

PLAN MONUMENT TO CONFEDERACY

Durham Confederate Veterans Launch Drive For Appropriate Memorial

Durham, Dec. 5.—Action toward the erection of a monument to the Durham county soldiers who fought for the Confederate cause in the War between the States was started today, when Commander W. T. Redmond of the Durham Post of the United Confederate Veterans, requested permission to erect such a memorial on the court house lawn here. No decision was made by the commissioners today, but there is no reason to believe such permission would be withheld. Commander Redmond stated today that he had in mind a campaign to raise from $3,000 to $5,000 in Durham county for the purpose of placing the memorial to Durham's Confederate heroes, some of whom are still living, although the number has dwindled to a handful.

While he has not formulated any definite plan as yet, it is probable he would ask the teachers of the confederacy to take up the matter of staging such a campaign. Durham has no memorial or monument commemorating the work of her Confederate detachment.

W. W. Hamcock, comparatively young married man, while under the influence of whiskey Saturday night, attacked his small daughter with a fire shovel, badly bruising the child. Due to the fact that his wife and child are dependent upon him for support, he was not sent to the roads. Arraigned on charges assault with a deadly weapon, assault and battery with a deadly weapon, and drunkenness, he was fined $15, prayer for judgment in one case accepted and required to furnish $50 bond for monthly appearance for six months to show good behavior.

Ralph Perry, shot and seriously wounded by W. D. Hopkins in East Durham, Saturday, is still in a critical condition at Watts hospital with a chance for recovery not provided. No complications set in. Hopkins is still held without bond and will not be released unless Perry's condition materially improves.

First reports on the progress of the question of railroad crossings in Durham, and the removal of classification yards from within the city limits, will probably be made to the city council in regular session tonight. City engineers are working out a new plan which will be proposed as substitutes for the Miller recently turned down by the railroad, and will meet railroad engineers, December 12th, to finally attempt to get together on the matter.

Durham has definitely undertaken the establishment of a housing corporation in the city, and efforts will be made to enlist $75,000 through the subscription of stock. Money will be loaned to prospective home builders who have one-fifth of the amount necessary to build a lot equivalent to that amount. The attempt to raise the necessary fund will continue until January 1st.

Consider Treaty To Include Four Powers in East

The Washington conference might well consider merging the Anglo-Japanese alliance into an arrangement to which the United States would be a party. The Japanese have shown an inclination to take up that proposal and it has been mentioned more than once to the American delegates during their informal conversations with their foreign associates.

These hints have never brought the subject to the point of a formal exchange of views, however, nor revealed even to the heads of the foreign delegations, just how far the United States might be willing to go in that direction. Neither will the American representatives discuss the question publicly, but they are known to regard it as fraught with many complicated possibilities.

In every consideration of a possible treaty or international understanding to replace the alliance, the American delegates have kept in mind the possible temper of the Senate should it be asked to ratify such an agreement. With two Senators sitting as members of the delegation, it is assumed that if a formal treaty were negotiated, Senate sentiment first would be carefully canvassed. An "understanding" would not require Senate confirmation, but it is conjectured that binding an agreement of that character, President Harding and his plenipotentiaries would care to effect.

With the reassembling of the Senate today for the new term there were indications that Senators were watching the trend of the negotiations with growing interest and that a discussion revealing the opinions of some members of the treaty ratifying body might be precipitated on the Senate floor within a few days.

town was renamed after the visit of Lafayette there in 1824, and the two regiments, with their commander, who were thrown into the breach at Chateau Thierry were stationed there.

Being by training an artillery officer, the Marshal has been keenly interested in Camp Bragg, which has become the training center of America's artillery. The reservation there is the largest devoted to military use in the world, and its development as a school of fire is being anticipated with keen interest by men of the artillery service in the armies of the world. The only time that could be found for him to stop at Fayetteville was at midnight Friday night, and the plan has been abandoned.

Babe Ruth Is Suspended Until May 20, By Landis

Chicago, Dec. 5.—The "bad news" for Babe Ruth world's champion home run hitter with the New York Yankees broke today.

Ruth was fined his world's series prize, amounting to $2,302.26 and suspended until May 20, of the 1922 season by Judge Landis, commissioner of baseball, for participating in exhibition games following the close of the world's series.

Outfielder Bob Meusel and Pitcher William Piacery also members of the pennant winning Yankees who participated in the bare storming trip with Ruth drew substantial fines the same penalty. Piacery's fine was $100 less than the other two players as his share of the world's series was that much less than the other players.

The suspension of Ruth for at least the first month of the American League pennant race practically means baseball observers pointed out tonight that the New York slugger will have little chance of breaking his home run record next season. Under the ruling Ruth may apply for reinstatement May 20.

STUMBLES OVER STICK AND MEETS DEATH

S. P. Waldo, of Kenly, Killed in Peculiar Manner

Wilson, Dec. 5.—A shocking death, according to reports received here, occurred at Kenly early Sunday morning. S. P. Waldo, who conducts the Kenly Meat Market, after closing his place of business late in the night returned to his home to find every thing was locked tight and fast. In the meantime his family had retired and on Sunday morning was surprised to find that his bed had not been occupied during the night.

Search was immediately made and his dead body was found in the rear of his market with a sharp stick in his neck. The supposition is that he stumbled and fell in the dark and the stick punctured his windpipe.

He is survived by a widowed mother, Mrs. A. A. M. Waldo, of Cary; his wife, and nine children; two sisters, Mrs. G. R. Road, of Post Haywood, Va.; Mrs. John Brothers of Cary, and one brother, N. R. Waldo, of this city.

The interment was made near Cary.

POSSUMS PLENTIFUL IN ALAMANCE THIS YEAR

Graham, Dec. 5.—The biggest catch of opossums heard of this fall was made a few nights ago by Ed. E. Quakenbush, Lido Smith and Foust Thompson. They bagged 15 of them, 9 being big ones. The dogs belonged to Quakenbush and Smith, and must be good ones to do that much in one night. The boys had such a load they had to stop and rest every few hundred yards.

NEGRO ACQUITTED OF CHARGE OF MURDER

Goldboro, Dec. 5.—After being out only a few minutes, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Pete Rodgers, Chatham county negro, charged with the murder of John C. Lanier, a Pittabro merchant, on the night of August 6th. The trial was moved here for trial, which began last Thursday. The Chatham authorities will continue their efforts to secure evidence as to the guilty person.

CATAWHA GAME WARDEN CALLS ON WOMEN TO HELP.

Hickory, Dec. 5. County Game Warden S. H. Jordan of Conover, failing to arouse the farmers in his effort to protect game, has called on the women to form game protective associations. Hickory hunters were much surprised at the necessity for such a call, for it has been their experience that every foot of ground is posted in the county and hunting no longer is regarded as a pleasure. There were plenty of birds at the beginning of the season and doubtless are yet. Farmers say they have little objection to business men and others who occasionally take a few hours off for pleasure, but they object seriously to that class of men and boys who spend about all their time hunting.

ARMY PLANE WRECKED AT DUNN FAIR GROUND

Captain Shepherd Makes Forced Landing Account of Engine Trouble

Dunn, Dec. 5.—In making a forced landing at the fair ground field here today a DeHavilland aeroplane, en route from Quantico to Pope Field and driven by Captain Shepherd, crashed to earth when a few feet above ground, tipped on its nose, overturned and is now a complete wreck. Neither Captain Shepherd nor his Mechanic Sergeant Dean Harding were injured although they were thrown from their seats by the impact. Captain Shepherd was driving one of six planes which started this morning on the first lap of a fight to Miami. One ship was obliged to land above Richmond. A few minutes before reaching Dunn, his engine began skipping. Although only 15 minutes from Pope Field he was obliged to land here. He will spend the night here. Tomorrow morning he will send the remains of his plane by truck to Camp Bragg.

Washington, Dec. 5.—States have control over natural oyster beds within their borders, the Supreme court decided today.

STATES HAVE CONTROL OF THEIR OYSTER BEDS

The question arose in an appeal brought by J. W. Huley against the commission of fisheries of the state of Virginia. He was ordered to vacate a part of an oyster bed leased him by the State which claimed the part had been found to be natural oyster ground and therefore not leaseable.

Other than the foregoing chronicle of possibilities, the session promises to be dull. Still, Representative Crisp has not yet reached town, being detained in Roanoke Island by illness. It may be that he will bring a wall from the festive cattle tick when he reaches town Wednesday morning. He also may add his voice to that of Mr. Bell in application against the stock law.

MISS FRANCES NEWMAN Chicago, Ill.

"Only a medicine of truly wonderful merit could have done what Tanlac did for me and there is nothing half good enough for me to say about it," said Miss Frances Newman, 2839 Hirsch St., Chicago. "I don't think anybody ever suffered any more from indigestion than I did and for over a year I was in wretched health. I had another spell and my heart palpitated so violently I thought I had heart trouble, but I know now it was all caused from my stomach. "Since taking Tanlac I feel and look like a different person. I have a splendid appetite and my digestion is just perfect. I sleep eight or nine hours every night and get up in the morning feeling fresh and happy. My friends tell me I'm always smiling now and I certainly ought to be, for I'm enjoying life again." Tanlac is sold in Raleigh by F. W. Parker Drug Co., and leading drug stores everywhere. (adv.)
