"THE GIRL IN PINK."

Presented by Local Talent Last Night at the Academy of Music.

"The Girl in Pink" was presented last night by a cast of local talent at the Academy of Music. As the play was for the benefit of St. Luke's Home, Raleigh's most popular charity, there was a good audience to witness the production. The players were placed at somewhat of a difficulty by the absence of one of the chief characters, Dr. W. C. Horton, who found at the last moment that he could not come. His part was read by Mr. Harry Foote, under whose direction the play was given. The two comedians, Mr. Ivey Riddick as "Otto Snickelfritz" and Mr. Will Woodall as "Props", kept the audience amused their work being especially good. The singing of Miss Margaret Faucette as the "Girl in Pink" was one of the features of the play.

"The Ghost of the Goblin Man" by Miss Rogers and chorus, the Dutch girls, and "Props" and the Military Girls all scored a hit. The cast of characters was as follows: A Talking Booth—A Stranded Theatrical Manager, S. R. Horton. Lunette Starlight—Booth's Leading Lady—Miss Elizabeth Johnson. Willie Lovejoy—Comedian of Booth's All Star Aggregation, Will Heller.

Props—The Company's Favorite, Will Woodall. Izzy Morgan—Dolly's Wicked Uncle, W. C. Horton.

Otto Snickelfritz—A Saloon Keeper and Speculator, Ivey Riddick.

Dolly Willing—Booth's Ward, "The Girl in Pink," Miss Margaret A. Faucette.

Sheriff Ketchum—Who Enforces the Law, A. C. Bernard.

Professor Kelly, Proprietor of a Female Seminary, Eugene Culbreth.

Eunice Kelly—The Professor's Sister, Miss Marjorie Terrell.

Florida—A Seminary Girl, Miss Bettie Russ.

Doublefee—A Corporation Lawyer, A. C. Bernard.

Show Girls, Actors, Cuties, Seminary Girls, Ghost Girls, Dutch Girls, Hoo Hoo's etc.

DICTIONARIES ARE GOING FAST

The distribution of dictionaries at The Times office yesterday was one of the busy features of the day's work. The first series of six coupons ended with Thursday and there were people waiting with their coupons when The Times office opened Friday morning. Orders by mail have been received and the distribution has kept two persons busy for two days.

It seems that some readers do not thoroughly understand the plan yet. It is not necessary for you to start saving coupons on any particular best piece "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway" with Bert Leigh in the leading part is to be presented at the Academy Monday, September 16, by Latimore & Leigh. Following this theory, out he has provided an entertainment that would succeed along either of two lines, and as a result scores unusual success along both. His play might be considered by itself for there is a real plot that is acted for all there is in it by a company of real actresses and actors, and in addition there are enough song hits to entitle the piece to recognition and face on that score alone and make the fame of a mediocre musical comedy. In this case the songs have been subordinated to the drama and both gain in strength thereby. It is filled with delicious comedy moments and one characterization in particular that has been so extraordinarily successful that it has been made the basis for an entire play with this part the dominant feature. This is the ex-prize fighter portrayed by Bert Leigh whose naive view point and quaint slang have been the talk of the theatre-going world ever since he was given to the stage two years ago. It is a part that would make the fame of any actor of even moderate ability. Miss Hazel Burgess will be seen in the character of "Plain Mary."

HAZELE BURGESS,
As "Plain Mary" in "45 Minutes From Broadway," at the Academy, Monday, September 16.

There is no fake and no hitch about the matter in any way and any dissatisfied purchaser may get his money back by returning the book. Hundreds of school boys and girls who are now having to purchase dictionaries for their school work, should see these splendid books, which are endorsed by the school committee and also by the teachers.
