TARHEELS LOSE TO COLTS BY ONE RUN

Richmond Wins Good Game By Score of Three To Two

Rocky Mount, June 28.—Three to two went the score against the Tar Heels this afternoon with Richmond claiming the big end and with the major credit due to Third Baseman Grim, the former Tar Heel, who not only fielded a sensational game, but slashed out a two-ply drive that sent the winning run to count and made two of the visitors four hits. Glaber, on the mound for the Tar Heels, breezed through in great style, save for the one wobbly inning when a base on balls and three hits gave the Colts a lead that could not be overturned with Stone's timely work into account.
