

START MOVEMENT TO EXPORT COTTON

South Carolina Growers Subscribe Liberally To Form Corporation

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 6.—The consensus of opinion of those who attended the State meeting in this city today is that South Carolina will do her full share in organizing the American Exports and Imports Corporation.

It was stated that there are in the United States half a million bales of low grade cotton for which there is not and will not be any sale in this country but that Central Europe will take them. The plan is for the farmers to put in cotton as stock in the corporation and bankers and other citizens will take stock for cash or Liberty bonds and the corporation will handle the cotton direct to Central Europe where there are many idle mills and idle labor and no cash with which to buy the American cotton.

The foreign mills will give their notes secured by the banks of their country and further validated by the governments of those countries. The matter was presented today to a group representing the presidents of the cotton associations in the 46 counties of this State. These subscribed on the spot $160,000 in cash and each man pledged himself to put in more money over the top in disposing of it.

J. A. Brown, of North Carolina, in an earnest speech said that North Carolina would follow South Carolina's example. All of the speakers stressed the point that cotton's intrinsic value is nearly double what it is fetching on the exchanges and the only remedy they expect to bring about a restoration of the normal is through the medium of this export corporation. It is hoped to raise ten million dollars in the cotton belt to finance the movement. South Carolina expects to have her quota subscribed in cotton, cash and Liberty bonds by the 14th of this month. Former Governor Richard L. Manning, himself a planter of large interests and a successful business man, has been placed at the head of the organization committee and pledges of support are pouring in to him from every section of the State. Every class of society from mill president to negro cotton farmer tenants have manifested interest and are buying stock. The banks of the State have agreed to help the farmers to finance the stock with the cotton on hand.

VIRGINIA STATE FAIR BIGGEST EVENT IN YEARS

Many Features of Interest Booked For Annual State Festival

Richmond, Va., Oct. 6.—Indications point to the largest attendance of Carolinians on record at the Virginia State Fair on Monday, October 11, which has been officially designated "Carolina Day." Hundreds of residents of both North and South Carolina are arriving daily by train and automobile and the leading hotels report many advance reservations.

This year's fair is the largest ever held in Virginia, running ten full days. It opened October 4th and will continue through Thursday, October 14th. The exhibits are the largest and most complete ever seen at a fair in the east, every department of the State's agricultural, mineral, and industrial resources being represented. The live stock show is also the largest ever held in the State, more than a thousand head of fine cattle from several states being on exhibition.

The amusement features are the most costly ever booked by the fair, it is declared. One of the outstanding features is Al Wilson, a young young aviator who does all sorts of hair-raising stunts in aeroplanes. Wilson actually climbs from the wings of one plane to another, while the two race at 80 miles an hour over the fair grounds.

The popular Midway and "War-Hoo-Loo" also have many new attractions this year, including the entire collection of Polak Brothers' Circus and carnival shows comprising 100 attractions. Free concerts each day and night by the United States Marine and Cervone's Italian bands, John Driscoll the well known tenor and Le Salle and Quartet, dancing in the big new pavilion and spectacular fireworks each night are among the many other entertainment features.

This year's racing program is an unusually good one, offering five days of horse racing for over $10,000 in purses and a special feature for October 11, "Carolina Day" in match game of polo between U. S. officers of Camp Lee and Fort Myer, a steeple chase and an army male race between enlisted men. Automobile races for purses amounting to $7,500 between famous drivers of both America and Europe will feature the two closing days, October 13th and 14th.

The railroads are offering special reduced rates to Richmond throughout the fair.

CUTS SUGAR PRICES HALF IN TWO IN TWO WEEKS

Boston, Oct. 6.—The Bevere Sugar Refinery today announced a price of 11 3/4 cents a pound for refined sugar. Two weeks ago the company quoted a nominal price of 22 1/2 cents a pound, with the announcement that it was "out of the market," but since that time it has made several reductions.

W. E. Foster, vice-president of the American Sugar Refining Company, in a statement to Attorney General Allen today in connection with the latter's inquiry into the sugar situation, said the company would require wholesalers to list up to their credits for sugar at 22 1/2 cents a pound, notwithstanding recent declines. The company would not be justified in using its surplus of $25,000,000 to offset losses of its customers, he said, adding that if such a policy were seriously undertaken by the management any stockholders would have the right to enjoin the proceeding.

VIOLINIST SCORES NOTABLE SUCCESS

Raleigh Girl Becomes University Tradition On Account of Recitals

Chapel Hill, Oct. 6.—Emilie Ross Knox, the brilliant young violinist of Raleigh, has become a university tradition.

Last year she came to Chapel Hill to play before university students and received the greatest ovation that has been given to any musician here in many years. This week she proved that she could do it again. She reported her triumph, received another overwhelming tribute, and has the satisfaction of knowing now that she holds the student body in the hollow of her hand.

As was the case last year, the 600 students who crowded Gerrard Hall would not be satisfied with her prepared program, re-entered by encores, but waited for her outside the building. When she appeared at the door they cut her a shout that must have waked the Davie Poplar. Standfast in the door, with students banked around her and with others hanging out of every dormitory window within hearing distance, she played again—"The Dove Nest," the "Humoresque," "Dear Old Pal of Mine," ending with the "Carolina Hymn," "Hark the Sound," in which hundreds of college boys joined her. From every indication they would have listened all night.

In the opening number of her regular program, the Concerto in D Minor by Bruch, Miss Knox displayed the same mastery of difficult technique which made her rendition of the same concerto at the Music Festival at Asheville last summer such a signal success.

Among other skillfully interpreted numbers she played the "Paderewski's Minuet" delightfully, and swept her audience, which had been with her, heart and soul, from the beginning of her performance, into the lovely rhythms of the dance.

In the Danse Coquette by Tzarindell Miss Knox again created a distinct appeal to her enthusiastic audience. She kept up with her stride through the entire number and especially showed her hearty approval of the artist's handling of the pizzicato parts.

In addition to the encores mentioned, Miss Knox also played by request "Caprice Viennois" by Kreisler; "Meditation from Thal"; by Massenet; "Della's Sonnets" and the more modern selections, "Left All Alone Again," "Hawaii," "Moonlight," "Just A Weary Old Yon," "Till We Meet Again," and the Carolina song, "I'm a Tar Heel Born."

Miss Knox was accompanied by Miss Sue Kyle Southwick, a pianist of ability.

VIRGINIA FOREMOST IN FORMING THE REPUBLIC

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 6.—Virginia's share in forming the union was greater than that of any other State, Alton B. Parker, of New York, declared here tonight at the exercises in connection with the celebration of the tercentenary of the meeting of the first legislative body in America at Jamestown, Massachusetts, he said, held second place.

Men who loved the principles of English liberty were responsible for the beginning of Virginia, he said.

"The Virginians were Church of England men and brought with them their 'religion'—the Pilgrims'—England principally because they would have nothing to do with that church or with a government that supported it."

Virginia, said Judge Parker, "with rightfully won leadership in the battle for freedom and the formation of government" suffered because slavery was forced upon her against her will.

"Eight out of ten—eight of our Presidents have been natives of Virginia," Mr. Parker declared. The last but not the least of Virginia's distinguished sons to achieve the Presidency was Woodrow Wilson.

"Massachusetts," he said, "has my profound respect and regard. But Virginia, the fair and fertile; the first spot on this continent that an Anglo-Saxon called home; the land which gave the immortal Washington to a grateful country; the soil from which, sprung so many leaders in the creation of our government; as large a number of our foremost soldiers and statesmen; the mother of Presidents; the cornerstone of our free government—when I remember your patriotism and loyalty, your scars of battle and your dismemberment, your deadly opposition to slavery and your later suffering from this respect which had thrust into your bosom in spite of your repeated protests, my heart and soul go out in profound love and respect to the sunny hills and fertile valleys, to the great and noble community known in history and romance as the Old Dominion."

WHITE URGES HAYS TO PRINT LEAGUE COVENANT

New York, Oct. 6.—George White, chairman of the Democratic National committee, who returned today from a conference with Governor Cox, announced he had written to Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National committee, urging him to do his utmost to clear white publicity for the covenant of the League of Nations.

"In the interest of truth, which the righteous certainly have no reason to fear," Mr. White requested Mr. Hays to urge all newspapers to print the text of the covenant in full within the next few days.

"There are so many more Republican than Democratic newspapers in the United States that your request would secure the wide publicity which is desirable," added Mr. White.

MEXICANS GIVE BATTLE TO POSSE OF POLICEMEN

Trouble Begins at Homestead When Attempt Made To Arrest Them

Pittsburg, Oct. 6.—After killing a patrolman and a civilian, a crowd of Mexican laborers armed with pistols, barricaded themselves in a boarding house at Homestead, a suburb tonight and gave battle to a posse of police and firemen in an exchange of shots.

The trouble began, according to police, when two patrolmen attempted to arrest the Mexicans for disorderly conduct. One of the Mexicans produced a pistol and killed Patrolman William Smith and wounded Patrolman Henry Davis.

They then retreated to a Mexican boarding house where they shot and killed the proprietor and barricaded themselves.

The police found it impossible to break into the house in the face of a constant fusillade from the Mexicans' pistols.

Shortly after 10 o'clock firemen were playing several lines of hose, with the intention of directing the streams into the boarding house windows.

The battle had been in progress for about an hour when the police reported that they had killed one of the Mexicans who had taken refuge in the house.
