Statement of League Covenant Stirs Up Renewed Interest in Campaign

CLEAR UP ATMOSPHERE FROM REPUBLICAN FOG

Washington, Oct. 4.—The President has again proved himself not only a master of political statements but an adept in political psychology.

This was the consensus of comment of Democrats in Washington today on President Wilson's first public blast in the campaign for the covenant of the League of Nations. It is believed the President could not have chosen a more propitious moment to enter the campaign. The whole nation has been listening intently for the President's words from the White House. The people had become more sympathetic than ever known in previous presidential campaigns.

"But the people," said Secretary Daniels in commenting on the President's statement, "hunger for only one thing in this campaign and that is knowledge of the covenant of the League. Whether I have gone to my speaking tour both men and women come to me and say don't tell us about the Federal Reserve and other domestic achievements of your party. We know about them. What we do not know about is the League of Nations. It is the only thing that interests us, but the speaker in the campaign is not clear and that is why we appear apathetic."

Clear Up Atmosphere.

"The President's statement," said the Secretary, "accents the one issue for it comes when the people are hungry for it and it comes from the great master of the subject. Ten days ago the whole political atmosphere of the country was fogged with fog. The Republicans have conducted such an organized propaganda of misrepresentation and distortion that Democrats feared that they could not in time get the truth to the people. That fear has passed. The fog is lifting and Mr. Wilson's statement comes down like the sun clearing away the clouds."

Senator Hitchcock, leader of the fight for the President for the League of Nations who is now here declared that the League is the only real issue in which the people are interested. Referring to Senator Borah's comment on the President, Senator Hitchcock said:

"Senator Borah may be correct when he states that the President is a very clear man, but the President is evidently not too clear to announce Republican falsehood and Republican misrepresentation on the League of Nations. President Wilson's statement, though moderate, is unequivocal. Republican leaders and Republican newspapers have said that Article Ten of the covenant makes it possible for other nations to force the League of Nations to decide whether we shall go to war or not. This lie has been uttered time and time again, and the gist of the President's statement is that it is a lie. Coming from such a high source, it may induce some people to read Article Ten who have not done so."

America Could Stop War.

"Article Ten consists of two sentences. The first is the pledge of each nation to respect and preserve the territorial integrity and political independence of all nations in the league against external aggression. The second sentence however, limit the first sentence and sets forth the only way in which the pledge can be carried out or made effective. It cannot be carried out by an order of the League. It can only be carried out by one nation appealing to another. It cannot be carried out by one nation voluntarily going to the aid of another. It cannot be carried out in effect in case the nine nations in the council unanimously agree and advise the nations of the league what should be done. They cannot order; all they can do is to advise. The second sentence cannot be given effect by unanimous vote."

"The United States being one of the members of the council, even the advice cannot be given unless the United States agree to it. Hence the United States not only has the full decision as to whether it will go to war, but it has a veto on any other nation going to war to carry this pledge into effect."

"Before the campaign ends a great many thousand people who have been misled by the false statement that the United States could be ordered to go to war or outside in the league on the subject of going to war will discover that President Wilson is correct when he says: 'This is absolutely true!'"

A leading administration Democrat whose name cannot be used in this connection said that what urged the President more than anything else to take a hand in the campaign is the present condition of the world. The two forces in the league are today struggling for supremacy are somewhat similar in motives and aspirations to the two schools of political thought that are battling in this country for victory in the November election.

He called attention to the relations between the United States and Japan, which he said the President foresaw might become very serious even if the Republicans should win the election and refuse to allow us to enter the league. If this country does not enter the league, the league will soon fall to pieces and two hostile

CHATHAM COUNTY HAS FIRST WOMAN SHERIFF

Pittaboro, Oct. 4.—The first woman sheriff in the history of North Carolina filed the necessary bond and took the oath of office in Pittaboro today. She is Miss Myrtle Siler and is now the regular high sheriff of Chatham county.

Leon T. Lane, who has been sheriff of the county for ten years, and who is the Democratic nominee for a seat in the North Carolina General Assembly, tendered his resignation to the board of county commissioners, and same was accepted.

The commissioners today elected Miss Siler sheriff of Chatham to fill the vacancy caused by Sheriff Lane's resignation, and the job of officially placing her in office was quickly done.

WOMEN WILL NOT SERVE ON JURIES

19th Amendment, Says Attorney General, Does Not Impose This Liability

The ratification of the 19th amendment to the United States Constitution made no change in the status of women, so far as their liability for jury duty is concerned and the only way in which they may become liable for such duty is by legislation imposing this duty upon them, according to an opinion sent out of the Attorney General's office yesterday by Frank Nash, assistant Attorney General.

"Our statute does not require that a juror should be a voter, indeed, it does not require that at all the condition of jury service," the board of county commissioners for the several counties at their regular meeting on the first Monday of June, year 1906, and every two years thereafter shall cause their clerks to lay before them the tax returns of the preceding year for their county, from which they shall proceed to select the names of all such persons as have paid all the taxes assessed against them for the preceding year and are of good moral character and of sufficient intelligence, etc. It is evident that the tax-payers are the source from which jurors are drawn. On the face of this act, it would appear that women tax-payers are as eligible for jury service as male tax-payers. This construction is not admissible, however, because the term 'juror' at the time of the enactment of this statute had a known and definite significance, and so the statute must be interpreted in the light of this fact. That definition is as follows: A juror is a body of men who are sworn to declare the facts of the case after they are proven from the evidence placed before them.

"A juror then, has from the very beginning to the present day been a body of men, but the right of suffrage had nothing to do with their liability to jury service. While the 19th amendment is self-executing in regard to all exercises of the privilege of voting, it is not with reference to liability to jury service. The only way that women could be liable to such service, is by an act of the Legislature imposing that liability upon them. In the absence of such statute they are not more liable to jury service now than they would have been prior to the ratification of that amendment."

DRASTIC SLASHING OF QUOTATIONS FOR WHEAT

All Deliveries of Wheat Drop Below $2 For First Time Since Guarantee

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Wheat futures declined 10 to 12 cents a bushel today in the principal grain market of the West, in some cases touching low levels not before reached since the government established the war time wheat price.

December deliveries closed in Chicago and St. Louis at 1.95 to 1.95 1/2 and at Kansas City even a lower level was reached at 1.91. At Minneapolis, the December option closed at an even 2.00, a drop of 11 1/2 cents from Saturday.

March options closed: At Chicago $1.91 to $1.91 1/2; at Kansas City, $1.87 1/2; at St. Louis, $1.93 1/2; at Minneapolis $1.93.

Declines in wheat were reflected in new flour quotations from Minneapolis where recessions of six cents a barrel since Friday were reported by two mills bringing flour to $11.30 and $11.55 a barrel in quarter barrel sacks.

WILSON INTERESTED IN COMMUNICATIONS MEETING

Washington, Oct. 4.—President Wilson is understood to be taking a personal interest in problems to be considered at the preliminary session of the International Communications Conference to be held here October 8. American claims for a share in the German cables seized by France, Great Britain and Japan in 1914 are to be taken up, but it was said today that Mr. Wilson was particularly anxious for improvement in communication of press dispatches as a means toward promotion of international comity and good will.

The American commissioners were in conference today with representatives of various press associations which receive and transmit news dispatches by cable. The meetings are for the purpose of getting the views of various interests for the information of the American delegates.

BORAH COMES OUT IN OPPOSITION TO HARDING'S LEAGUE

Republican "Irreconcilable" is Against Proposed Association of Nations

Speaking in Behalf of Brandegee's Candidacy

Declares Every Plan of a League or Association Leads To Europe; Wants America To Be Free To Meet Any Crisis and Throw Influence On Side of Justice

Danbury, Conn., Oct. 4.—America's entry into an association of nations, which has been proposed by Senator Harding, the Republican presidential candidate, as a substitute for the League of Nations as drawn at Versailles, was opposed here tonight by Senator Borah, Republican, of Idaho.

Opening a four day's speaking tour in support of the candidacy of Senator Brandegee, another of the Republican "Irreconcilable" opponents of the Versailles league, Senator Borah declared that the thing which made the United States "powerful for good is its complete freedom and its unembarrassed right to throw its influence on the side of justice and peace in every great crisis of affairs."

"There is today in the world," said Senator Borah, "no influence for peace and for civilization equal to the free and untrammelled America, and the best citizenship of the country, regardless of party, will preserve that influence, uncompromised and untrammelled."

Right of Determination.

"Our right as a people, untrammelled by alliances, leagues or associations, to determine for ourselves in every crisis and in the face of every confronting situation, what it is our duty to do and what it is in the interest of humanity and civilization to do, involves the whole question of self-government, the whole question of an independent republic, and I venture to say that the voters of the Republican party will never compromise this right."

"The voice of Maine was the voice of Lincoln speaking through the sturdy and patriotic men and women who have kept the faith."

Real League of Nations.

"The real question which this whole league scheme presents to the average citizen is this: Shall we go into Europe and take upon ourselves as a people and as a part of our burdens and obligations, the turmoil, the strife, the racial conflicts and the imperialistic schemes of the Old World or shall we stay out? Keep that plain, fundamental proposition before you."

"All these schemes lead to but one destination—Europe. Whether you have it with or without compulsion, it all leads to Europe and have you and your children and your children's children to their councils, the settlements, their standards of living, their conception of government, their wars and their eternal diplomatic intrigue just now tormenting Europe as it has for three hundred years."

All Lead To Europe.

"Whether you call the scheme a league, a concert of powers, an alliance or an association, they all lead to Europe and the American tax-payers their scheme of exploitation and waste and upon the shoulders of the American youth the military burdens which must eventually grow out of this scheme."

"This is the reason why Lloyd George is perfectly willing for us to toe in on our own terms. This is the reason why Viscount Grey is willing for us to fix our own method; gratify our own vanity as to the method of going in. For they understand, and have so declared, that once in the method of getting in is immaterial. Once there we must assume all the obligations and deal with all the situations which our presence there inevitably incurs."

Speech At Versailles.

"Witness some of the scenes at Versailles, such as the betrayal of China—the deal by which Shantung was bartered away to an unfriendly power. America set in the settlement and was silent. If not silent, then by reason of her association, powerless. This is the first time in all her history that she connived at the betrayal of a friendly people and broke every pledge, legal and moral, which a people could make. And that is the first time that the United States ever sat in on a European settlement."

Gov. Cox Tells Why Women Should Support The League

Declares Wrath of Women Who Were Made to Suffer Will Pursue Those Who Caused War "Through All Eternity;" Outlines Social Service and Justice Program Which Members of Nations of League Will Endeavor to Carry Out.

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 4.—In an address to a body of women today, Governor Cox went into considerable detail why women should support the League of Nations cause, asserting that throughout the years they have been "leaders of progress in the world" and declaring that wrath of the women who were made to suffer in the war will pursue those who caused it "through all eternity."

Joseph, William Hohenzollern and Nicholas Romanoff "through all eternity."

Women Know Real Cost.

Though asserting that the monetary cost of the war, direct and indirect, was $300,000,000,000, it was the women, Governor Cox declared, who know what the war really cost "for they paid the price in personal suffering to provide the rule of the earth with 10,000,000 men which were thrown into the gauges of battle to pacify the anger of the gods of war."

The league, Governor Cox said, not only will prevent war, which he asserted is its primary purpose, but also will promote progress, and will "set up, or itself become, a clearing house for international justice and social service."

"Those who want to keep on dreaming of a new heaven and a new earth can perhaps afford to stay out of the league," the candidate said, "but those who really want to make their dreams come true and make this world a fit habitat for human spirit, will want to join the league without delay."

Social Service Program.

The governor detailed the following social service and justice program, which he asserted member nations of the league will endeavor to carry out:

COURT JUSTICES CALL ON WILSON

Supreme Court Finds Docket Crowded With Important Cases On Reconvener

Washington, Oct. 4.—President Wilson received today the Justices of the United States Supreme Court, who called to pay their respects. The court convened at noon after its summer recess and immediately adjourned until tomorrow so the Justices might visit the White House.

The annual visit to the President was omitted last year because of Mr. Wilson's illness.

The Supreme Court reconvened to find a docket crowded with important cases. Besides half a dozen anti-trust suits, matters pending included further attacks on the prohibition amendment, suits to test the constitutionality of the anti-profiting section of the food control act of the Federal Farm Loan act, appeals in the Newberry election case and many others.

With the Federal suffrage amendment ratified and proclaimed since the court adjourned early in the summer, court officials expect that cases designed to test the constitutionality of that amendment also will reach the court during the present session.

The first case to be argued at this term will be government appeals in the dissolution suit against the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, part of the alleged anthracite coal trust. This case is set for tomorrow. By agreement of counsel argument of the other five anti-trust suits will be postponed temporarily. These suits are those against the Eastman Kodak Company, the United States and Canada; American Can Company, Southern Pacific Company and the Keystone Watch Case Company.

The prohibition amendment will reach the court again through petitions asking for a reconsideration of the decision of last June 7 sustaining the amendment and portions of the enforcement act, rendered in appeals of Christian Fiegsman, brewer of Newark, N. J., and George C. Dempsey, a Boston liquor wholesaler. A decision on these petitions is expected within a few weeks. A number of other cases involving interpretations of the enforcement act still are pending and further decisions amplifying the court's original opinion are looked for at this term.

Other cases of consequence before the court are those involving the constitutionality of provisions in the 1919 war revenue act levying an excise tax on profits derived from child labor; the boundary dispute between Oklahoma and Texas and the case of the United Shoe Machinery Company which comes up from proceedings originally instituted by the government in St. Louis under the Clayton act.

CHECK UP HISTORY OF BOMB SUSPECT

Floreen Zelenko, Arrested With Suitcase of Dynamite, May Furnish Clue

New York, Oct. 4.—Agents of the Department of Justice spent today checking up the life history of Floreen Zelenko, arrested in Pittsburgh with a suitcase full of dynamite, to determine if he held the key to the mystery of the Wall Street explosion last month. Assisted by the police, government investigators who have been working on the case under the direction of William J. Flynn, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, sought word of Zelenko's doings both at his former lodgings in Brooklyn and at headquarters of the Communist Party there. This action was taken notwithstanding that earlier in the day Federal officials who quizzed Leon Konkel, the New York steam fitter who brought about Zelenko's arrest, had ascertained that he knew nothing which would directly connect the prisoner with the New York explosion.

Konkel, arriving here this morning from Pittsburgh, was subjected to a long examination during which he recounted the conversation he said he had with Zelenko on a train going from Cleveland to Pittsburgh. Konkel is said to have stressed the point that Zelenko gazed over the Wall Street disaster.

UNABLE TO ACCOUNT FOR MOVEMENTS OF DYNAMITE

Washington, Oct. 4.—Department of justice agents at Pittsburgh reported today that Floreen Zelenko, arrested as a suspect in connection with the Wall Street explosion in New York, had been unable to account for his movements on the day of the explosion or for seven sticks of dynamite which he admitted having had in his possession.

GEORGIA BANK CASHIER TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

Tennille, Ga., Oct. 4.—The body of J. H. Arnall, cashier of the Tennille Banking Company, was found in the vault of that company's banking house when the doors were opened this morning. There was a bullet wound in his head and a pistol in his right hand, indicating that he had killed himself, in the opinion of officers.

Mr. Arnall was last seen Sunday night when he left his home to attend church. Officials of the bank say that a hurried investigation shows that his accounts were all right. Worry over an illness of his son, it is believed by Arnall's friends, unbalanced his mind.

Negotiations May Fail.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Failure of peace negotiations between the Poles and the Bolsheviks at Riga was forecast in official advice received here today. Continuing Polish military successes and the increasing strength shown by General Wrangel, anti-Bolshevik leader in Southern Russia, were said to be influencing the Poles not to make peace at this time.

MOUNTAIN PEOPLE LIKE MORRISON'S ELOQUENT APPEAL

Democratic Candidate Opens Second Week of Campaign For Governorship

YANCEY TURNS OUT AN IMMENSE AUDIENCE

From The Hills Round About Host of Folks Gather To Hear Doctrines of Democratic Party Preached By State Standard Bearer; Cheers Interrupt Speaker

By R. E. POWELL
(Staff Correspondent)

Burnsville, Oct. 4.—Up here where mountain ranges are majestic, apples blushing red and outside communication not far removed from the era of stage coaches, the political parties "a bite" the battles of candidates rage with a fury strange to most political sectors of the State and into the heart of it all Cameron-Morrison came today. His fine deliverance was cheered roundly by a great gathering of folks who swarmed into town from all parts of the county and its neighbor counties.

The address here was the opening of his second week's canvass of the State and the beginning of a campaign tour that will extend to the Cape and Sound of Carolina before it reaches its crest in Shelby and Charlotte on Monday, November 1st. A masterly presentation of the League of Nations covenant, an appeal for the income tax amendment and a warning to Democrats to bestir themselves were the high spots in his speech. Ellis Gardner presented him.

Local fighting is intense in Yancey and the Democrats have been expecting Morrison to stimulate their forest with his eloquence. He was equal to the occasion, and as his great thunderous voice rolled out the virtues of his party the battle scarred veterans of hard-campaigns gave signs of satisfaction. From his initial darting call to Democratic women to his final appeal to individual voters, his speech commanded great attention and drew frequent demonstrations of approval. The women for the most part were more decorous in their applause than the men. Mr. Morrison renewed his charges of Republican distortion of facts about the prohibition and assailed Farmer's demagogic cry for better schools and lower taxes.

He laughed at the Republican talk of honest elections and declared that such a cry comes with near grace from a party that denied its own candidates, Hiram Johnson, the strength, he won in the June primary. The Democratic candidate insisted that the Republican record in North Carolina will not stand the scrutiny of decent public opinion and accordingly the State has been literally flooded with propaganda circulated to catch Democrats off their guard.

"It is the same old crowd bidding for restoration," he declared. "They have picked out candidates who had no part in their development and expect you to believe they have been cleansed in the voice of Farmer and Tucker but the hands are the hands of Butler and Morhead."

The force of the Morrison speech here will put the Democrats to work. They have been backward in registering the women while the Republicans have been enrolling them fast. The county is ordinarily safe but there is room for a lot of missionary work. The League has been in high favor and the Morrison speech will help wonderfully.

NEGRO DIVORCE CASE

Although Wife Contests Action of Husband, Jury Gives Both a Divorce

Durham, Oct. 4.—Judge Oliver H. Allen, who is holding a civil term of the superior court in Durham county, has just had a case in which the verdict is one that is puzzling the lawyers. Judge Allen, himself, declares that in his long experience on the bench and as a superior court judge, he has never heard of a similar case. He is doubtful, in fact, if there has ever been a similar verdict rendered.

It grew out of the divorce case of Miles McCoy against his wife, Lula McCoy, both colored. The wife did ask for a divorce, but contested the action of her husband. The jury rendered a verdict giving both of the McCoy's a divorce. The jury found that the conduct of each McCoy had made life intolerable for the other.

Admittedly puzzled over the verdict, Judge Allen is of the opinion that technically neither of the McCoy's can obtain a divorce. He believes the finding of the jury will put their status back to a starting point. He stated that during the present week he will give the attorneys in the case an opportunity to elucidate on the law governing the verdict. He will then render a definite decision.

CHARLOTTE CITY CLERK NAMED FOR MAYORALTY

Charlotte, Oct. 4.—John M. Wilson, for 12 years connected with the city clerk as tax collector and then as city clerk, was this afternoon named mayor by the city commissioners to fill out the unexpired term of Frank R. McIninch, who resignation became effective October 1st.

Mr. Wilson's familiarity with the city's financial affairs is believed to have figured largely in his appointment. The mayor is by law the commissioner of finance and Charlotte's chief responsibility just at this time is in financial way. Mayor McIninch leaned heavily on Wilson throughout his administration, it is said.

MASKED BANDITS ROB CUSTOMERS OF CAFE

New York, Oct. 4.—Six masked bandits entered a cafe in Lenox avenue today, lined up 45 patrons against the wall and escaped with cash and jewelry estimated at more than $5,000. Four of the robbers covered the patrons with revolvers while the others emptied the victims' pockets.

All of the bandits escaped by fleeing over several roofs and down a fire escape, except one who went directly into the street and when confronted by a police officer ran into a subway station, jumped to the tracks and raced ahead of an oncoming train.

DEMOCRATS DRAFT PLAN OF CAMPAIGN FOR FINAL BATTLE

Governor Cox, George White, Senator Harrison and E. H. Moore in Meeting

NOMINEE SPENDS DAY AT HIS DAYTON HOME

Remainder of Campaign Fight To Be Waged in Eastern and Middle Western States; Man Arrested For Interrupting Harding Telegraphs He Is For The Democrats

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 4.—Plans for completion of the Democratic-national campaign, now declared by leaders to be entering its last stages, were being formulated here today by Governor Cox, National Chairman George White, Senator Pat Harrison, chairman of the national speakers' bureau, and E. H. Moore, the governor's pre-convention manager. The conference was held at Trail's End, the governor's country home.

As a result of the conference, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, West Virginia, New York, New Jersey and Maryland probably will be the chief battle-ground until election, according to Senator Harrison, though all details have not yet been worked out. Governor Cox will spend four days campaigning in his home state, three days in Indiana, one day in West Virginia, one in New Jersey, and most of two days in Illinois. Night meetings have been arranged for Indianapolis for the 28th, and Chicago the 30th. It also was announced that the governor will speak in Baltimore, the date for the meeting not having been decided.

To speak in Ohio.

The governor's first speeches in his home state will be October 14. He will speak first at Van Wert, Lima and Bellefontaine, with a night meeting either at Springfield or Dayton, his home city. The next day will find him at Detroit and then again into Ohio with a noon speech at Akron and a night speech in Cleveland, spending Sunday there. From Cleveland he will go into New York State, where on the 18th, he will speak at Rochester at noon and Buffalo at night. Two days will be spent in New England, it was said. He will speak at Madison Square Garden in New York on the night of the 22nd.

On next Wednesday evening the swing into Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana and Illinois will begin, reaching the most extreme western point at St. Louis, where the governor will speak on the night of October 13th, swinging back toward Ohio through Indiana and Illinois on the 12th and 11th.

Takes Day Off Rest.

The Democratic candidate spent most of today resting at his country home at Trail's End. During the day he received a delegation of women headed by Mrs. Florence Kelley, general secretary of the National Consumer's League, and Mrs. Maude Wood Park, chairman of the National League of Women Voters, who discussed with him questions pertaining to child welfare and other subjects in which the two organizations are interested.

The governor also talked to them on phases of the League of Nations, particularly why women should be interested in its adoption.

Of the many questions presented by the women, especially child welfare and the Kenyon cold storage bill, Governor Cox told them he had stood for such reforms for twelve years and that Ohio had laws similar to those they sought nationally.

Ryan For Democrats.

In connection with assertions by the Democratic campaign directors that a reaction toward the Democratic ticket has set in and that the Irish people, who have been either opposed to or only lukewarm for the League of Nations, now are lining up for Cox and Roosevelt, Governor Cox said he had received a telegram from Edward A. Ryan, who was arrested at Bellinmore when he sought to ask Senator Harding a question, saying he was for the Democratic candidate. The text of the telegram was not made public.

CASE AGAINST BAKERS FOR TRIAL POSTPONED

Charlotte, Oct. 4.—Cases pending in the Federal Court against bakers, charged with violating the Lever Act, were continued by Judge Yates Webb Monday upon application of Charles W. Tillett with the approval of District Attorney Stonevall Durham.

The fourteen-mile stretch of the Wilmington-Charlotte-Ashville highway lying between the Charlotte township line on the Monroe road will be completed if plans agreed to Monday by the board of county commissioners and two members of the incoming board are carried out.

MASKED BANDITS ROB CUSTOMERS OF CAFE

New York, Oct. 4.—Six masked bandits entered a cafe in Lenox avenue today, lined up 45 patrons against the wall and escaped with cash and jewelry estimated at more than $5,000. Four of the robbers covered the patrons with revolvers while the others emptied the victims' pockets.

All of the bandits escaped by fleeing over several roofs and down a fire escape, except one who went directly into the street and when confronted by a police officer ran into a subway station, jumped to the tracks and raced ahead of an oncoming train.
