NOTED DIVINE FOR WILSON

Says Republican Party Has Forfeited Confidence of the Nation

(By Rev. S. S. Wise, Rabbi of the Free Synagogue, New York.)

New York, Sept. 24.—While the republican party has deliberately elected to forfeit the confidence of the nation, the democratic party invites, and offers high guarantee that it deserves such confidence in welcoming the leadership of Woodrow Wilson.

The nomination of Woodrow Wilson for president offers to the progressives of all parties a guarantee, humanly speaking, that the democratic party has been reborn, that it is once again to become, under the inspiration of Woodrow Wilson's leadership, a party of genuine and substantial progress.

When all is said in favor of President Taft, of his honesty and earnest battle against the swollen trusts, of the admirable arbitration treaties which he vainly sought to negotiate with England and France, of his excellent non-partisan judicial appointments, there remains the acceptance and defense of the tariff, dictated, if not written, by its beneficiaries, and above all, the outstanding fact that President Taft has drifted, or suffered himself to be driven, into the ranks of reaction.

If, as it is claimed—that I believe rightly so—for President Taft, that he sought to vanquish the reactionary elements in the republican party, then it is true that he has sadly failed, as is proved by the conspicuous and conspicuously unworthy leadership in the party of such men as William Barnes, Jr., President Taft has failed to withstand the pressure of reactionary influences because within the republican party these influences are dominant, commanding, irresistible.

What of the candidacy of Theodore Roosevelt, the nominee of the third party? Apart from the inevitable reluctance to accept any man as president of the nation for a longer term than that occupied by the founder of the republic, I believe that, while he once was needed in the life of the nation, he is needed no more.

When all is said and done, Roosevelt did most to bring about a wholesome sense of insecurity among those whose privilege had been the absorption of privileges, whose chief right had long been the unchecked doing of wrong. I have therefore no patience with the vituperation which is lavished upon Colonel Roosevelt and in which he, too, is fabled to indulge occasionally.

I shall support Woodrow Wilson for the presidency because I believe that, with the aid of a democratic congress, he will carry into effect the party pledges of tariff reform, and thus abate, if not abolish, the legalized oppressions, the state-sanctioned oppressions of the protective order. The democratic party under Woodrow Wilson may reasonably be expected to put an end to imperialist adventure abroad and to criminally corrupt extravagance at home.

The democratic party, spurning today the leadership which led to guilty complicity in the negotiations of the republican tariff adjusters, is become the valiant and uncompromising foe of a protective tariff, which protected chiefly the parties in the crooked alliance between big business and little politics, which protected and aggrandized the masters of industry and entrenched them in the almost unassailable strongholds of monopoly and privilege.

Governor Wilson is an illustration of the magnificent potentiality of the scholar in public life. When in the presence of Emerson, objection was raised to a certain leader in political life because he was a callow college doctrinaire, Emerson is said to have answered: "Better so than that we learn our duty from the callous politician or man of affairs. Let large issues of justice and humanity arise. No deference is to be shown to the man of the world; principles the scholar and the poet know better than he."

Are the universities to make no gift to the nation commensurate with the nation's fostering and generous care of its schools of learning? Woodrow Wilson has been a student and a scholar, but student in what field, scholar in what branches of learning? For a generation he has been a teacher of political history and the science of government, so that he may truly be said to have fitted himself for many years to grapple with the problems of government and administration. Truly it may be said of him, as it was said of an English historian by his biographer, his scholarship was to him as practical as his politics, and his politics as ethical as his faith. Thus his whole life was a

AID WILSON AND MARSHALL.

Progressive Republicans Organize to Aid Democratic Candidates.

New York, Sept. 24.—An active campaign to rouse up the sentiment among republicans for the election of Gov. Woodrow Wilson has been started in the east by the Wilson national progressive republican league, of which Rudolph Spreckels, of San Francisco, is president. New York headquarters has been opened in the Metropolitan Life Building, No. 1 Madison avenue, and other headquarters will be opened this week in Philadelphia, Boston and Washington. Mr. Spreckels has as his aides in the east Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, former chief chemist of the department of agriculture, and State Senator John J. Blaine, of Wisconsin, a leader in the progressive movement in his state.

The purpose of the league is to develop and crystallize the widespread sentiment among republicans who desire to throw their strength in the November election to a real progressive, regardless of party lines, as against the reactionary of the Taft type and the third-term idea. The dissatisfaction on the part of republicans in the west with the Taft administration and their opposition to the selfish ambition of Col. Roosevelt became so manifest months ago that Mr. Spreckels and his associates decided to launch the new progressive league.

The aim of the league, as summed up by Mr. Spreckels is to solidify the progressive sentiment in the republican ranks so as to center it on the election of a true progressive of the type of Gov. Wilson. Gov. Wilson's principles are entirely satisfactory to the members of the league and they believe his election will end the present abuses of government under the Taft administration.

The league's fight will be concentrated on those republican states in which the Taft machine and the third-term party forces are contending. Already in California, where the new movement was launched some weeks ago by Mr. Spreckels, a large number of republicans have been enrolled in the league, and indications are that this fusion with the democrats will land that state in the Wilson columns in November. In the middle west the league organization is being perfected by Senator Blaine, whose headquarters will be in Chicago. Dr. Wiley is expected to take the stump later, with the object of stirring up the Wilson sentiment among republicans in the north and west. It is probable that his tour will be under the auspices of the Wilson national progressive republican league.

$80,000,000.00 Lost Annually by Wage Earners.

Dr. Sadler estimates that about $80,000,000.00 in wages is lost annually to the American people as a direct result of colds. Lost time means lost wages and doctoring is expensive. Use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly. It will stop the cough, and heal and soothe the sore and inflamed air passages. —King-Crowell Drug Co.

Trouble at Foochow, China.

Washington, Sept. 24.—The American consul at Foochow, China, reports the situation there as extremely critical. It is reported the government is sending a large force of troops to remove the chief of police who is defying the central government, and threatens to destroy the city if attacked.

U. A. Smith, Bridgeton, Ind., had kidney trouble for years, and was so crippled with rheumatism he could not dress himself without help. He started using Foley Kidney Pills, and says: "I began to get better at once, and now all my trouble has left me and I do not feel that I ever had rheumatism. I rest well all night and the 59 years old, can now do the work of a man of 35 years. I would like to be the means of others getting benefit from Foley Kidney Pills." #### Motorcycle Race Stopped.

New York, Sept. 24.—The twenty-four-hour motorcycle race was stopped for two hours by the referee because of the distress of the riders. At the end of the tenth hour Jan Cox collapsed and was taken to a hospital. The physicians forbade his re-entering the race.

Mrs. J. N. Hill, Homer, Ga., has used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for years, and says she always recommends it to her friends. "It never fails to cure our coughs and colds and prevents croup. We have five children and always give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for a cold, and they are all soon well. We would not be without it in our house."—King-Crowell Drug Co.

Holland, like most European countries, insists upon religious training in the public schools, but her system is described as "omni-denominational." Definite religious instruction is given, but the children are not allowed to be separated according to "confessions." Sectarian schools exist, but they are essentially private institutions, and make no claim on the state for support.
