

ASSAULTS BY COX PUT REPUBLICANS ON THE DEFENSIVE

Democratic Candidate's Dynamic Methods Revelation To American People

WINS YALE FACULTY BY HIS POSITION ON LEAGUE

Both High Brow Idealists and Men On The Streets Attracted by Straight Forward Manner of Ohio Man; Labor Hostility To Old Guard Causes Concern.

The News and Observer Bureau, 603 District National Bank Bldg. (By Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Aug. 29.—Governor Cox is proving himself a veritable revelation to the American people and a terror to the Republican party, in the verdict of some of the persons who witnessed the candidate's reception in New York yesterday. He put the enemy on the run with his force assault. Chairman Will Hays slipped out of town two days before he was scheduled to go and is now closeted with the lords of the Republican party on the Marion beach porch.
At New Haven, Cox won over the public faculty of Yale almost in a body. Prof. Irving Fisher, who had just returned from an interview with Senator Harding on the League of Nations, said that he had never voted for a man for President who was not elected, and that he intended to vote for Cox. He said Cox would be elected because of the great independent element that always elects for Cox. Cox is winning the educators and the teachers and churchmen everywhere on the League of Nations issue. Practically every Episcopal clergyman in the State of New York is working for the Democratic candidate.
Winning Multitudes Also.
But the candidate is not only winning the high brow idealists but the L.A.N. in the streets. He is corraling the great multitude. In meeting and handling a crowd Cox has shown himself a real politician. At his reception at the New York Democratic club yesterday he used both hands and shook the hands of 2,500 people within less than an hour, an achievement that no one ever got through with with such speed before. At the end of his task the Governor was as fresh as at the beginning. In his double handshaking he employed what is known as the "Australian crawl" with his right hand. This crawl is a sure prevention of lameness. He shook hands with people almost as fast as they could walk by him and not one in the Governor's hand was the grapple in the Governor's hand and the greeting on his lips, it is disclosed.
There are Democrats who say that Cox in his charging the Republicans with the raising of $15,000,000 to buy the presidency, fired his big guns too soon; that he ought to have waited till much nearer the election so that the Republicans could not have time to meet the charge. The Governor's view is that the Republicans should have all the time they want. His purpose in hurrying his charges is to give the Senate investigating committee the necessary time to show the American people that what he has stated gives only a hint of what will be revealed. He tells the Senate committee to get the names of the Republican chairmen even down to the county organizations and it will learn the amount of money being raised and the sources from which it is coming. What the candidate is after is to show the enormous amount of money being raised and the taint on it.
Labor Hostile To Republicans.
Another thing that is giving the Republicans much uneasiness at this stage of the campaign is the practically open hostility of organized labor. Governor Cox in his speeches has emphasized his statement that big business is pouring its money into the Republican treasury to install a party in the Federal government that will use the bayonet against strikers. Gompers fears this. He has already made a speech almost openly endorsing the Democratic candidate and for nearly two weeks there has been on the desk of every important newspaper editor in this country an analysis of both Cox's and Harding's records on labor by the leaders of the American Federation of Labor.
This analysis shows that in almost every instance the Democratic candidate voted to favor labor in legislation. On the other hand Harding's record shows that he voted against the interests of labor in fully 75 per cent of instances. Gompers calls this comparison of the two candidates records a non-partisan one. He is too clever a politician to try to force his organization to take sides. But he says look for yourselves, there are the facts.
The Republicans are saying that the hostility of organized labor will cause interests that are hostile to organized labor to consolidate in favor of their party. But the Republican party monopolizes every interest in this country that opposes organized labor. The Republicans cannot look with equanimity upon hostile labor.
Propose Economic Boycott.
It is understood by those who have made a study of Harding's speech yesterday on the League of Nations that Elihu Root's plan is that the supreme international court of justice will contain the economic boycott now in Article X of the League covenant and that the nations will be pledged to abide by the decisions of the court. The economic boycott is the "teeth" for Harding speaks for this court which he calls the Hague tribunal.
According to Prof. Irving Fisher, who discussed the plan with the Marion candidates, it will not serve as a makeshift to get Harding across with the industry.

G. O. P. LEADERS TO PRESENT EVIDENCE ON CAMPAIGN FUND

Declare They Will Disprove Charges of Governor Cox Before Committee

RESUME INVESTIGATION AT WINDY CITY TODAY

Republican Leaders Assert They Will "Crucify Cox On His Own Cross." Say They Will Show There Is No Corruption; To Make Democrats Uncover Their Cards

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Leaders in the Republican party spent today and tonight preparing a mass of documentary evidence to be presented to the Senate campaign investigating committee when it reconvenes here tomorrow to look into methods used in conducting the presidential campaign.
This evidence, they declared, would prove untrue the charges of Governor Cox, Democratic nominee, that a $15,000,000 corruption fund was being raised by the Republicans and would "crucify Cox on his own cross."
Will Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, arrived this morning and he and Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the national committee, were in conference until late tonight. Under their supervision copies of the party's books and records were made containing the name of every contributor to the campaign fund and the amount given, the party's campaign budget and the quotas assigned districts. Another statement prepared is said to show the expenditures of the party in the campaign.
All Will Be Given.
"It will all be given to the committee tomorrow," said Mr. Upham. "It will show that there is no corruption, no slush fund, and that Governor Cox's statements are absolutely untrue."
Previous statements by Mr. Hays and Mr. Upham that the Republican party would not be content with defending itself from Governor Cox's charges, but would present evidence concerning the Democratic campaign fund were reiterated tonight.
"We will fight fire with fire," said Mr. Hays. "We will not only make public everything connected with our campaign, but we will force the Democrats to do the same. We warned them at the start that we would not take their spears and bring down and we are going to back up that statement."
Senator Edge, Republican of New Jersey, arrived unexpectedly today and will take part in the hearings. Senator Edge, a member of the Senate committee, has been in Europe and has not attended any of the hearings since the conventions. He was closeted with Mr. Hays and Mr. Upham a few minutes, but said the meeting had no official significance.
Senator Kenyon, Republican of Iowa, chairman of the committee, arrived late tonight and Senator Koverne, Democrat of Ohio, and the other members are expected early tomorrow.
Democrats Not Active.
On the Democratic side there was little activity. There was no one officially authorized to speak for them in connection with the hearing. Wilbur Marsh, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, and George White, chairman, are expected tomorrow.
So far as could be learned, no word had been received from Governor Cox as to any evidence he might send or saying whether he expected to attend. He was invited to do so a week ago, but replied he felt his presence should not be demanded.
At Republican headquarters it was said the party leaders probably would not insist that Governor Cox be forced to attend but that every effort would be made to obtain all evidence he might have. It was indicated the Republicans might ask the committee to go to Governor Cox if it was felt a subpoena would interfere with his campaign plans or tend to humiliate him.
Mr. Hays gave newspaper men a formal statement again denying Governor Cox's charges. "Candidate Cox has charged that millions have been paid to the Republican national committee by sinister influences to buy the presidency," said the statement.
Must Prove Charges.
"Yesterday he is reported to have said in New York that many men are making contributions to the Republican campaign fund for the purpose of using the bayonet to settle industrial difficulties. Candidate Cox will have to prove these charges, but this he cannot do because they are absolutely false. His declarations are an insult to the thousands of citizens aiding us with small contributions and we will publicly prove them false by making public the name of every contributor, the amount and the purpose for which it is spent."
"Incidentally, Candidate Cox will have to explain the source of his funds collected by his own national committee and by the agencies outside his national committee for his benefit."
Congressman Fred A. Britten, of Illinois has been subpoenaed in connection with his charges that money appropriated by Great Britain for entertainment at the Washington embassy, has "found its way to the Democratic national committee" and the investigating committee also has several other matters on its docket. The Senatorial primaries in Oklahoma, in which Senator Gore was defeated and the pre-convention campaign in Kansas are among them.
Rep. Good Makes Charges.
Representative James W. Good, Republican of Iowa, tonight issued a statement charging Democratic officeholders had violated the corrupt practices act by leaving political assessments to federal employees and saying he would "welcome an opportunity" to appear before the investigating committee in support of his statements.

U. S. OARSMEN WIN EIGHT-OAR EVENT

Jack Kelly, American Single Sculls Champion, Also Wins; New Record

Brussels, Aug. 29.—(By The Associated Press.)—The American eight-oared crew defeated the British eight in the final of the Olympic race for eight-oared boats with coxswains here today. The Americans covered the distance in 6 minutes 5 seconds to the Englishmen's 6 minutes 5 4-5 seconds. The time was a new world's record for the two thousand meters.

Jack Kelly of the Vesper Boat Club, Philadelphia, single sculls champion of the United States, defeated J. Beresford, Jr., the British sculler, in the final of the Olympic single sculling race. Kelly's time was 7 minutes 35 seconds, and Beresford's 7 minutes 36 seconds.

Notwithstanding his hard singles event, Kelly doubled with the American Costello, for the double sculls, the pair winning easily by five lengths from Italy after taking the lead at the one thousand meters.

Eight-Oared Event Best.
The eight-oared event was the greatest of the day. The leader crew, representing Great Britain, took a slight lead which it increased to half a length at the 1,000 meters. Both crews were rowing 28 strokes a minute. Here the American midshipmen increased their power and after each crew had alternately taken the lead, spurred ahead 150 meters from the finish. The Americans won by a half length, sitting up and fresh, while the English eight crossed the line bent over and utterly rowed out.

The regatta was witnessed by a large crowd on both banks of the canal, which included Brand Whitlock, the American ambassador, who greeted the American winners and was photographed with them.
Summaries of Finals.
Following are the summaries in today's rowing finals:
Four oared race: Switzerland first, America second and Norway third. Winning time 6 minutes 54 seconds.
Single sculls: Kelly, America, first; Beresford, England, second. Winner's time 7 minutes 35 seconds.
Pair-oared with coxswain: Italy first, France second and Switzerland third. Winner's time, 7 minutes 56 seconds.
Double sculls without coxswain: America first, Italy second and France third. Winner's time, 7 minutes 9 seconds.
Eight-oared race: America first, England second; Winner's time, 6 minutes 5 seconds.
America did not enter the double-oared event with coxswain, which was won by Italy in the last hundred meters, with the French and Swiss crews collapsing and paddling the finish.

Greatest interest centered in the single sculls and the 2,000 meters event for eight-oared shells, and the Americans enjoyed great satisfaction over their victory against the famous Leander eight and the winner of the Diamond sculls.
There was much betting on these events, and the European nations as a rule backed the British contestants, with the result that they lost considerable money.
The six year veteran combination of Switzerland proved too strong for the Americans in the four-oared event, the Swiss winning by three lengths, with the Americans a length and a half ahead of the Norwegian crew.

Mayor MacSweneay was still conscious, however, and told her: "I am convinced I will not be released. It will be better for my country if I am not."

GOV. COX GREETED WOUNDED HEROES

Visits Convalescent Veterans of World War While Party Leaders Wait

New York, Aug. 29.—More than 250 wounded war veterans shook hands here today with Governor James M. Cox, who made a dozen or more political allies wait two hours at his hotel while he visited the Polyclinic hospital. The second and last day of the Democratic presidential candidate's stay here had been scheduled for him far in advance and some of Governor Cox's advisers counseled against taking so much time away from political conferences.

"Lethargic wait," the Governor said, every one of the soldiers in the hospital. "If it will cheer them to meet me, they won't be disappointed."
And he made good his promise. Going from ward to ward, he chatted a moment with each of the invalids, who, dressed in pajamas and bath robes and displaying bandages and crutches, included men in every stage of convalescence.
On the roof of the hospital the governor posed for photographers surrounded by patients, nurses and physicians.

"On September second I start for my Western front," he told one group. "What I do there will be in emulation of what you did on the Western front in France—that is, clean 'em up."
On returning to his hotel, the candidate found many Democratic leaders waiting to confer with him. In a short time he received several of these, including Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of New York, who wished personally to announce his intention of taking the stump for the Democratic ticket.

TO INAUGURATE AIR MAIL ROUTE TO CUBA THIS FALL

Postmaster General Burleson Announces Award of Contract for Service

Washington, Aug. 29.—Airplane mail service between the United States and Cuba will be inaugurated this fall. Postmaster General Burleson said today in announcing the award of the first contract for the dispatch of foreign mail by seaplane. The contract, made between the government and the Florida West Indies Airways Company, calls for daily transportation of mail between Key West and Havana for one year from October 15.
"Train No. 88, leaving New York at 9:15 a. m., with the night's accumulation of mail and arriving at Key West at 10:50 a. m. the following day," said the Postmaster General's announcement, "is the mail train connection for the seaplane bound for Havana. This will result in the placing of American mail in the Havana postoffice in time for delivery, at least in the business district, the same afternoon, and thus enable a reply dispatched by the returning seaplane which leaves Havana at 5 p. m. north-bound mail at Key West."
First class mail weighing four pounds, six ounces, or less will be handled, the rate to be six cents an ounce.

BELFAST SCENE OF SERIOUS FIGHTING

Eleven Persons Dead As Result of Night of Rioting; Homes Are Wrecked

Belfast, Aug. 29.—Eleven men dead is the toll of Saturday night's fighting in Belfast. In addition to the six men killed during the height of the battle, five of the wounded died today.
A feature of the rioting was the extent of the destruction of property by incendiary bombs. The fire brigade had an especially hard time during the night in fighting the flames. Their work was rendered hideous by the constant rattle of machine guns. The Sinn Feiners were in strong force and appeared to be well supplied with arms and ammunition.

Many Homes Wrecked.
The greatest of bitterness was displayed during the fighting. There was a great amount of wrecking of houses and the burning of furniture, both indoors and on the street. The yells of the mob, the shrieks of women and children and the groans of the injured were audible throughout the fighting. When the rioting was at its worst, women could be seen, clad in their night attire, rushing from their homes attempting to lead their families from the danger zone.

The excitement was intense until 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Isolated firing was to be heard throughout the forenoon and the people were apprehensive lest there should be a renewal of the disorders at nightfall.

BOLSHEVIKI AGREE ON PROPOSITION TO TRANSFER MEETING

Russo-Polish Peace Negotiations To Be Moved To Letvian City of Riga

ANNOUNCE DECISION IN DISPATCH FROM MOSCOW

Little Progress Apparently Made in Peace Negotiations Between Russians and Poles at Minsk; Polish Delegates Complain of Mistreatment at Hands of Soviets

Warsaw, Aug. 29.—(By The Associated Press.)—The Russian Soviet government has accepted the Polish proposal for transfer of the Russo-Polish peace negotiations from Minsk to Riga, Latvia, it was announced in a Moscow wireless to the Polish government received early today.
Definite indications reached Warsaw Saturday that but little progress had been made at the Minsk conference and that the Poles and Soviet representatives had agreed to a shift of the negotiations in the hope of bettering conditions generally.
Complain of Treatment.
A wireless message from Minsk by way of Moscow to the foreign office complains further about the treatment suffered by the Polish delegates. The message asserts the commander of the western Soviet army placarded Minsk with posters labeling the Poles as spies and warning the population against associating with them. The message adds that the commander destroyed the Polish wireless antennae, hindering communication with Warsaw.

SAYS REDS ARE PREPARING FOR ANOTHER OFFENSIVE.
Paris, Aug. 29.—The Bolsheviks will not remain idle although defeated, the Warsaw correspondent of L'Information quotes General Rozwadowski, President Pilsudski's chief of staff, as saying Saturday.
The 70 divisions they gathered against Poland there remain barely 20," General Rozwadowski continued, "but they are organizing new armies at this moment. They are spreading fire and blood in eastern Galicia and arming bands of peasants. Our information justifies us in affirming that the Bolsheviks are preparing a great offensive in Eastern Galicia with 15 new divisions and that the military operations will soon begin."

LABOR COMMITTEE DECLARES GOV. COX FRIEND OF TOILERS

"Possessed of Fuller Understanding of Needs of The Working People"

COMPARE RECORDS OF TWO PARTY NOMINEES

Report of Federation of Labor Is First Ever Made On Presidential Candidates; Shows Cox's Record in Dealing With Labor Much Better Than That of Harding

Washington, Aug. 29.—(By The Associated Press.)—Organized labor's non-partisan political campaign committee, comparing the public records of the Republican and Democratic presidential nominees, declared in a report made public today that Governor Cox had "shown himself possessed of a fuller understanding of the needs of the working people."
The report, signed by Samuel Gompers, president; Matthew Woll, vice-president, and Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor; is the first ever made on presidential candidates by a federation committee.
Taking up the senatorial record of Senator Harding, the committee declared that on 15 measures dealing with labor his score stood: Favorable, 7; unfavorable, 10; paired unfavorably, 1.
Cite Harding's Record.
The Republican nominee's vote on labor issues during his term in the state senate of Ohio, as reported by the committee, stood: Favorable, 6; unfavorable, 0. In this connection the report said:
"Senator Harding's record in Washington affords a better opportunity for analysis of his legislative views than does his record in the Ohio Senate by reason of the fact that his term of service extended for a longer period of time, during which he was called upon to consider a wider variety of measures."
Reviewing Governor Cox's record the report said that while Governor of Ohio he had "acted upon 59 measures of interest to labor without acting on a single one adversely to labor." As a member of the 62nd congress, the governor was recorded as voting "favorable" to labor measures, the only ones listed.

Summary of Findings.
After reviewing and quoting at length from the utterances of the candidates on labor issues in their speeches at acceptance the committee summarized its findings in this language:
"There can be but one conclusion based upon a careful and impartial survey of the actions and declarations of the candidates. Governor Cox has shown himself possessed of a fuller understanding of the needs of the working people, a readier response to their needs and to their proposals and a broader statesmanship in his public discussions of the problems of the industrial world."
"In addition to this the candidate, Governor Cox in his public statements, Governor Cox has demonstrated a marked measure of progress not found in the Republican platform, and the planks of which more nearly approximate the desired declaration of human rights than do the planks found in the Republican platform."
"Not only in the specific utterances relating directly to questions held paramount by labor is the comparison favorable to Governor Cox. His progressive and constructive viewpoint of public throughout his declaration of public questions, though he slips at times into marked to a greater or less degree the platforms of both parties and the utterances of both candidates.
"It must be expiating to the whole American public that political parties bidding for the suffrage of the whole citizenship can not state in definite terms what are their proposals and what are their pledges. The same expiation must be felt regarding many of the utterances of candidates. However, the viewpoint of Governor Cox we find, more clearly expressed and less open to the criticism of lack of clarity.
Cox's Official Record.
"Moreover, and as an argument that admits of no qualifying or denial there is Governor Cox's record as Governor of Ohio during which he acted upon 59 measures of interest to labor without acting on a single one adversely to labor."
"This is a record of fidelity to humanity, of understanding of the needs of the great masses of the people that has few equals in American political life."
"The American labor movement asks from no man or woman a pledge of political conduct. It seeks to dictate to none. Its field is limited, and properly so, to furnishing to the rank and file the information upon which it may base conclusions.
"There is no intention to depart here from that rule which binds the officers individually as well as collectively in serving the great labor movement. But it would be a sad and unforfeitable remembrance of duty in this crucial hour were the facts not presented with the utmost freedom and completeness."
"With the workers of America rest the right of deciding for which candidate they shall vote. As they vote—whether it be well-aimed wisely, or with a disregard for the facts of life as they are—they will determine to a large degree the welfare and progress of the working people of our republic in the years just ahead."
Harding's Senate Record.
Then Senate measures on which Senator Harding was given "favorable rating" were:
Passage of immigration restriction bill and its repeal over the President's veto; war risk insurance; civil rights bill; woman suffrage; action to in-
