THE IMPULSE.

It seems to me I'd like to go Where bells don't ring, nor whistles blow,
Nor clocks don't strike, nor gongs don't sound,
And I'd have stillness all around.

Not real stillness, but just the trees
Low whispering, or the hum of bees,
Or brooks' faint babbling over stones
In strangely, soft tangled tones.

Or maybe a cricket or a katydid,
Or the songs of birds in hedges hid,
Or just some such sweet sounds as these
To fill a tired heart with ease.

If 'twere't for sight and sound and smell
I'd like a city pretty well;
But when it comes to getting rest,
I like the country lots the best.

Sometimes it seems to me I must Just quit the city's din and dust
And get out where the sky is blue;
And, say, how does it seem to you?
