

COUNCIL OF STATE AUTHORIZES LOAN AND BOND ISSUE

Total Of $659,000 Will Be Borrowed By State Treas- urer For Institutions

FIVE MILLIONS ROAD BONDS ARE IN ISSUE

Half Million Of These Bonds Will Be In Hundred Dollar Denominations; Over Three Million For School Building Loan Fund Created By Legis- lature

The Council of State yesterday authorized the State Treasurer B. R. Lacy to borrow $600,000 immediately and to advertise five million dollars worth of five per cent road bonds and $3,725,000 school building bonds, bids to be opened July 15.

Half million dollars of the loan authorized is for construction work at the University of North Carolina; $85,000 for the North Carolina College for Women at Greensboro; $50,000 for the Negro Agricultural and Technical College at Greensboro; and $24,075 to meet a judgment secured against the State Highway Commission in Wake County court for road equipment which the State, it was alleged, bought from a Durham concern and refused to accept.

Five Millions For Roads.
Of the bond issue, $5,000,000 is for road building purposes to bear five per cent interest. The rest is to meet demands upon loan fund authorized by the State legislature of 1921 to assist counties in the construction of school buildings.

DEED TO ATMOSPHERE FILED AT JACKSONVILLE

Company Buys Air To Prevent Blocking Of Windows Of Big Office Building

Jacksonville, June 13.—A deed to the atmosphere over one of the most valuable pieces of property in the downtown business section of Jacksonville from a level twenty feet above the ground was filed today by the owners of a fifteen-story office building adjoining.

GEORGIA MOB CHASING SHERIFF AND NEGRO

Thomasville, Ga., June 13.—Sheriff Beard and John Henry Williams, negro, charged with the murder of a young Colquitt county white girl, arrived here early tonight a few minutes ahead of a mob from Milledgeville. The negro was hidden in a local church, but was quickly removed and under a heavy guard was taken from the city in an automobile. The mob quickly followed.

NO DEMURRER TO CHARGES FILED AGAINST S. J. CATTS

Panama City, Fla., June 13.—Attorneys for Sidney J. Catts failed today to file demurrers to the indictment charging the former governor of Florida with poisoning and District Attorney John L. Neely announced that the case would be brought before Judge Sheppard as soon as possible. It is understood that a special session of the Federal court will be convened here about June 20 to try Mr. Catts.

BERRYHILL WINNER OF THE CARR FELLOWSHIP

Walter Reece Berryhill, of Charlotte, president of the senior class and president of the student council of the University of North Carolina. Mr. Berryhill is the holder of the Julian S. Carr Fellowship, awarded annually to the most deserving member of the senior class. He is also a member of the editorial board of The Tar Heel and of the Carolina Magazine, and of the Phi Beta Kappa honorary scholarship fraternity.

MRS. JOHNSON MAY SUCCEED BEASLEY

Governor Morrison Recom- mends Her Appointment To Board Members

Mrs. Clarence Johnson, director of the child welfare work of the State Board of Public Welfare, will in all probability succeed Roland F. Beasley as Commissioner of Public Welfare in North Carolina. Governor Cameron Morrison, it was announced yesterday, had recommended to the members of the board that Mrs. Johnson be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Beasley.

OPPOSE INVESTIGATION OF FIGHTING IN MINGO

Democratic Senator Says Con- gress Has a Mania For Investigating

Washington, June 13.—Strong Democratic opposition to Senate investigation of the recent fighting in the Mingo, W. Va., coal fields developed today in the Senate, and Senator Johnson's resolution proposing an inquiry went over. Senator Myers, Democrat, Montana, led the fight on the resolution, declaring the matter was purely a State one and beyond the jurisdiction of Congress.

Printers Resume Work

Reading, Penn., June 13.—Union job printers in the largest establishments here who have been on strike, returned to work today on a compromise agreement. They will work 44 hours a week instead of 48, and at a reduction in wages from $38 to $35 a week. Men in most of the other job offices returned to work some days ago.

FOUR WOMEN FACE CHARGE OF MURDER IN KABER MYSTERY

Indictment Returned Against Mrs. Erminia Colavito, a Midwife, Yesterday

BELIEVE KABER WAS STABBED BY A WOMAN

Cleveland, June 13.—The return of a first degree murder indictment against Mrs. Erminia Colavito, a midwife, arrested in Sandusky several days ago, the fourth woman to be indicted for the murder of Daniel F. Kaber two years ago, and revelations that the assassin who stabbed Kaber twenty-four times attempted to obtain $2,500 reward offered for their arrest were the outstanding developments in the murder mystery today.

MRS. JOHNSON MAY SUCCEED BEASLEY

The other three women under indictment are Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber, widow of the slain man, Mrs. Mary Brickel, 69, her mother, and Miss Maria McArdle, her daughter.

Woman Did Stabbing

Late today County Prosecutor Edward S. Stanton announced he had begun work on the theory that Mrs. Colavito herself wielded the weapon that killed Kaber. He said he believed two foreigners were present at the death scene, but declared new developments which he could not reveal led him to believe the murder knife was in the hands of a woman.

Porter Springs Surprise

Springing a surprise at the last moment, Chairman Porter, of the foreign affairs committee, in charge of the fight, presented Representative Bourke Cockran, Democrat, New York, to make the closing argument for passage of the resolution. There had been talk during the day that Mr. Cockran would not be found in line with his party, but putting him forward to end the debate upset calculations. In the end, however, the New York member did not exactly vote, as he was paired.

Democratic Attack

The principal attack on the resolution was based by Democrats on the ground that it did not properly protect American rights and that the United States, in attempting to negotiate a treaty with Germany and her ally would sit down with feet and hands tied, and without being able to demand the rights won by war. Republicans held, however, that all rights were safeguarded.

Deals Testimony

Following the sensational testimony of Mrs. Colavito, implicating Miss McArdle and Mrs. Brickel in the murder plot, Miss McArdle was given a sharp examination today and denied to Prosecutor Canton all of the accusations.

Charlotte City Officials To Attend Raleigh Meeting

Charlotte, June 13.—Mayor J. O. Walker and City Attorney Claude A. Cochran will attend the special meeting of mayors of North Carolina cities to be held in Raleigh Thursday. Mayor Walker received a telegram today from the secretary of the municipal association calling the meeting.

WIFE OF CHIEF TAYLOR INSTITUTES DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST DR. J. W. PEACOCK

Winston-Salem, June 13.—Mrs. Ethel E. Taylor, widow of Chief of Police J. E. Taylor, who was shot and killed in Thomasville April 17, by Dr. J. W. Peacock, has instituted suit against the physician in Forsythe Superior court for $40,000 as damages.

SUBSTITUTE PEACE RESOLUTION MEETS LITTLE OPPOSITION

Measure Repealing State Of War Passes House By a Vote Of 305 To 61

RANKS OF DEMOCRATS CRUMBLE ON ROLL CALL

Washington, June 13.—By a vote of exactly five to one, the House tonight passed the Porter resolution to terminate the state of war between the United States and the Central Powers.

Forty-nine Members Of Minor- ity Party Join Republicans In Landslide On Substitute For Knox Resolution Passed By Senate; Attempts To Recom- mend Measure Fail

Washington, June 13.—By a vote of exactly five to one, the House tonight passed the Porter resolution to terminate the state of war between the United States and the Central Powers.

Amendment Lost

There was no debate on the latter motion, which provided for an amendment to the pending measure reserving the right under the treaty of Versailles "to enter into an agreement with Germany and her allies and the powers associated with the United States in the war for joint disarmament."

Remains Of Former Lieutenant Governor Laid To Rest Yes- terday Afternoon

Rocky Mount, June 13.—The remains of former Lieutenant Governor E. L. Daughtridge were laid to rest this afternoon in Pineview Cemetery with impressive services, hundreds of friends from this section and different parts of the State attending to pay last honors to one of the State's foremost citizens.

Senior Class Exercises Feat- ured Program Yesterday; Oratorical Contest

Chapel Hill, June 13.—The University of North Carolina's 126th commencement, mounting steadily as the flood of alumni and visitors poured into Chapel Hill, witnessed the last formal acts of the seniors, saw the passing of the overlordship of the campus from the class of 1921, the university's "War Babies," to the class of 1922, the rising seniors, and was tonight preparing itself for the gathering of the alumni hosts tomorrow when the old boys will once more sweep across the lawns and walks they trod so often.

DEATH OF DAUGHTRIDGE MOURNED AT WASHINGTON

Washington, June 13.—The news of the death of former Lieutenant Governor E. L. Daughtridge, of Rocky Mount, when learned by the members of the North Carolina delegation, brought expressions of deepest regret and sympathy for the bereaved family. Telegrams expressing this were sent by Senators Simmons and Overman, and the North Carolina members of the House.

WIFE OF CHIEF TAYLOR INSTITUTES DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST DR. J. W. PEACOCK

Winston-Salem, June 13.—Mrs. Ethel E. Taylor, widow of Chief of Police J. E. Taylor, who was shot and killed in Thomasville April 17, by Dr. J. W. Peacock, has instituted suit against the physician in Forsythe Superior court for $40,000 as damages.

Report Says Trade Union Movement Has Not Failed

Executive Council of A. F. of L. Declares Unions Have Suc- cessfully Defended Themselves Against Attacks of Anti-Union Employers—Legislative Recom- mendations Submitted

Denver, Col., June 13.—The trade union movement in America "has successfully defended its position against the organized effort of anti-union employers," the Executive Council of the American Federation of Labor declares in its annual report submitted today to the Federation convention here.

Strength of Federation

The report gives the present strength of the Federation of Labor at 3,905,528 as against 4,078,740 in 1920 and says that the slight decrease in members is "naturally due to the large numbers of workers unemployed." It points to the membership enrollment as proof that

Senior Class Exercises Feat- ured Program Yesterday; Oratorical Contest

Chapel Hill, June 13.—The University of North Carolina's 126th commencement, mounting steadily as the flood of alumni and visitors poured into Chapel Hill, witnessed the last formal acts of the seniors, saw the passing of the overlordship of the campus from the class of 1921, the university's "War Babies," to the class of 1922, the rising seniors, and was tonight preparing itself for the gathering of the alumni hosts tomorrow when the old boys will once more sweep across the lawns and walks they trod so often.

DEATH OF DAUGHTRIDGE MOURNED AT WASHINGTON

Washington, June 13.—The news of the death of former Lieutenant Governor E. L. Daughtridge, of Rocky Mount, when learned by the members of the North Carolina delegation, brought expressions of deepest regret and sympathy for the bereaved family. Telegrams expressing this were sent by Senators Simmons and Overman, and the North Carolina members of the House.

WIFE OF CHIEF TAYLOR INSTITUTES DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST DR. J. W. PEACOCK

Winston-Salem, June 13.—Mrs. Ethel E. Taylor, widow of Chief of Police J. E. Taylor, who was shot and killed in Thomasville April 17, by Dr. J. W. Peacock, has instituted suit against the physician in Forsythe Superior court for $40,000 as damages.

Senior Class Exercises Feat- ured Program Yesterday; Oratorical Contest

Chapel Hill, June 13.—The University of North Carolina's 126th commencement, mounting steadily as the flood of alumni and visitors poured into Chapel Hill, witnessed the last formal acts of the seniors, saw the passing of the overlordship of the campus from the class of 1921, the university's "War Babies," to the class of 1922, the rising seniors, and was tonight preparing itself for the gathering of the alumni hosts tomorrow when the old boys will once more sweep across the lawns and walks they trod so often.

DEATH OF DAUGHTRIDGE MOURNED AT WASHINGTON

Washington, June 13.—The news of the death of former Lieutenant Governor E. L. Daughtridge, of Rocky Mount, when learned by the members of the North Carolina delegation, brought expressions of deepest regret and sympathy for the bereaved family. Telegrams expressing this were sent by Senators Simmons and Overman, and the North Carolina members of the House.

WIFE OF CHIEF TAYLOR INSTITUTES DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST DR. J. W. PEACOCK

Winston-Salem, June 13.—Mrs. Ethel E. Taylor, widow of Chief of Police J. E. Taylor, who was shot and killed in Thomasville April 17, by Dr. J. W. Peacock, has instituted suit against the physician in Forsythe Superior court for $40,000 as damages.

HEARING IN LINNEY CASE IS SCHEDULED TO OCCUR JUNE 24

Sub-Committee Of The Senate Judiciary Committee Sets Definite Day

HARDING MAY COME TO THE STATE IN JANUARY

Washington, June 13.—"Oyes, oyes, come into court," for the hearing on the Frank A. Linney case. The date is June 24, a Friday, but not a thirteenth Friday; the time 2:30 in the afternoon, the place the room of the Senate judicial committee, first floor of the Capitol building.

President Tentatively Accepts Invitation To Attend Cele- bration Of Founding Of St. John's Lodge, A. F. and A. M., At New Bern, Jan. 19;

News and Observer Bureau, 603 District National Bank Building. By EDWARD E. BRITTON. (By Special Leased Wire.)

Senior Class Exercises Feat- ured Program Yesterday; Oratorical Contest

Chapel Hill, June 13.—The University of North Carolina's 126th commencement, mounting steadily as the flood of alumni and visitors poured into Chapel Hill, witnessed the last formal acts of the seniors, saw the passing of the overlordship of the campus from the class of 1921, the university's "War Babies," to the class of 1922, the rising seniors, and was tonight preparing itself for the gathering of the alumni hosts tomorrow when the old boys will once more sweep across the lawns and walks they trod so often.

DEATH OF DAUGHTRIDGE MOURNED AT WASHINGTON

Washington, June 13.—The news of the death of former Lieutenant Governor E. L. Daughtridge, of Rocky Mount, when learned by the members of the North Carolina delegation, brought expressions of deepest regret and sympathy for the bereaved family. Telegrams expressing this were sent by Senators Simmons and Overman, and the North Carolina members of the House.

WIFE OF CHIEF TAYLOR INSTITUTES DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST DR. J. W. PEACOCK

Winston-Salem, June 13.—Mrs. Ethel E. Taylor, widow of Chief of Police J. E. Taylor, who was shot and killed in Thomasville April 17, by Dr. J. W. Peacock, has instituted suit against the physician in Forsythe Superior court for $40,000 as damages.

Senior Class Exercises Feat- ured Program Yesterday; Oratorical Contest

Chapel Hill, June 13.—The University of North Carolina's 126th commencement, mounting steadily as the flood of alumni and visitors poured into Chapel Hill, witnessed the last formal acts of the seniors, saw the passing of the overlordship of the campus from the class of 1921, the university's "War Babies," to the class of 1922, the rising seniors, and was tonight preparing itself for the gathering of the alumni hosts tomorrow when the old boys will once more sweep across the lawns and walks they trod so often.

DEATH OF DAUGHTRIDGE MOURNED AT WASHINGTON

Washington, June 13.—The news of the death of former Lieutenant Governor E. L. Daughtridge, of Rocky Mount, when learned by the members of the North Carolina delegation, brought expressions of deepest regret and sympathy for the bereaved family. Telegrams expressing this were sent by Senators Simmons and Overman, and the North Carolina members of the House.

WIFE OF CHIEF TAYLOR INSTITUTES DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST DR. J. W. PEACOCK

Winston-Salem, June 13.—Mrs. Ethel E. Taylor, widow of Chief of Police J. E. Taylor, who was shot and killed in Thomasville April 17, by Dr. J. W. Peacock, has instituted suit against the physician in Forsythe Superior court for $40,000 as damages.