FURTHER PLANS TO BETTER FINANCIAL MATTERS IN SOUTH

To Make Effort To Have The War Finance Corporation Resume Operations

COTTON ASSOCIATION APPOINTS COMMITTEE

McLean Co-operating With Senator Simmons and Others To Help South; May Re-ject Virginia Petition For Re-argument of Rate Case; Young Ellsworth Dies

News and Observer Bureau, 608 District Nat. Bank Bldg. (By Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Sept. 17.—The American Cotton Association has appointed a committee composed of Senator F. M. Simmons, Senator Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas, and Senator N. B. Dial, of South Carolina, to confer with Secretary Houston and the President with a view to having the War Finance Corporation resume operations in an effort to assist in relieving the present acute financial situation in the South.
This committee will support and pursue the movement inaugurated several days ago by Senator Simmons to bring into play every proper agency of the government on protecting the marketing of the South's great money crops, tobacco and cotton. It is thought that the resumption of operations and of loans by the War Finance Corporation will help materially in the concerted effort for relief and for a stabilization of the price of Southern farmers' products.

McLean Is Co-operating.

Honorable Angus W. McLean, of North Carolina, is the managing director of the War Finance Corporation, and Mr. McLean is co-operating actively with Senator Simmons and his associates in the general effort now being made. This committee, it is understood, will ask the government to extend the Southern banks a loan on the basis of the loan made by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo two years ago to these same banks to tide the Southern farmers over. The cotton crop is worth $22,000,000,000 and it has been estimated that the loan for both cotton and tobacco should be $2,500,000,000.

May Reject Petitions.

J. H. Fishback, counsel for the North Carolina chamber of commerce in the North Carolina and Virginia cities rate case, said today that he expected the Interstate Commerce Commission at its meeting tomorrow to reject the petitions of the Virginia Corporation Commission and the carriers that the re-argument in the case be postponed from September 20th, the date appointed by the commission, to a much later date. He said the information he had received was to that effect. He was now waiting on word from the commission. If it did decide to postpone the hearing, he would probably go to Raleigh Monday for a conference with his North Carolina clients and others interested in the case.

Don't New Revision.

Charles J. Rixey, Jr., and Henry Thurlitt, two of the attorneys of the Southern Railway, have written the commission under date of September 15th, that the carriers would dislike to call the commission's attention to the inconsistencies and many defects in its report and pointing to their inability to carry out the terms laid down in the report without at the same time offering something helpful and constructive.

Requires More Revision.

These carriers claim that a revision of rates between North Carolina and Virginia cities requires a revision of rates in outlying points such as Chattanooga, Knoxville, Atlanta, Augusta, Charleston and Savannah. The revision of the North Carolina-Virginia rates, they claim, would require revision of rates East and West and this could not be worked out under ninety days.

Young Ellsworth Dies.

Worth Bagley Ellsworth was so fatally injured in the New York explosion that he died yesterday. The young man was twenty years old, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin D. Ellsworth of Washington. Mr. Goodwin Ellsworth, the father, who holds an important position in the Postoffice Department, was in Philadelphia on his way to Atlantic City when he received

GENERAL VIEW OF WALL STREET AFTER EXPLOSION

Business suspended in the entire Wall Street section for the day, including the New York Stock Exchange. Tens of thousands of clerks swarmed the financial district at the time of explosion. Police reserves were ordered out from all lower Manhattan stations.
Photograph gives general view of scene in Wall Street following terrible explosion in the world's greatest financial center at the noon hour Thursday. Tens of thousands of persons flocked to lower Manhattan in a few minutes following the blast. At last reports thirty-six persons lost their lives as a result of the explosion and over two hundred were injured.
Investigators are working on the theory that the blast was the work of anarchists, having gathered much evidence to substantiate this contention as opposed to the theory that it resulted from the collision of a powder wagon and another vehicle.
