

LOSS OF PARTY FAITH IS DAY'S BIG EVIL

Cameron Morrison Speaks Before Good Crowd in Wake Courthouse

MAKES APPEAL FOR OLD ORGANIZATION

Introduced By Manager In Wake, W. F. Evans, Who Takes Pledge at Gardner Pledge List; Morrison Replies To Charge That He Is Machine Politician

One of the most serious evils of the present time is the lack of confidence throughout the country in political parties and public officials, Cameron Morrison, candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, last night told an audience that virtually filled the Wake county courthouse. It was Mr. Morrison's first formal political address in Raleigh for his campaign and in it he appealed for greater faith in the Democratic party, scored Republican inefficiency in the North Carolina and the nation, traced the progress of the State from the Red Shirt days in '98 to the present, announced his own campaign platform and answered charges of his critics.

Mr. Morrison was frequently applauded but never so enthusiastically or so long as when he told his hearers of Wake how he went down in defeat with them in the Democratic State convention on the issue of woman suffrage.

"But we are beat boys. They're going to vote," he said, adding that those who were beat were in a great majority, pointing out that the suffrage issue has set North Carolina on a swelling volcano, and appealing to the white women of the State to join with the white men to see to it that negro women no more vote in North Carolina than negro men.

Mr. Morrison was presented to his audience last night by Mr. W. F. Evans, his campaign manager in Wake. In a few preliminary remarks, Mr. Evans paid his respect to the Gardner claim that at least one-half of the voting strength in Wake has signed the Gardner pledge.

Commencement Day Slump. "I want to say," Mr. Evans went on, "that we haven't one student in Wake county signed to the Gardner pledge. I want to promise that he will vote for Cameron Morrison on election day.

"These real estate concerns are used to brass bands and the auctioneer's system. We know that the list of 2,300 will be reduced by at least 700 when the commencement exercises at State College are over.

He presented Mr. Morrison as a man who has never straddled any public question in North Carolina.

Mr. Morrison forego what he termed, "eloquent exordiums and pleasant preliminaries" and dived straight into his speech, asking whether this country will be governed by political parties or class groups, and maintaining the lack of respect throughout the country in political parties today as one of the greatest evils of the times.

He related the history of the Republican party in North Carolina and told the story of the redemption of the State in the Red Shirt campaign by men whose slogan was "The white will rule this State or die."

Contrasts the Record. The record of the two parties, he likewise contrasted in the nation, crediting the Bull Moose movement against the old line Republican machine and the record of the Democrats in Congress.

When Woodrow Wilson was elected president, every manufacturer was broke," he declared, "and the millionaires are as thick around Charlotte as candidates for office in the Webb, Gardner, and Page families in North Carolina."

War Expenditures. He commenced on the amazing expenditures of the nation in the war and the stupendous wealth of the country in spite of these expenditures.

"If we had not been so profligate and so magnificent in our spending, that war would be going on tonight and instead of losing fifty-eight or sixty thousand men on the battlefields, our loss would have been in the millions.

more, Mr. Morrison declared he was voting the Democratic nomination for Governorship, not for the gratification of any vulgar desire for distinction, and not as a reward for party service, and pledges himself if elected not to consciously compromise the party principles with any group of men.

In answer to the charge of the Gardner and Page forces that he is a machine politician, the candidate confessed the truth of the charge, if the meaning of the complaint is that he had answered every call of the party regardless of who was in control of its policies. Straightaway, he summoned before him the political activities of the Page and Gardner families in North Carolina.

"It is only fair for me," he said, "to answer the charge against me by showing that these men are seasoned, chain-worn office seekers and have been all these years."

Health Impossible If Digestion Bad. Maltogen Aids Digestion Naturally and Permanently. During recent years the vital importance of perfect digestion has come to be generally appreciated. Unfortunately this has encouraged the production of scores of so called remedies for indigestion which, if they have any effect at all, furnish only temporary relief.

Maltogen, a compound of natural and reliable blood and strength builders corrects digestive troubles in the only natural way, by strengthening the digestive organs. The effect of this tonic on those who are weak, nervous and generally run down because of imperfect digestion is astonishing. Appetite improves, the color and glow of health return, nervousness and irritableness disappear and almost immediately the weight begins to increase, due to the building up of solid, healthy tissue all over the body. These are the evidences that Maltogen is what anemic, sickly people need.

If you are under weight or lacking in vitality do not suffer in silence. Give Maltogen a chance to do for you what it does for others in your condition. For sale by druggists. If your dealer cannot supply you write to Paramount Drug Co., Washington, D. C.—(Adv.)

Money Is Useless

When You Have Bad Health.

The pleasures of life are denied those who suffer with rheumatism, eczema, erysipelas, eruptive skin and other diseases caused by an impure state of the blood. Even though you seek enjoyment in the many ways possible to your station in life, your aches and pains will not permit you the measure of happiness to which you are entitled. You are necessarily miserable and discouraged, and when your morbid condition becomes known your friends and acquaintances will sometimes avoid you. Your success, your happiness, all depends on what you get out of life. Your health and strength therefore depend on pure, rich blood. As a purifier of the blood, modern medicine offers no remedy of greater value than Prescription C-2223. This treatment stands above all other remedies as an alternative of great power. It changes diseased conditions into conditions of health. If you are suffering from any troubles caused by impure blood, or if you fear that the poisons have never been eliminated from your blood you should begin now and take Prescription C-2223. To stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels a mild cathartic is necessary. There is nothing better than 3223 Liver Pills. All druggists sell and guarantee Prescription C-2223 at $1.50 a bottle, but if it happens that you cannot find it, send $1.75 for a large bottle and a box of pills. Write Dept. 122 for sample of pills, literature and a 1920 Almanac.—Adv.
