Lobbyists Invade Washington.

Senator Overman said today that if he was unable to get any action in the Senate on his anti-lobbying bill at this section of Congress, he would re-introduce it promptly at the opening of the extra session, and with Senator Kenyon, of Iows, who is collaborating with him, will press it with the hope of getting through some sort of legislation that will stop this insidious evil.

The bill which Senator Overman introduced a few days age makes lobbying a crime, and provides a penalty of 50,000 fine and imprisonment for three years.
