LAUGHTER'S DISCIPLES.
(Anonymous.)
He's a worker in the cause of love and laughter,
He's a pilgrim in the ranks and seeks no fame,
He's a man who takes his leisure moments after
He has played and made his progress in the game;
He's a friend of every man who ever knew him,
And a whole-souled, jolly fellow all the while,
Children turn their fresh, glad faces always to him—
He's the man who's learned the secret of a smile.

She's a sunbeam in the lives of those who labor,
And a soothing bit of comfort molded well,
As a maid, and all the world's her happy neighbor
From the highest mountain to the lowly dell;
She's a rose leaf in the garden of all sorrow,
Where she blends the tears with dewdrops pure of guile,
She's the missionary of the grand tomorrow,
And the maid who taught the man to wear a smile.

A DOUBLE WEDDING
Misses Phyllis and Jessie Woodall to Wed at Clyde, September 19.
The following wedding invitation will be read with much interest here: Mr. and Mrs. William Harston Woodall will give in marriage their daughter Phyllis to Mr. Earl Leroy Woleslagel, and their niece Miss Jessie Virginia Woodall to Mr. George Michael Trostrel on Thursday afternoon, September the nineteenth, nineteen hundred and twelve at four o'clock Baptist church Clyde, North Carolina.
You are invited to be present. Miss Phyllis Woodall is pleasantly remembered here, where she spent several terms, a student at Meredith College. Her remarkable talent as a gifted young violinist gave the people of Raleigh much pleasure, while her own charming personality won for her many friends. Mr. Woleslagel, who is a native of Bellevue, Ohio, is a singer with the Southern Baptist Board of Atlanta and has a rich baritone voice. Miss Jessie Woodall, who is the daughter of Mr. C. L. Woodall, of Raleigh, has made her home with her uncle at Clyde, since the death of her mother, when she was a child. She has spent much time here however both during her vacations and while a student at Meredith College. She is an unusually beautiful and attractive girl. Mr. Trostrel is chief chemist with the Champion Fibre Company of Canton. He is a native of Pennsylvania and a graduate of Cornell University.

Marriage at Greensboro.
(Special to The Times.)
Greensboro, Sept. 4.—One of the social events of the season in Greensboro was the marriage last evening at the First Presbyterian church of Miss Woodlin Chambers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben S. Robertson of this place, and Mr. Hubert Hill, formerly professor of chemistry at the A. and M. College in Raleigh, and now engaged in chemistry work in the United States department of agriculture at Morganton, West Virginia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Melton Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The wedding party arrived at the church promptly at 8 o'clock and as the ushers, Messrs. Ralph B. Coit of Greensboro, Don E. Scott of Graham, John Scott of Charlotte and Ben Robertson of Durham, entered there pealed forth the Mendelssohn wedding march with Miss Margaret Callum presiding at the organ. Following the ushers came the maid of honor, Miss Gena Robertson, sister of the bride, handsomely gowned in pink embroidered tulle and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. Next came Miss Margaret Stockton, the ring-bearer and cousin of the bride daintily in white lingerie dress with pink ribbons and carrying a large chrysanthemum in which was embedded the wedding ring. The bride entered next with her grandmother, Mrs. M. J. Brady, who gave her in marriage. She presented an exquisite picture in her beautiful white gown of white lace over white tulle, with the bridal veil caught with lilacs of the valley and carrying a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The groom with his best man, Mr. James T. McAden of Meadenville, met the bride at the altar.
Following the ceremony a reception was tendered the bridal party and relatives of the families at the home of the bride's parents on Church street, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hill left for Washington and other northern and eastern points before going to Morganton where they will make their home.

School Opens.
The Carthage Graded and High schools opened Monday with an attendance of 197. This is an unusually large attendance for this school. Prof. C. G. Credle, of Swan Quarter, is principal. Miss Eva Vest, of Goldsboro, is the only new addition to the faculty other than Prof. Credle.

No Appointment Yet.
Governor Kitchen had not at 1 o'clock this afternoon announced his appointment of an adjunct general to succeed General Leinster. It was not known whether the appointment would be made today.

Baltimore, Sept. 4.—Mrs. Louise Owens has filed an application for a divorce from her husband, the Rev. O. L. Owens, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church, Walbrook. She charged in her complaint that her husband treated her cruelly and was guilty of violence. She also asked for alimony and an order of separation.

4 SISTERS WED AT ONCE

Arkansas Couple's Daughters Become Brides of Young Planters.
Fort Smith, Ark., Sept. 4.—A new matrimonial record in Arkansas was entered today when Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Clark announced that their four daughters were married to four young planters by the same ceremony last night at the Clark's country place near Ozark. The quadruple ceremony united:
Miss Clark, 22, to Taylor McCain, 21.
Miss Selma Clark, 15, to Thomas Welch, 22.
Miss Jerusha Clark, 17, to George Powell, 20.
Miss Gladys Clark, 19, to A. H. Williams, 23.

BANDITS GET WRONG TRAIN.

Stop a Freight Train But Retreat When They Find It is Not a Passenger.
New Orleans, Sept. 4.—Three bandits plentifully supplied with high explosives and an auto lay in wait twenty miles east of here last night for the Louisville and Nashville express. When they heard the locomotive puffing, they set their hold-up plans in motion, but after halting the engine they found it was hauling a long line of freight cars instead of passengers and express cars. They leveled their guns at the engineer and fireman and retreated hastily.

SWIMMING EXPERT AT PULLEN PARK

Arrangements have been made with the city for the use of Pullen Park bathing pool Friday afternoon by Capt. L. D. Blondell, of the Monumental Life Saving Crew, who will give demonstrations and instructions in swimming. The captain has had so many requests to give instructions in swimming that he has consented to use the Pullen Park pool where a large number of spectators can be accommodated. There will be a small charge of only ten cents to spectators to help defray expenses and an additional charge of fifteen cents to those who would like to use the pool. The captain especially requests the ladies and children to come to the exhibition, as he is willing to give swimming instructions to any who come. The affair will be an enjoyable one and will no doubt be largely attended.

SPLIT IN THIRD PARTY

Dixon Unable to Heal Breach of Colorado Faction.
Dixon, Colo., Sept. 4.—Senator Joseph M. Dixon failed in his mission here to unite the progressive republican party of Colorado with the progressive party. Leaving early today for Salt Lake City to confer with the progressives there, he carried with him the knowledge that there are two sets of Roosevelt supporters in this state who are irreconcilable opponents as to the composition of the state progressive ticket.

SCHOOL DAYS ARE DRESS DAYS

Children's Wash Dresses From 50c to $2.50

School days are happy days and especially when the young girl feels that she is just as neat looking as her associate. This does not mean "expense," for the prices on our dresses are but a trifle compared with the cost of material and the making.

The small girl, the medium or the large-sized ones can all get something really worth while in our Children's Dress Section. Made up substantially from the best guaranteed washable materials—Repp, Percales and Gingham. Plenty of the Dressy Dresses.

BEACH TRIM PUT OFF.

Lawyers For the State and For the Defense Agree to a Postponement of Celebrated Case Until February.

Aiken, S. C., Sept. 4.—Smiles of cynicism that said as plainly as words could have expressed it "I told you so" curled many lips in Aiken yesterday with the announcement that Frederick O. Beach, under indictment for assault and battery with intent to kill his wife, Mrs. Camilla Beach, will not be brought to trial on the charge at the September term of the court, on the calendar of which the case was expected by some to appear.

WRIGHT RESIGNS.

Chief Drainage Engineer in Florida Walks Out.
Tallahassee, Fla., Sept. 4.—J. O. Wright, chief drainage engineer of the state of Florida, who has been in charge of the work of draining the Everglades, has tendered his resignation according to an announcement made here. Action on the resignation is expected at the next meeting of the trustees of the Florida Internal Improvement fund.

INSIST THEY WILL PROSECUTE.

Those who smiled so sarcastically and cynically yesterday have contended all along that Beach never would be brought to trial on the charge of a frankly said that the matter would be allowed to die a natural death. They consider the postponement of the trial as proof of their convictions.

HELD AS HOSTAGE

Cuban Citizen Wants 2,000 Pesos to Free His Young Wife.
El Paso, Tex., Sept. 4.—After a hard ride of more than a thousand miles, Alonso Fernandez Arquilles, a Cuban citizen arrived here to raise 2,000 pesos to free his young wife, held hostage by rebels at Colonia Diaz.

HELD AS HOSTAGE

Arquilles called on Col. E. Z. Stoeber at Fort Bliss and appealed to General Joaquin Teller, commander of the Mexican federal forces about Juarez.

TRIAL FOR THE SOCIAL SEASON.

Solicitor Gunter, explains that there will be a considerable saving to the state, by the delay, as the witnesses in the case will not be here then. They are mostly employes of northern residents who come here in the winter. In February the Aiken winter season will be at its height. The Harrison will be here, as will the Oliver families, and the Dolans of Philadelphia, and all the other friends of Mr.
