Baltimore, June 25 .- A last desperate attempt to avert a bitter fac-tional fight was made by the Bryan forces, when the democratic convention took up the problem of select-ing a temporary chairman today. So sharp were the linees divided that Bryan himself became a candidate for the temporary chairmenship. After Bryan made a speech nominating Kern and attacking Parker, Kern took the platform. He pleaded for harmony, and asked Parker to join him in withdrawing from the contest. After waiting vainly for Parker's reply, Kern himself withdrew and nominated Bryan. The chairman shouted a warning that the galleries would be closed tomorrow if the disorderly scenes continued. Bryan again took the platform, making a point of order that Chairman Mack had announced a roll call, during a period of disorder but that under the rules each side should have an opportunity to pre- farce, were present in Baltimore,
