REPUBLICANS IN PANICKY MOOD AS ELECTION NEARS

President's Appeal To Pro-Leaguers Throws Spasms Into Their Ranks

HARDING'S GYRATIONS MIGHT SMASH LEAGUE

League Covenant Probably Result In Renewal of War In Europe But Republicans Would Likely Send An Army Into Mexico

The News and Observer Bureau, 603 District National Bank Bldg. (By Special Leased Wire.)

Washington, Oct. 28 .- Whatever happens on Tuesday, things are certainly going bad for the Republicans at this stage. The President's statement yes-terday and the description of his pathetic condition given out by the pro-League Republicans who went to the White House struck a stunning blow to the enemies of the League. They inathered Wasing Mary days claim of Article X without referring to reservations. Instantly they threw these facts into streamer lines at the masthead of their press and above these black lines a flaming red line "the hemocrats split asunder on the Lague."

Why they say Cox is trying to elect himself without a Senate to back up his party and Wilson is trying to elect spell bounds.

The townstall here, packed and mammed until hot another diminutive suffragan could find room to stand, was all too small for the crowd that poured.

his party and Wilson is trying to elect a Senate to save the League without regard to who goes into the White House. Democrats smile at the absurd explanation.

How, it is asked, could a Democratic Senate secure the League without a Democrat in the White House. The Senate returned the treaty of Versailles unratified to the President. It is no longer before the Senate and Mr. Wilson will be out of the White House before the new Senate comes into exist-

Panic Seizes Republicana.

Democrats declare that such explanations show conclusively the panic which has now seized the Republicans. Almost every event of the campaign since Senator Harding made his fatal speech at Des Moines on October 7 has contributed to the rise of this panie and for the last ten days misto after misfortune has been heaped like of fire on the heads of the mer who have plotted and carried on a cam-paign without s parallel in the history of the country for falsehood. Senator Harding's fatal speech was due to the threat of Senator Borah to bolt the Republican party and that threat had been brought about by the President who forced the League of Nations into the campaign as its chief Had the President been free to make his move ten days or two weeks sooner there would now be no doubt of the success of the Democrats is the belief of many Democrats here.

What the President is said to fear above all else was voiced last night by Martin Vogel, in a speech on the League of Nations. That fear is that if the United States votes for Harding it will be accepted by Europe that we stay out of the League. If Harding wins it is believed there are enough anti-leaguers in this country and in the Schate to prevent his going in what-ever he may want to do. Mr. Vogel War Might Break Out Again. "If we throw the League overboard on election day and decide to stand saide from the great international brotherhood the smouldering fires of war may break out afresh in Europe because of our refusal to come in and t the worrld America can make so much difference to the League, morale of the stricken countries and by our entry into the League she will instill confidence into the smaller members of the covenant. The President, it is said, is in posses sion of facts relating to menacing con ditions in Europe which have come through diplomatic channels, and which cannot properly be published. Europe, it is understood, is waiting to see what we will do and dreading what we may do. It is believed it was this dread that caused Leon Bourgeois, the president of the League of Nations, to state the other day that Article X could be eliminated without seriously affecting the character of the covenant. His hope is to get us to accept the covenant without Article X rather than reject without Article X rather than reject the whole instrument. He fears what may happen with rejection outright.

Would Take Over Mexico.

Another plase of the result of rejection Secretary Colby hinted at in a speech here on Tuesday night. The Republicans under pressure of the big oil interests have it in mind to throw an army into Mexico. Coming into power without a mandate from the people to enter the league and America outside of the league, this party will be under no

By R. E. POWELL.

(Staff Correspondent.) Sanford, Oct. 28 .- Cameron Morrison' rraignment of the Republican party of the Nation and of North Carolina to the greatest audience assembled in Lee county during the campaign will hence forth and for a long time be the epochal political event of this young county from which history will be dated.

It might have been the presence of

He was just a little more belligerent here than any place else in the East and with the information that Mrs. Mary Settle Sharpe is to speak here tomorrow night he digressed to lambast the Republicans a bit because of the attack on the school ystem being nade by Mrs. Sharpe and system being nade by Mrs. Sharpe and John J. Parker.

A Veritable Revival of Democracy
At the conclusion of his spech here tonight, there was a veritable flocking of folks to the platform. Ninety per cent of his audience responded to his invitation to some farward and "get acquainted," many Republicans among the number. The old stagers of the Sand Hill section, where his maternal ancestors lived and thrived, rushed forward to shake "Cam's" hand.

forward to shake "Cam's" hand.
A. A. P. Seawell presented Mr. Morrison with little ado as "the next governor of North Carolina." This was sig nal enough for beginning the dem onstrations. The speaker at once launched into the subject of school and his passing reference to the soul of Aycock and the wisdom of Marver precipitated another storm that swept through the audience to the street where the overflow stood for such parts of the speeh as it might eatch. The Republican party through the instrumentality of a young lawyer, a Radical politician and a lady going over the State speaking against the League of Nations seeks to tear down the North Carolina public school sys tem, he declared, paying tribute in passing to the long line of distinguish-ed educators who have builded the sys-tem and denominating the present su-perintendent, Dr. E. C. Brooks, as probably the most brilliant of the educators of North Carolina."

Scores the Old Guard's Record After digressing to make a reply to the advertisement in the papers of to-day signed by Frank Linney, State chairman of the Bepublican party, Mr. Morrison declared that when the State was last redeemed the Democrats drove from the agricultural department of the State "the old drill masters pre-tending to teach scientific farming but more accomplished in the art of ganizing Sambo and Kuffee." school system of those days was a dis grace and a humiliation to every pa-triotic citizen of the State. He discussed the progress under Democratic surance, health, agricultural and other arms of the government.

Passing on to taxation, he declared that "old Marion Butler" is telling the farmers of the State they are about to be taxed to death, while John More-head, first foe and now friend of the Sampson mentor, is slipping around and telling the business men that the Democratic party is taking all the tax off the farmer and saddling it on industry. As usual, they are playing both ends against the middle.

"They have shed more hypocritical tears for the farmer and robbed him more than any organization on earth." he declared, and the crowd howled

Another Ovation for Sin without a mandate from the people to enter the league and America outside of the league, this party will be under no restraint to keep its hands off of Maxico. If it goes into Mexico all the traditional moral force in the Monroe doctrine will be destroyed. The Monroe doctrine it has been explained is the League of Nations for this hemisphere. The United States would stand before the world as having not only rejected the world league, but having morally murdered the model on which the world league is based.

Republican Campaign Fund Is Three and a Half Million

Statements of Treasurers of Two Great Political Parties Show Republicans Have Spent Four Times as Much as Democrats; Republican Total to October 24, $3,042,892.32; Democratic Total to October 25, $878,831.24.

New York, Oct. 28.-Total receipts by the Democratic national committee to October 25, for the conduct of the present campaign amount to $878,today by Wilbur W. Marsh, the party's national treasurer.

This figure, Mr. Marsh said, was today submitted to the Kenyon committee investigating campaign contributions and expenditures in Chicago. The sum collected, the Democratic treasurer stated, is constituted almost entirely of contributions to the campuign tund, with the exception of s150,000, which was berrowed. Other sources, which aggregated collections of only a few hundred dollars, in-cluded the sale of the campaign text-books, refunds from advertising and uch small items.

The statement itemizes moneys re ceived at headquarters in New York, Chicago and San Francisco, as well as the woman's bureau. Of the total, $665,481.33 was cellected in New York, while San Francisco showed an aggre-gate fund of but $1,763. The women's bureau was responsible for the collection of $8,544.50. Chicago collected $53,041.51.

In addition to funds already received, Mr. Marsh's statement included a memorandum to the effect that two individuals had pledged $25,000 each to pay the expenses of advertising books relating to the League of Nations.

Chicago, Oct. 28 .- The Republican national committee's campaign to elect Senator Warren G. Harding President will cost $3,442,892.32, Fred W. Upham, present campaign amount to $878, national treasurer of the party, notified $31.24, according to an announcement the Schate committee appointed to investigate campaign expenditures in a report filed with the committee here

Of this sum $3,042,992.32 had been spent up to the close of business Sun-day, October 24, and Mr. Upham esti-mated the expenditures in the closing week of the campaigs at $400,000 ad-ditional. The report shows that $301,-388.98 was spent between October 18, when a report was filed with the clerk of the House of Bepresentatives in Washington, and October 24, the date of today's report.

The total estimated cost of the campaign. $3,442,892.38, is considerably in excess of the Republican budget of $3,079,037.20, presented to the Senate unittee at a hearing held in August, but Mr. Upham explained that the disbursements covered the period from June 14, while the budget included only expenditures from July 1. About $200, 000 was spent between June 14 and July 1, Mr. Upham's office estimated, leaving the estimated disbursements from ing the estimated disbursements from July 1 to November 2, approximately his secretary declared, was "just the $3,243,000, about $162,000 in excess of Contributions received since June 14 total $2.914,706.08, or $128,186.24 less than the amount expended to date, Mr. Uphnin's report shows.

Of the amount collected $1,798,556.54 was devoted directly to the national campaign under the direction of the national committee. The remaining $1,121,149.54 was returned to the States with an agreement whereby the national committee solicited all funds for both tate and National campaign purposes. Senator Harding and Governor idge, his running mate, each gave $1,000, as did Fred W. Upham, the Republican national treasurer; John T. Adams, vice chairman of the national committee; A. T. Hart, of Louisville, committeeman from Kentucky; Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland, former ambassador to France, and Charles P. Taft, of Cincinnati, brother of ex-President Taft. Mr. Upham's office estimated there were approximately 50,000 contributors to the campaign chest. GREAT CROWDS APPLAUD COX IN INDIANAPOLIS

TUMULTY DRAWS AN INTIMATE PICTURE OF THE PRESIDENT

Private Secretary of Chief Executive Speaks at Democratic Mass Meeting

UNPUBLISHED INCIDENTS IN HIS OFFICIAL LIFE

Based On Ten Years As Wil. son's Private Secretary, Tumulty Gives Interesting Sidelights On Executive's Life; "A Man Strangely Misunderstood," He Says

Washington, Oct. 28 .- An Intimate picture "of the manner of man this Woodrow Wilson really is," based on ten years as his private secretary and touched here and there with hitherto inpublished incidents in the President's official life, was drawn tonight by Joseph P. Tamulty, speaking at a Democratic mass meeting just over the line in Maryland.

Mr. Tumulty described the President 'a man as strangely misunderstood by Day of War Message. "On that fateful day," Secretary Tumulty said, "I rode with him back from the Capitol to the White House, the echo of the applause still ringing in my cars. For a while he sat silent and pale in the cabinet room. At last he said: 'Think what it was they were applauding. It means death for our young men. How strange it seems to applaud that,"

"That simple remark," Secretary

Tumulty continued, "is one key to an understanding of Woodrow Wilson," who, he said, bated and dreaded war with "all of the fibres of his human Secretary Tumulty recalled Mr. Wilson's determination to ride in the funeral procession of the marines and sailors killed at Vers Cruz when the todies were brought to New York, Disquieting rumors that an attack was planned on his life had reached secret service men, Mr. Tumulty said, and "one undertook to argue with him, saying: 'You will show all proper respect by appearing in the reviewing stand. In contrast to Mr. Wilson's self-proclaimed "passion for peace," Secretary Tumulty declared that "when the chalenge came from Germany to America, when the American mind was ready for war . . . this same Woodrow Wil-son became the most uncompromising advocate of the most stringent measures for conducting the war, thereby to hasten the end of the war."

The "grave fault" whi is Secretary Tumulty asserted he found with the President was his ignorance of "how to Play to the gallery."

The secretary told of a journalist who wished to have the President "do one of the stunts that the public dearly loves to read about" and of the com ment of the President. "He said to me Tumulty, you must
