JULY.
The linden, in the fervors of July, Lutes with a louder concert. When the wind Sweeps the broad forest in its summer prime,
As when some master hand exulting sweeps The keys of some great organ, we give forth
The music of the woodland depths, a hymn Of gladness and of thanks.

NORTH CAROLINA DEMOCRATS
Slander and Deception Are The Tactics of Desperation

Since the first primary many of the supporters of Gardner in the State have circulated many false charges against Mr. Morrison, ranging from attacks on his Democracy to attacks on his personal character.
His service for thirty years for Democracy, his battle for white supremacy, his present unceasing plea for old-fashioned Democracy is thus being rewarded by bitter denunciation. Are these bitter partisans deliberately trying to destroy the Democratic party and belittle its achievements?

Our answer to their backdoor gossip is the statement of Mr. Morrison, the answer of charity and of loyalty to the party and its leaders:

"No man will say anything in favor of the personal integrity of my opponent that I do not cheerfully subscribe to. If by the turn of fate he should be the nominee, he will not work harder for his own election than I will."

To the charges against Mr. Morrison's honesty his only answer is: That his opponent is an honest man.

To the charges against his Democracy, Mr. Morrison's only answer is: That his opponent is a loyal Democrat.

To the other charges, whispered like the voice of the serpent, and reflecting upon his character, Mr. Morrison's only answer is: That he will uphold and defend the reputation of his opponent against the slanders of the foes of true Democracy.

These are the answers of Morrison, the statesman and Christian gentleman, to the slanders circulated by many of the Gardner supporters; for Mr. Morrison knows that the Democratic party having accepted his thirty years' devoted service, will not endorse efforts to traduce his good name.

On behalf of Mr. Morrison and under his instructions, the Morrison supporters are urged to be patient, and not let their anger at such tactics cause them to say anything derogatory to the character or Democracy of Mr. Morrison's opponent.

Remember, the public is intelligent. The public is just. The public at the polls will answer for Mr. Morrison these cruel attacks on him. The slanders will be repeated during this week. Remember, Democrats, Mr. Morrison would prefer an honorable defeat rather than a victory which is the result of personal abuse. Mr. Morrison wants and expects the hearty support and good will of all supporters of Gardner at the November election.

Mr. Loyal Democrat, if our position is wrong in refraining from answering slander with abuse, please correct us at the polls.
