One of Greatest Needs of Montreat Is Cottages For the Summer Residents

(Special to The Times.)
Montreat, July 30.—One of the greatest needs of Montreat is more cottages. The demand for cottages here is far greater than can be supplied. Many families desire to come here for the summer, and while taking their meals at the hotels, enjoy the privacy of home life at other times.

The number of guests at Montreat now is larger than ever before at this time of the season, and judging from the number of reservations that have been made for August, the community will be crowded to overflowing before the first week of that month has passed. The services in the auditorium on Sunday were attended by very large audiences.

The sermon preached at the morning service by Rev. E. Fred Eastman, marked the close of the conference on the country church. This sermon was an appeal especially for leaders in the church, and especially in the country church. Many times he emphasized the importance of this work by giving telling facts and statistics in this connection. He showed also that one result of this restlessness and discontent of the country population of the United States, which now number thirty millions, is the disintegration of the country church, statistics showing that at the present time the membership of the country church is less by ten thousand than was true ten years ago.

Mr. Eastman pleaded for the church as a whole to labor for the revival of the country church, and not to neglect this account of work among immigrants, lumber camps, mining districts, or foreign missions, arguing that the country church is the backbone of the whole church, and that the city church must have its support in order to do its most effective work.

Rev. Lewis S. Chaffer, of Northfield, Mass., preached to the colored people in the afternoon, and in the evening he preached the regular sermon of the summer assembly for that hour. This sermon was upon a high spiritual plane and was an appeal for the living of the highest type of Christianity.

A large crowd greeted the Montreat Athletic Association on Saturday night to witness the exhibitions of "stunt" night. The program which the boys presented was a most creditable one and it was highly commended. It was a clean show in every respect and was an evidence of careful training and expert ability in athletic sports upon the part of the boys. The door receipts amounted to more than seventy dollars, and this money will be expended in providing the boys with better equipment for the work of the athletic association. The program of Saturday night included also a number of speeches by the boys and some musical selections. The entire day was observed as "stunt day" and the boys of the athletic club had the right of way. The morning was devoted to clever exhibitions of swimming, diving and boating on the lake; a match game of baseball occupied the afternoon, the contesting teams being those of Montreat and Ridgecrest, the latter team being the victor.

One of the most interesting features of Montreat this season is the kindergarten school which is conducted a few hours every day. Mrs. J. K. Coit, of Georgia, is in charge of the school, and she has several capable assistants in this work. Almost one hundred children are enrolled in the school and they are making rapid progress under the careful training they are receiving.

Not only are a large number of different states represented among the guests at Montreat, but the fellowship good feature is emphasized in the fact that several denominations are represented as well.

The conference in the interest of Sunday school and young people's work will be held this week, and the program that has been arranged is one of the most attractive of the entire series of the summer conferences to be held this season. Rev. Walter L. Lingie, D.D., who has arranged the entire program for the matter of speakers and subjects and for the satisfactory discharge of all of the work he has done in this connection.

DRIVES OFF A TERROR.
The chief executioner of death in the winter and spring months is pneumonia. Its advance agents are colds and grip. In any attack by one of these maladies no time should be lost in taking the best medicine obtainable to drive it off. Countless thousands have found this to be Dr. King's New Discovery. "My husband believes it has kept him from having pneumonia three or four times," writes Mrs. George W. Place, Rawsonville, Va., "and for coughs, colds and croup we have never found its equal." "HANDISOMEST GIRL" IN PENNSYLVANIA WOULD WED AGED MIL-LIONAIRE.

Out of the hundreds of applicants and photos he has received Fays L. Hardenbrook thinks he has found the young woman who will appeal to his aged millionaire friend, who entrusted him with the quest for a wife who will share his $8,000,000. Hardenbrook gave out a copy of the girl's photograph, but refused to divulge her name, but stated that in her letters she was declared to be the "handisomest girl in Pennsylvania." Hardenbrook's aged mate-seeking friend cautioned him that the chosen candidate must be twenty years of age, a blonde, possessing a good figure and exquisite complexion, and above all things, she must have an amiable disposition. Hardenbrook declares that the Pennsylvania girl, he thinks, fills all these requirements.

DILLON WITHDRAWS
Judge Sends Resignation as Compromise Nominee for Governor and Will Support Roosevelt Party.

Columbus, O., July 29.—Inability to reconcile the factions of the republican party in the state was given by common pleas Judge E. B. Dillon of Columbus, republican nominee for the governorship, in a public statement in which he said he would decline the nomination. He said he would present his withdrawal to the republican state central committee which will meet here next Wednesday.

Judge Dillon telegraphed the following from Mackinack island where he is spending the summer:
"My written declination placed in the hands of Chairman Burton was not read to the convention and I accepted the nomination in the full presumption and belief that my acceptance would mean an united party and a single ticket in Ohio."
"All endeavor in that behalf has failed despite the kind offices of my friends in each following of the party."
"The measure of justice due me, even though a mere individual, requires my resignation as nominee for governor and the same will be presented to the state central committee at its next meeting Wednesday."
"It is empowered to fill the vacancy. It was reported today, however, that the committee may decide to call the convention together again to name a candidate."
Judge Dillon was named in the second session of the republican state convention July 2 and his name was put forward as a compromise after numerous ballots had failed to give a majority to A. L. Garford of Eyrle, the Roosevelt candidate. Lawrence K. Langham, the Taft candidate, and B. H. Kruger, who received the undivided support of Cincinnati's big delegation.

Judge Dillon's determination not to accept the nomination, it is believed, was reached last week after a conference in Toledo with Walter F. Brown, chairman of the state central committee and former manager of Roosevelt's campaign in the state.

Harry M. Dougherty of Columbus, and Warren G. Harding of Marion, were mentioned today as possible nominees.

since the days of Wade Hampton," responded Young.
Then the recorder leaned over his desk and wrote, and this is what he wrote:
"Eugene Gordon Young, Insane. Held at police station and telegraph his family."

Help To Keep Down Expenses.
Mrs. J. E. Henry, Akron, Mich., tells how she did so: "I was bothered with my kidneys and had to go nearly blind. I tried a sample of Foley Kidney Pills and they did me so much good that I bought a bottle, and feel that they saved me a big doctor's bill." King-Crowell Drug Co.
