Capitals Win From Pointers In Grand Slugging Bee, 11-9

Five Pitchers Give Up 27 Base Hits and 18 Of The Runs Are Earned

HUGHES' SKILL DESERTS HIM BUT LUCK STANDS BY

Star Twirler Is Pounded Teriff. ically, But Gets No Mark Against His Record .

Five pitchers yesterday gave up 27 base hits for 20 runs, 18 of them earned, and Raleigh won out over High Point by a count of 11 to 9.

The locals hammered three of the visitors' best until the slaughter was sickening, but honors were by no means one-sided, Bill Hughes, the acknowledged class of the league making by far his poorest showing of the season. But while Bill's skill deserted Thim, his good old luck stuck around and his record is none the worse for the drubbing.

Hughes blanked the league leaders in the first frame and his team mates jumped on "Bube" Eldridge for three hits and two runs, making everything rosy. But the Pointers furnished a rude jar in the second, falling on Hughes like a ton of brick. The acc stayed on the mound long enough to retire two men, but in the meantime five hits had been chalked against him, he had given one base on balls and four markers were seross the plate, with runners planted on third and soc-and Mike Roman, the first man to whom he pitched, singled sharply, running up the total of runs counted against

In the next inning Day who had relieved Eldridge in the second, slammed one to the left field wall for the longest hit seen here this season, driving in one run ahead of them. But from then on Allen settled down and the visitors did not score again until the seventh, producing only a single marker in that

The Capitals kept plugging steadily, producing another trio of hingles in the second, driving the ancient and honorable "Rube" from the mound and scoring another brace of tallies. In the third they increased the blows to four and the runs to three, making the count stand' 8 to 7.

In the fourth they caused Day to be replaced by Nichols and tied the score. The southpaw had only one bad inming, but in the sixth he g .ve up three hits for as many rums an' the game was enfely wou.

McNeill was easily the fielding star of the game, scooping em to both sides of him, while batting honors were somewhat evenly distributed, Dorsey, Davis and Lennox poling out three each, the short stop's trio including a double and a triple. Dorsey's blows were secured in his first th ce ti. es up and each was a clean smash. He hit Eldridge at will but could denoting

Both teams fought as foriously as though more had been at stake and the big crowd also enjoyed itself withou the tension that was visible Friday.
