Long and Hoke are running a close race for honors in this county, while shipman has swept the county, as have lasy, Graham and Wade. Miss Lillian Exum Clement, Buncombe's woman candidate, appears to have defeated her two candidates for the Democratic nomination as Representative number two. Her race is one of the features of the election here, especially as many of the leading suffragist workers were against her, mainly it is understood because the her, mainly it is understood because the entered the race without constitting them. Haywood, banner Democratic county which Morrison expects to energy, had not been heard from at midnight.

EDGECOMBE AND NASH.

Rocky Mount, June 6.—According to complete returns now tabulated Nash county gave Morrison a majority of 104 votes over both Page and Gardner. Goldaboro, June 6.—Rain here yester-day caused a light vote in county pre-cincts. In gubernatorial race Gardner extried the county but ewing to a num-ber of precincts yet to be heard from officially his smajority has not been deofficially his majority has not been de-termined. Morrison also polled a strong vote both in the city and county. In the congressional race Brisson received a majority of 600 in the city. Unofficial returns give him 200 majority in county precincts. With three candidates is the race for sheriff, B. W. Grant received a Asheville, June 6. Official returns from 11 counties of the Tenth district today show some changes in the plural-ities secured by Morrison, his plural-tics in these countles being as follows: Buncombe, 427; Haywood, 1,500; Jack-son, Swain, Graham, Cherokee, Clay, Macon, Transylvania, 100 each; Hender-son, 200, and Polk, 30. In Buncombe county complete returns from all pre-cincts except one small township, the results of which will not change the vote, it is believed give Morrison, 1,869; Gardner, 1,842; Page, 206.

CHATHAM. CHATHAM.

Pittsboro, June 5.—Returns from 14 of 16 precincts give Morrison, 550, Gardner, 275 and Page, 250. The missing precincts will be a stand-off among the three candidates. The present sheriff, Leon T. Lane, is nominated for the legislature, Walker Blair for sheriff and Q. C. Poe for register of deeds. J. D. Willett and J. W. Griffin won out for commissioners, the third place being in Asheville, June 6.—Returns from 20 precincts out of 31 in Buncombe county at midnight gave Morrison a lead of nearly one-third more over Gardner, the Charlotte man having swept the county.

G. C. Poe for register of deeds. J. D. Willett and J. W. Griffin won out for commissioners, the third place being in doubt between A. T. Ward and B. M. McIver.

PERSON. Roxboro, June 6.—Ten out of 13 pre-cincts is Person county give Page, 174; Gardner, 174; Morrison, 56. For Senator, Brooks, 178; Overman, 176. Cooper has big lead for Lieutenant Governor; Cook leading for auditor. Hoke, Stacy and Gulley leading for Supreme Court. NEW HANOVER. Wilmington, June 6.—Beturns from 10 precincts in New Hanover show Ricaud cading Cranmer for Judge; eCoper far in the lead over Harding for Lieuten-ant Governor. Gardner leading for Governor with Page a close second; Stacy 1199; Lee S. Overman, 1118; for Gover and Guion ahead for Supreme court nor, Morrison, 482; Gardner, 643; Page bench; Lyon will apparently carry the ounty by a safe majority for Congress.

Lumberton, June 6.—Beturns from 20 of the 25 townships in Robeson gives (fardner a lead over both Morrison and Page of around 150 votes.

L. R. Vacser, anti-division candidate for the State Senate and N. B. Mc-Arthur and N. W. Jenkins, anti-division candidate for the Legislature defeated G. B. Patterson, candidate for the State Senate and A. R. McEacher and D. W. Bullock, candidates for the Legislature on the division ticket, by around 1,500 votes. Lumberton, June 6 .- Beturns from 20 around 1,500 votes.

The divisionists would have been defeated without Lamberton's 1,045 against division. The light was to to whether or not the "State of Robeson" should be divided into three counties.

R. E. Lewis, present incumbent, was fibminated for recorder of the Lumberton district over A. E. Spivey, W. P. Barker, D. D. McNeill and Travis Base. Reports from practically all the townships in Robeson indicate that H. L. Godwin and H. L. Lyon, candidates for Congress from the Sivth district, are running close together. The vote for John G. Shaw was light. The division fight brought out the largest vote ever polled in a primary in Robeson.
