to the Embassy. The police detained and the aerial forces came into action.

United States Attorney Lashby placed the head of each arrested woman at $1,000. It was not furnished and they were locked up for a hearing in police court tomorrow. Frank P. Walsh, of Kansas City, Mo., who represented Irish independence claims in Paris in 1918, has been retained as their counsel.

REPUBLICAN DISTRICT CONVENTION HERE TODAY

J. D. Parker Slated For Congressional Nomination; Jenkins and Ward Delegates

Fourth congressional district Republicans will gather in the city court room here at noon today to name delegates to the Republican national convention and nominate somebody to oppose the Democratic nominee for Congress.

County delegations were arriving in the city last night, and by the meeting hour today it would appear that there would be a goodly representation of the minority party here.

Some time was used last night in oiling the steam roller and getting it in readiness to smooth out differences of opinion in the meeting today. There will be some differences, according to reports. There are aspirants for "pup more or less empty honors as will be distributed. The Morehead-Duncan fight will crop out here and there, most likely, but the Morehead wing controls the steam roller and all will be well, no doubt.

ROOMS FOR DELEGATES TO STATE CONVENTION

Chamber of Commerce Sends Out Appeal For Help To Meet Crowded Conditions

The Raleigh Chamber of Commerce is very anxious to get in touch with Raleigh people who will open up their homes to the delegates to the Democratic State Convention which meets here Thursday.

The hotels are overrun with requests for reservations and the Chamber of Commerce has been called upon to meet the situation. The organization, through Secretary M. R. Beaman, asks that all those who have available rooms notify the Chamber of Commerce.

The hotels will co-operate in the effort to house all those who may attend the convention. An information bureau will be opened up at the Yarrowburgh Hotel for this purpose.

TWO MYSTERY PLAYS AT ST. SAVIOUR'S CHAPEL

The two mystery plays, "The Sunset Hour" and "The Catcher and the Child," which were given yesterday by the children of St. Saviour's chapel, under the direction of Miss Lucy Davis were so staggeringly impressive in their simplicity and reverence. About fifty children took part in their white dresses, with flowers in their hair carried out the solemn idea of the plays with charming naturalness.

EDWARD C. SMITH IS BOUND OVER TO COURT

(Special to the News and Observer.) Durham, April 6.—An investigation of the automobile accident, in which Edward C. Smith, a civil engineer of Raleigh, ran down and killed instantly Warfield Lynn, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lynn, Saturday, several miles east of the city, was held yesterday afternoon before Squire R. C. Cox in the courthouse. Several eye witnesses testified to the accident. It is said the boy came from behind a wagon, and as he did so he was in front of the oncoming automobile, driven by Mr. Smith, who, it is alleged, was coming over twenty-five miles an hour. The right fender struck the boy's head, crushing the skull. Mr. Smith was bound over to the Superior court under a $1,000 bond.

Widow Cries for Joy

"I couldn't eat anything but raw eggs and sweet milk and was so weak I could hardly walk across the room. I would have been in my grave today if hadn't taken Mayr's Wonderful Remedy when I did. When I think how I have suffered with my stomach and how good I feel now I cry for joy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. Case Against L. A. Baugh For Embezzlement Not Prossed In Wake Court

A case against L. A. Baugh, the bill of indictment charging embezzlement on thirty-one counts, was not prossed in Wake county superior court yesterday. Mr. Baugh was formerly agent for the Indian Refining Company. Following a visit here of an auditor of the company he was charged with embezzlement. Thirty-one checks were found bearing his endorsement and it was claimed he had cashed them and retained the money. He had, however, converted them into cashier's checks and forwarded these to the company.

WILMINGTON SHOW OF AUTOMOBILES OPENED

Thirty Cars and Many Home and Farm Conveniences Displayed; Big Crowd

Wilmington, April 6.—The Wilmington automobile show was opened formally tonight at 8 o'clock with the decorative exercises of the new city auditorium. Speeches by Mayor F. Q. Moore and by Joseph W. Little, representative to the Chamber of Commerce marked the ceremonies. The Royal Scotch Highland Band will play throughout the five days of the show every afternoon and night.

The display of automobiles included thirty cars, all that could be accommodated on the main floor of the building. Automobile supplies and equipment are also in evidence. The balcony is given over to an industrial exhibit of farm and home conveniences, under the supervision of Miss Florence Jeffrey, county home demonstration agent. Refreshments are dispensed by two church societies and the Scotch. It is estimated that the crowd attending the opening night was near 1,000.

CARNIVAL AT HICKORY HAS CALAMITOUS CLOSE

Hickory, April 6.—A carnival company boasting 300 people some of them alleged good looking females, had its hands full when it broke up here, or rather was broken up by a crowd of sports spirits who gathered from the South mountains and Hickory, Newton, Morganton and other nearby points. One tent was slashed up pretty badly and several heads were cracked in a fight in which corn liquor is said to have played a conspicuous part. As a result of the melee two persons have been arrested and warrants are out for others. The longer the carnival stayed here, according to some who saw it, the rougher it got.

Nearly five inches of rain has fallen in this section during the past six days, an inch and a half of it Sunday night during a thunder and rain storm that rivaled August and September efforts. The small streams rose, but most damage was done by the erosion of the soil. The cold wave struck here late Monday afternoon.

Hold Gasoline A Necessity

Huntington, W. Va., April 6.—Gasoline is as necessary for an automobile as food for a horse, ruled Magistrate Samuel Wright in discharging two Huntington garage owners, who were charged with having violated the "Sunday closing law."

IF TOO THIN TRY BITRO-PHOSPHATE

While excessive thinness might be attributed to various and subtle causes in different individuals, it is a well-known fact that the lack of phosphorus in the human system is very largely responsible for this condition. It seems to be well established that this deficiency in phosphorus may now be met by the use of Bitro-Phosphate, which can be obtained from Hildebrandt's Co. or any good druggist in convenient tablet form.

In many instances the assimilation of this phosphate by the nerve tissue soon produces a welcome change—more energy, vigor and strength replace weakness and lack of energy and the whole body runs smoothly below and above ground, becoming enveloped in a glow of perfect health and vigor and the will and strength to be up and doing.

CAUTION—While Bitro-Phosphate is unexcelled for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.—Adv.

TRANSFORM TENT TO THING OF BEAUTY

Decorators Here at Work On Interior of Canvas Motor Palace

With decorators already on the scene, the mammoth tent which will house the Carolina Automobile Exposition will shortly be a thing of beauty. Wisteria and smilax will garland the walls and the tent poles and an artificial ceiling of sweeping wisteria blossoms will spread beauty overhead.

Dealers will draw for spaces in the tent Thursday at noon. The tent will be divided up in convenient allotments for the various classes of motor vehicles, including trucks, tractors, passenger cars and accessories.

Music will be a big feature of the exposition. In addition to Conway's Band there are to be six soloists. Morton Atkins is coming as baritone soloist, Miss Edna Joyce, called the song bird of the navy, is to be the soprano soloist, and there will be John Dolan and Bert Brown, cornetists, Raymond Ellis, xylophone, and John Perfeto, euphonium soloist.

ORPHANS WILL BE CARNIVAL GUESTS

Bringing cheer to lives of dull routine, members of the Spring Festival committee, of the Central Labor Union, and I. J. Polak, managing director of the World At Home Shows, will this afternoon bring to the little inmates of the Methodist and Catholic orphanages. Transportation by automobiles will be provided for the little folks and everything on the festival grounds will be free to them.

From the Big House, where the toys will be lost in a labyrinth of joy, through the mazes of the midway, including all feature attractions, the festival will be open to them. The riding devices, including even the big saw aeroplane swings, will be at their disposal, and it is planned to make the afternoon memorable for the visitors.

FLYING PARSON WILL ARRIVE HERE TODAY

Lieutenant Belvin W. Maynard, flying parson, now on a recruiting mission for the War Department, will make his second visit to Raleigh this afternoon at 1:30 when the big DeHavilland plane will fly here from Winston-Salem. Lieutenant Maynard, according to a telegram received by the News and Observer, will land Winston-Salem this morning about 11:30. He will land in the Chamber of Commerce field East of Raleigh, which has been especially prepared to receive him.

CLOSES RECITAL OF SORDID STORY

(Continued from Page One.) was poor and uneducated. I had been warned against him, but he told me soon after our meeting that he could not live without me. "Your beautiful brown eyes are life to me," he said.

"He dragged and betrayed me. He cast me into the world with my child. He beat me, he had me throw into jail repeatedly. He stole my son after the court had given him to me, with five dollars a week alimony to care for the two of us.

"But still I loved him. I loved him too much to kill him. People who testified that I threatened to kill him made a mistake. I have said that a man who would do the things he did should be killed, but I would not kill him. I loved him too much. No woman ever loved a man more than I loved him.

Mrs. Cummings described the privations she and Kenneth, her son, endured while they were trying to live on the five dollars a week allowed them by Cummings. She declared that during January and February she and the child almost froze to death and that often they were entirely without food.

TEAM TO JAPAN

Chicago, April 6.—The University of Chicago baseball team will leave tonight for its third invasion of Japan. On the previous trips in 1910 and 1915, twenty-two consecutive games were taken from the Japanese University players. Fred Merrifield, who was captain of the Chicago team in 1909, will lead the expedition. He coached in Japan three years since the Maroons were last there.

Parade Is Missing

New Orleans, April 6.—Confederate decoration day was observed here today for the first time without the customary parade of Confederate veterans, advanced age and scarcity of numbers making the cancellation advisable. Monuments and graves were decorated as usual. Today is the anniversary of the battle of Shiloh.

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

Premature Baldness Caused by Dandruff

Constant care must be given the scalp if the hair is to be kept in a healthy, growing condition. Dandruff, itching scalp and eczema of the head are often the real causes of premature baldness.

LEAVE HEADACHE AT DRUG STORE

Money Back While You Wait at Counter if Aspirin Does Not Relieve in Two Minutes. Absolutely Safe.

Save half an hour or more of headache pain by taking the new Aspirin Elixir instead of the slow acting tablets that have to wait so long to be digested and absorbed. Aspirin acts right now and without the slightest danger to your heart or anywhere to your stomach.

Your physician recommends Aspirin because he knows it removes the cause of illness and sick headache by gently acting on the liver, correcting biliousness and constipation and preventing the return of your headache next day.

The next time you have a headache go to your nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirin and tell him to serve you two teaspoonsful in a little water. With your watch in your hand count out two minutes and call for your money back, as per manufacturer's guarantee. If you can't find your headache fading away within the time limit. Don't be thankful for your druggist invites you and expects you to try it. Every body is doing it. Same guarantee applies to colds, coughs and neuralgia. (Adv.)
