RECORD-BREAKING VOTE
FOR DEMOCRATS EXPECTED

Rutherford Voters Rally To Democratic Standard Under
Leadership of Sol Gallert;
Governatorial Candidate Is Heard By Enthusiastic Audience at County Seat

By R. E. POWELL.
(Staff Correspondent.)

Rutherford, Oct. 6.—Cameron Morrison is making a campaign speech on his western tour of North Carolina that will live with him for a long time. It is attracting the most favorable comment from women, ministers of the gospel and the veterans of many campaigns.

He faced perhaps the smallest audience of his tour here this morning but nowhere has he encountered one more sympathetic or responsive. Stripped of his extensive discussion of the League and the revaluation law, he makes a powerful appeal to the back-sider and offers the right hand of fellowship to the recalcitrant willing to urge radical partisanship from the heart.

Everywhere he goes the Democrats are putting on that armor for the fight and he has yet to leave a county without the assurance from the campaign managers that, with the help of the women, Democracy will get a bigger majority next month than it has received since 1910.

In Rutherford for example, where Sol Gallert made a great winning fight for Max Gardner, the former Gardiner, including the militant Sol, are conducting a record-breaking majority for Morrison and Cooper next month. From James M. Cox down to the local ticket the fight is for the Democratic party except in the case of Zebulon Weaver. Some women here and in other counties of the tenth are going to shake off family ties and vote not so much for Weaver but against L. I. Jenkins.

Young Johnnie Parker, said Mr. Morrison "is advertising the system of taxation based on the income tax in order to have something to talk about when he runs again four years from now. If the crowd picks him again, he will declare that he made the Democrats adopt the income tax amendment when everybody knows that I advocated it in my primary speech at Chapel Hill."

So long as Parker does stick to the income tax, Mr. Morrison declared, he is appealing for a good thing, but against the pledges of his party. The income tax amendment and the amendments reducing the rate in the State are inseparable, he pointed out, and must be adopted together. Parker hasn't the manhood to favor them all but wants to make the folks believe that it is only necessary to adopt one amendment.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 6.—Governor Cox's Eastern campaign will be a drive mainly to capture Indiana, Ohio, New Jersey and West Virginia. Chairman White specifically mentioned these states this morning as the chief goal of Democratic endeavor which means that he expects that with these states and with one hundred and sixty seven (167) sure votes of the "Solid South," the Democrats will carry enough states west of the Mississippi to elect Cox.

White Hails claims practically every State in the Union except South Carolina and Mississippi but it is known here the Republicans do not count on Maryland and they are not certain of West Virginia. Both Kentucky and Missouri are counted as a part of the "Solid South." So is Oklahoma. But the Democrats must get 99 votes to put the "Solid South's" 167 to win. Chairman White it will be noted did not mention New York or Connecticut and he did not mention the states west of the Mississippi, but Governor Cox has assured the committee that California and Washington can be wrested from the Republicans and the one man who can do it is Wm. G. McAdoo, who is going to the Pacific coast the latter part of this week.

The Democrats are counting strongly on the following six factors to win the election. First: Republican over-confidence. In many of the states this over-confidence has caused a notable slackening of Republican effort. They are over organized and with their cocksureness are spending their time in riotous living.

The second factor and the strongest is the awakening interest of the people in the League of Nations. It is a moral awakening and it is most marked among the women. It is particularly manifest in the West where the people are more responsive to appeals for world peace than they are in the East.

The third factor is the effect of Senator Harding's anti-strike veto for the Keck-Cummins railroad bill among the ranks of labor. The American Federation of Labor has rung the changes on this record.

Irish Speech Blunder.
Harding's Irish speech blunder has lost him many thousands of Irish votes.

Governor Cox has squarely met the prohibition issue and has proved himself as dry as Mr. Bryan. His unhesitating declaration on this subject has greatly aided him with all prohibitionists, and it is believed he will lose few wet votes as the wet Democrats of New Jersey are working hard for him. Cox's attitude has actually put prohibition beyond all danger in the next Congress whether he is elected or not.

And finally there is the negro question and there are reports regarding Mr. Harding's connection with the negro that cannot be discussed in public. But they are being discussed in private and to the injury of the candidate. The candidate may be slandered just as the Republicans have persistently slandered the president for the last four years. These privately circulated slanders are one of the most diabolical phases of American politics.

Women's League Begins Drive.
The National League of Women Voters, representing 2,500,000 women in every State in the Union has begun a drive to canvass all members of the new Congress that are to be elected on November 2nd. The League's headquarters in this city has sent out word to all candidates to learn who are and who are not the League's friends in the program of legislation that it will propose to the next Congress. In making this move the League has no idea of influencing the election.

Not Necessary To Revive
War Finance Corporation

Secretary Houston Declares Private Capital Successfully
Financing Exporters' Operations and Crop Movement;
Treasury Frowns on Employment of Borrowed Funds to Maintain "Wag," or Higher Than War Prices, He Adds.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Revival of the War Finance Corporation to finance exporters was declared to be unnecessary by Secretary Houston tonight in answering letters from unnamed correspondents, who had urged that course. Present indications are for a record year of exports and that it is evident that private capital is successfully financing the exporters' operations, Mr. Houston said.

Maintaining High Prices.
Orderly marketing of crops always has been fostered by the Treasury, as well as the Federal reserve board, Mr. Houston said, but added that the department frowns on the employment of borrowed funds to maintain "war or higher than war prices."

Discussing curtailed loans, Mr. Houston said he believed the condition complained of were in no way under control of the banks.
Cautious Control Matter.
"No one wishes to have the prices lowered in the things he produces," the letter said, "but the consumer apparently has made up his mind not to continue to pay high prices. Much trouble which is attributed to the banks of the country and credit conditions unquestionably arise from fundamental conditions over which the banks have no control."
Crops Being Financed.
Detailed reports from the banks show the crop movements are being financed amply, the Secretary said, adding that there was no reason why the falling prices on those products should be attributed to lack of credit. The Federal reserve board and Treasury are in accord on the program of encouraging extension of such credit by the banks, he said.

DEMOCRATS URGED TO SEND IN CHECKS

Cox Can Be Elected If Party
Men of South Do Their Duty,
Says Sparks

Joe Sparks, of Columbia, S. C., assistant treasurer of the National Democratic Executive Committee, says James M. Cox can be elected President of the United States if the Democrats of the South will do their duty. He issued this appeal yesterday to Southern Democrats:

"The next President of these United States will be Governor James M. Cox of Ohio.
"The next Senate will be made up of a majority of Democrats:
"Provided—
"That the funds are furnished by Democrats of the South to pay the legitimate expenses of the National Campaign.
"It was under democratic rule that the shackles were removed from Southern business and Southern agriculture. The South owes much to the Democratic party.
"The Democrats of the North are making a valiant fight to get control of the doubtful states from the Republican party. A great amount of money will be needed to pay for advertisements in Republican papers, which are to be printed in rebuttal to the lies which the Republicans are spreading.
"We have the candidate and we have the platform. We have the interest of our country at heart.
"Let me impress upon every Southern Democrat, men and women, to contribute. Make a contribution to this noble cause.
"Please send your checks to your State Finance Chairman and the money will be forwarded immediately to New York to aid the National Committee in its wonderful fight.
"Let me say now that the South has more to gain and more to lose in this election than any election ever held in this country.
"Democratic success means Peace, Prosperity and Happiness for the South as well as the entire country.
"The time is short, delay may be fatal. If the Southern Democracy responds as it should then actual disaster will be averted.
"Despite the lack of funds there is a spirit of optimism at National Headquarters. We are bound to win because we are right."

FATAL BATTLE OCCURS
IN COAL MINING TOWN

Deputy Sheriff Killed and Five Men Wounded in Clash In West Virginia

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 6.—One deputy sheriff was killed, three others wounded seriously and two miners were shot in a fight early tonight at Blair, Logan county, West Virginia, on Little Coal river, according to information received here by Fred Mooney, secretary of district number 17, "Aided Mine Workers of America."
Mr. Mooney announced that his report on the fight received by telephone, indicated that the trouble started when the deputy sheriff interrupted a meeting of Blair local union number 2,887, United Mine Workers. He added that according to information received by him that Joseph Gore, a Logan county deputy sheriff, was killed and that one miner was wounded, probably fatally.

W. P. G. HARDING TO MEET
SOUTHERN COTTON MEN

Macon, Ga., Oct. 6.—Cotton men from at least four Southern States will meet Governor Harding of the Federal Reserve Board in Birmingham, Ala., on Friday, according to advices reaching Macon from Washington this morning. The meeting is the result of a number of requests of continued and urgent demands made on Governor Harding by cotton men that he make plain the board's stand in the matter of financing the crop.

SOUTH'S VETERANS
OPEN BIG REUNION

Gen. J. S. Carr Mentioned For Commander-in-Chief; Several Sessions Held

Houston, Tex., Oct. 6.—The thirtieth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans was formally opened here today with two sessions, at which Governor Hobby, of Texas, Mayor Amersman, of Houston, representatives of Texas Veterans and members of affiliated organizations extended a welcome to the survivors of the South's army in the war between the States.

Simultaneously with the sessions of the veterans, the Sons of Veterans and the Southern Confederate Memorial Association held business sessions and several social functions were held for visiting women.
Elect Officers Today.
Tomorrow the election of officers for all three organizations will take place, that of the Sons of Veterans in the forenoon and the Veterans and the Memorial Association in the afternoon. It is expected, according to delegates to the Sons reunion, that N. B. Forrest, commander-in-chief of the organization, will be re-elected without opposition.
A movement was on foot to re-elect K. M. Van Zandt, of Fort Worth, Texas, commander-in-chief of the Veterans, although he said he would not be a candidate. In the event he is not nominated Arkansas delegates said General Virgil V. Cooke, of Batesville, Ark., commander of the Trans-Mississippi, will be placed in nomination. Friends of General Julian S. Carr, of Durham, N. C., commander of the department of the army of North Carolina, stated they would make an effort to bring about the election of General Carr if General Van Zandt is not re-elected.
Name Convention City.
Next year's reunion city will also be selected in the afternoon, Little Rock, Ark., and Savannah, Ga., having been mentioned as probable candidates for the honor.
At the opening of the Sons of Veterans today, speakers urged that the organization take steps to bring about the use of history which would bring out the attitude of the South just prior and during the Civil War in a way they would consider fair to the leaders of the cause of the Confederacy. A movement also was started to have the organization endorse a projected transcontinental highway through the South, a part of the United States to parallel the Lincoln Highway and to be called the Jefferson Davis Highway and to bring about recognition of the leaders of the Confederacy during the Civil War by the inscription of their names in an amphitheatre in Washington for which Congress has appropriated $1,000,000.

Among the speakers before the meeting of the Sons of Veterans was Admiral A. O. Wright, of Jacksonville, Fla., commander of the Confederate State Naval Veterans, who stated that of the original 6,000 members of the Confederate navy, 250 still are living.

Program For Today.
At tomorrow morning's session of the veterans organization, in addition to a number of reports of committees, there will be an address on "Cotton Tax and Pensions" by General George Hillary, of Atlanta, Ga. The meeting will adjourn at noon to allow the veterans, the sons and the memorial association, to join in memorial exercises.

Tomorrow night will be featured by a grand ball in honor of the United Confederate Veterans. The floor will be reserved exclusively for the old soldiers and their ladies during the grand march.

The only event on tonight's program was a song and dance revue under the direction of the Houston chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, depicting in its scenes and sets the various periods in the history of the South from Civil War days to the end of the world war.

Mission to Haiti Successful.
Washington, Oct. 6.—Rear Admiral Knapp's mission to Haiti to adjust relations with the Haitian government incident to American occupation was cheerily successful today by Secretary Cully, very successful. The admiral had been very favorably received by the Haitian authorities, he said, and it was expected that friction which had developed would be straightened out.

PRESIDENT WILSON
WOULD LET VOTERS
DETERMINE TRUTH

Refers To Charge That He Pledged Military Aid To Rou-mania and Serbia

EXECUTIVE DISPATCHES
TELEGRAM TO SPENCER

Senator Reed, Replying To Inquiry of Senator Spencer,
Backs Up Assertion That
President Promised Military
Aid In Address at Peace
Conference In 1919

Washington, Oct. 6.—President Wilson today telegraphed Senator Spencer, Republican, of Missouri, that he was content to let the voters of Missouri decide which of them was telling the truth. The telegram referred to Senator Spencer's charge that the President had promised military aid to Rumania and Serbia which the President on yesterday said was "false."
Text of Telegram.
The telegram, which was made public at the White House without comment or explanation, said:
"I am perfectly content to leave it to the voters of Missouri to determine which of us is telling the truth."
Replying to the President's letter of yesterday, Senator Spencer in a letter made public at St. Louis last night quoted in support of his original statement from what he said was the stenographic notes of the eighth plenary session of the peace conference. He asked the President to inform him whether Mr. Wilson had made the statement as attributed to him in the stenographic notes taken at Paris.
The President's telegram today apparently was in reply to that letter.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 6.—Senator James A. Reed, in a telegram late today to United States Senator Spencer, asserted that President Wilson had made a statement pledging American military aid to Rumania and Serbia, in an address at the peace conference on May 31, 1919.
In Congressional Record.
The text of the address did not pass canon until December 8, 1919, when it was brought to this country by a newspaper correspondent and published in the Washington Star on that date. The speech also appeared in full in the Congressional Record on December 4, 1919, the telegram added. Senator Reed's telegram was sent in response to one from Senator Spencer asking information on the subject.

Senator Reed's telegram urged the President to produce the stenographic records of the peace conference "to show just what was said."
Senator Reed's telegram declared the President's statement also was copyrighted by a newspaper syndicate and given wide circulation.
"On several occasions I challenged the attention of the Senate to this speech," the telegram continued. "My speeches of scores of thousands were circulated through the country. Numerous public lectures and speeches have repeatedly referred to and commented upon this declaration of the President. Its authenticity was never disputed on the floor of the Senate or elsewhere by my knowledge until Mr. Tumulty recently denounced it as false."
Authentic On Its Face.
"The speech bears upon its face evidence of its authenticity and it is couched in the well-known phraseology of the President. In view of these facts, a discerning public will not be inclined to accept Mr. Tumulty's denial. There is one way this dispute can be settled. Let the President produce the stenographic records of the peace conference showing just what was said. These official reports have been studiously suppressed and kept secret, although the Senate foreign relations committee asked expressly for them. It was stated by Clemenceau's private secretary that the reasons why the sessions were held in secret was because the President of the United States insisted upon it as against Clemenceau's own judgment."
Cites Further Proof.
"That the latter statement is absolutely correct is shown by the testimony of Secretary Lansing given before the foreign relations committee of the Senate, August 26, 1919. See part six, printed hearings, page 145."
Forwarding dispatches of the telegram to Senator Spencer, Senator Reed gave out a statement in which he said:
Reed Makes Statement.
"What now do we understand? That President Wilson means we are not to be under obligations to send our armies to protect Rumania and other members of the league against attack? If so, what becomes of Article Ten, which he declares is the heart of the covenant?"

SOUTH CAROLINA CENSUS
FIGURES SHOW INCREASE

Washington, Oct. 6.—Alabama, South Carolina and Wyoming made substantial gains in population during the last ten years, while Nevada, the smallest state in the Union in point of population, became the third state to show decrease.
The Census Bureau announced today that Alabama had a population of 2,347,265, an increase of 209,202 or 9.5 per cent over 1910. The state thus passed Tennessee in standing of the states.
South Carolina had a population of 1,683,662, which is 168,203 or 11.1 per cent greater than that of 1910. The state however, fell short of its relative growth in 1910 by two per cent. Wyoming, next to the least populous state, has a population of 194,402, which is an increase of 45,447 or 33.2 per cent compared with the 1910 census. The state showed its second largest material growth, but its percentage increase was the lowest.

Each Pitcher Allows Seven Hits, But Grimes Is Invaluable With Men On Bases While Cleveland Ace Permits National League Batmen To Bunch Hits; Winning Slabman Buries Upon Spit Ball and Change of Pace; Cleveland Gets Fourteen Men On Bases Without Scoring

New York, Oct. 6.—In a pitching duel between the leading hurlers of the National and American Leagues, Burleigh Grimes, Brooklyn's spitball ace, today shut out Cleveland, 3 to 0 in the second game of the world series at Ebbets Field. His ability to hold the Indians in check when hits would have meant runs, marked his superiority over James C. Bagby, whom Manager Speaker selected to add a second game to the Cleveland string.

The victory which placed the Superburial on the list of the National League, was along almost entirely to the excellent hurling of Grimes who had the heavy hitting leaders of the junior league baffled throughout the game so far as consecutive bunting was concerned. With the exception of the eighth inning, when Grimes temporarily lost sight of the home plate, Cleveland never appeared in the light of a serious contender. Indians Surrendered Capitally.
The inability of the Indians to connect with Grimes' slants when hits would have meant runs, is aptly illustrated by the fact that the Cleveland clan got 14 runners on the base, of whom ten were stranded and four retired by subsequent plays. The Indians were not without repeated opportunities to score. But in every emergency Brooklyn's main ball star met the emergency with a masterly collection of sharp breaking slants, or slow breaks which cut the corners of the plate, or shot in close to the body of the batter with the result that the seven hits of the invaders were so scattered as to be useless in run producing.

Bagby was not effective in the box for Speaker's team as Cleveland in the opening game, or as his opponent, Grimes, the former United States Senator, won the Democratic nomination for governor of Georgia, over Clifford W. Forrester state attorney general in his run off primary held in Georgia today, according to incomplete and unofficial returns received by the Atlanta Constitution and the Atlanta Journal tonight.

The Atlanta Journal and the Macon Telegraph also conceded the nomination of the former Senator. All three papers opposed Hardwick.
Mr. Hardwick represented Georgia in the Senate when the United States entered the world war and was one of the Democratic opponents of many administration measures. He was defeated for re-election by Senator W. J. Harris.

In the September primary and in the run off Hardwick was supported by Thomas E. Watson, who defeated Senator Hoke Smith for the Democratic nomination to the Senate. Both Watson and Hardwick were opposed to the League of Nations. Mr. Walker, the defeated candidate for governor, favored the league.

REPUBLICAN SENATORS
Says Republicans Preaching
"Destruction and Disaster";
Speaks at Joliet

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 6.—Republican politicians "denouncing" the President and the League of Nations are preaching "destruction and disaster," Secretary Daniels declared in an address here tonight. Having kept the country "out of peace for more than a year, they have no plan for keeping us out of war," he added.

Not "America, or even the Republican party," had rejected the League but "only a handful of Senators who put politics above patriotism," Secretary Daniels declared, continuing:
"It was nothing more than a burning, hot impudent desire to destroy him (the President) and all his works, to tear down what he had built up and climb to place and power on the ruins. Do you doubt for a moment, does any one doubt, that if a Republican president had presented this League of Nations treaty to the Senate, it would have been ratified in a month and hailed as one of the greatest constructive achievements of the age?"

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, chairman of the eastern speaker's bureau of the Democratic National Committee, today issued a statement declaring Governor Cox would carry Illinois, New York, New Jersey, Ohio, West Virginia and Indiana in addition to the solid South. As for Maryland and Kentucky, he said, there was no doubt that they would be in the Democratic column. He also predicted that at least ten western states would go Democratic.

He described the claims of Will Hays, Republican national chairman, as "absurd," saying "it has often been the case that the Republicans won in September, but failed to win in November."
"We will make our big drive during October," Senator Harrison said, "and have purposely held back until now. We will have more speakers than the Republicans, and as to quality there can be no comparison." "Despite the fact that the Republicans have tried to tie up every ball in many states our speakers will get before the people."

NINETY-FOUR YEARS OLD
BUT REGISTERS AND WILL VOTE DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Nashville, Oct. 6.—Mrs. Amariah F. Jenkins, age 94 years, and the oldest citizen of the Nashville, Tenn., city registered and declared herself a full-fledged Democrat. Mrs. Jenkins is a very great admirer of Woodrow Wilson, a strong believer in woman suffrage and she cannot see to save her life why Senator Harding changes so often on the League of Nations question. In fact, Mrs. Jenkins is everything that a good Democrat is. She will get great pleasure in knowing that she "killed" one Republican vote, she says.
SHE'S 95 YEARS YOUNG.
Ashville, Oct. 6.—"I'm glad that I have lived to be able to register and be prepared to vote the Democratic ticket at the next election," declared Mrs. Susan Stevens, age 95, at her home, No. 15 Boardman avenue, this afternoon on the look the state before Magistrate C. M. Cressman, registrar, for the fourth precinct.
