

KLANSMEN PLAN BIG CELEBRATION

Head of Organization To Speak in City of Greensboro Friday

Atlanta, Ga., June 25.—Thousands of members of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia will assemble in Greensboro, N. C., Friday, July 1st, for one of the largest celebrations ever held since the organization was founded six years ago.

The announcement that the meeting had been authorized was made today from the office of Colonel W. J. Simmons, Imperial Wizard of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

The principal feature of the meeting will be an address by Colonel Simmons which will be delivered Friday evening, July 1, at the Central Carolina fair grounds which are said to be capable of seating fifteen thousand persons. Colonel Simmons will discuss the Ku Klux Klan of the Reconstruction period and will give the history of the organization of the modern Klan and go into detail as to its aims and purposes.

All the members of the organization from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia have been especially invited to attend the meeting.

According to present plans there will be a mammoth parade through the streets of Greensboro in the afternoon at 4 o'clock. There will be a moving picture made of the gathering on the Guilford Battleground, the scene of one of the most historic conflicts of the Revolutionary War. While the Klansmen are marching and while the picture is being made several airplanes will fly over Greensboro, High Point and Winston Salem, neighboring cities, distributing literature for the Klan. Arrangements are being made for spectacular electrical effects at the fair grounds.

The membership in the Greensboro Klan includes eleven members of the original organization and these gentlemen will act as an honorary escort to Colonel Simmons from the time of his arrival in Greensboro until his departure.

MOVIE PICTURE ACTOR ENTER-TAINED IN ASHEVILLE

Asheville, June 25.—The first impression Douglas MacClean, popular movie actor had of Asheville was a highly favorable one. The picture star not only admitted it but in the next breath declared that he is coming back. And when he returns says "Doug" he will bring his gang with him to wit the entire Paramount company of players and they will make a picture with Asheville and its surroundings as a background.

The reception tendered Mr. and Mrs. MacClean upon their arrival Friday morning did not lack in enthusiasm. Mayor Roberts was at the station smiling the city hall smile, and Commissioner Fitzpatrick and Sherrill, and members of the board of trade, civic associations and some of Asheville's club women were in the group.

WEDDING IN HENDERSONVILLE

Hendersonville, June 25.—Dr. Ebert Durham, of Tuxedo, and Miss Sara Katharine Shipman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Shipman, were married in the Baptist church here by Rev. E. E. ...

MAN IN KINSTON DIES AFTER A FATAL AFFRAY

Kinston, June 25.—The funeral of Bert B. Sugg, fatally shot in an affray with his brother-in-law, John D. Poplin, here Tuesday night, was held from the residence near the city yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Bernard P. Smith, pastor of Gordon Street Christian church, officiated. Burial was made in Maplewood cemetery. The services were largely attended.

Sugg's death occurred about 24 hours after the shooting. He was 47 years of age and a native of Greens county. He was widely known among farmers and tobaccoists and was popular. He was a member of the Central Warehouse Company. He was conscious for a time before his death, but not for long. An operation was performed with slight hope of benefiting him. He sank rapidly Wednesday evening.

Mr. Sugg is survived by his widow, six children and a number of brothers and sisters and other relatives. He was extensively related in Lenoir and Greene counties.

Poplin is being held without bail. He declares that he and Sugg were good friends before the fatal affray, and that he regrets the affair deeply. It is possible that an effort will be made to secure bail for him.

WASHINGTON MAN HOLDS MAN FOR SAFE BREAKING

Kinston, June 25.—A. S. Terry's bail has been fixed at $5,000 by Judge William M. Bond after a hearing here, and Terry, held at Washington, N. C., on charges of safe robbing, is not expected to be able to raise the bond. Wiley C. Rodman, of Washington, represented Terry at the habeas corpus hearing here.

Terry is alleged to have entered the offices of Guy Harding, a real estate man at Washington, at a late hour at night. Harding arrested him, according to the latter's statement, while Terry was tampering with the safe. The offices had been broken into a number of times, and approximately $4,500 taken from the safe. Harding set a trap and secreted himself in the office in which Terry entered through the rear of the building after picking a complicated door fastening, and opened the safe in a few minutes' time. Harding pulled a string which turned on an electric light and pointed a pistol at Terry. He then marched his prisoner to the police station across the street. Following his arrest, according to Harding, Terry curtly declined to answer certain questions.
