WHEN I REMEMBER YOU.

When I remember you there falls
A silence in my mind.
As after gusty intervals
Settes the weary wind.
And a far voice in the stillness calls
Silver, and very kind.

Then I give over matching words
Against an old despair,
And I know the sky would fill with birds,
With song would fill the air,
If you could see the broken shreds
Of life I yet must bear.

You did not shatter it, but I Broke it into my hands;
Wherefore my sky is a silent sky
And all lands twilight lands;
Of pride that towered as heaven high
There is not one wall stands.

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

Every farmer needs to know the answer. In his article Mr. Marquis presents truly enlightening conclusions based on months of study of the national agricultural crisis.

He shows, for example, the effect of reducing the appropriation for Farm Management and Cost of Production Work from $280,000 to $80,000, of 12,615 resignations within the department in one year. Such things directly influence the health of your hogs, the efficiency of your dairy, the market for your grain. You need to know about them. And you'll profit by knowing all the other vital farm facts and money-making ideas which fill each of the 52 big issues of this great weekly journal. It overlooks no aspect of your farm business or of the farm home. Let me start your year of Country Gentleman service with this splendid but typical issue.
