

To the Bereaved! Headstones, Monuments AND TOMBS, IN THE BEST OF MARBLE.

People Will Have New Goods, W. L. LONDON Will Keep Them.

HE KEEPS EVERYTHING And always keeps a Full Supply. He keeps the largest stock of FLOWERS, FLOW CASES, ENDS and FARMING IMPLEMENTS in the County.

CROCERIES! Sugars, Coffee, Tea, Cuba Molasses, Fine Syrups and Fancy Groceries.

DRY GOODS! Family Goods, such as Ribbons, Flowers, Laces, Veils, Hosiery, Corsets, Fans, Parasols, Umbrellas, Notions, Clothing.

HARDWARE, Tinware, Draps, Paints Mixed and Dry Oils, Crockery, Confectioneries.

SHOES! Very large stock boots. Hats for Men, Boys, Ladies and Children. Carriage Materials.

SEWING MACHINES Nails, Iron, Furniture, Chewing and Smoking Tobacco, Cigars, Snuff, Leather of all kinds, and a thousand other things at the CHEAP STORE! W. L. LONDON, FITTSBORO, N. C.

H. A. LONDON, Jr., Attorney at Law, PITTSBORO, N. C.

J. J. JACKSON, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, PITTSBORO, N. C.

CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK, OR RALEIGH, N. C.

J. D. WILLIAMS & CO., Grocers, Commission Merchants and Produce Buyers, FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE LIFE INSURANCE CO., OF RALEIGH, N. CAR.

The only Home Life Insurance Co. in the State.

H. A. LONDON, Jr., Gen. Agt. PITTSBORO, N. C.

JOHN MANNING, Attorney at Law, PITTSBORO, N. C.

Off for Boy-Land. He! All aboard! A traveler Sets sail from Baby-Land! If you my eye there comes a blur, But still I live my hand, And try to smile as off he goes, My honey, winsome boy! Yes, honey, you! God only knows How much I wish thee joy.

A WIFE'S SALVATION. A very pretty furnished sitting-room; singing birds in gilded cages, a plump Aurora cat on the velvet rug before the fire, a wise-looking pug stretched lazily on the living skirt of a pretty woman's pretty dress.

She Thought So. When Mrs. Corlelia Lingsstone entered the court-room from the corridor, leaning heavily on Bijah's left arm and holding up her collar train, she slightly resembled the picture of Lady Jane Grey.

Are Our Pine Forests Doomed? A correspondent who had been journeying along the Atlantic Coast States writes: It is the immense waste of timber, more than its legitimate use, that is so rapidly destroying the forests of long-leaf pine from the Potomac to the Mississippi.

An Underground Stream. Last week a negro, while digging a well on Mr. John Walter's place near Albany, Ga., began suddenly yelling out at the top of his voice for the bucket to be let down, which was quickly done, and the darkey was drawn up to the top of the well, trembling and panting, with eyes as white as cotton, and big as saucers.

Trying to Make the Conditions Equal. A sensational journal, first of the south and now of the north, is giving the rounds of the press, wants its readers to believe this instead: 'There is an enormous debt now pending in Boston, which bears several years ago. Mr. A., a bachelor, challenged Mr. B., a married man, with one child, who replied that he must necessarily put more at risk with his life than the other and he declined. A year afterward he received a challenge from Mr. A., who stated that, he too, had a wife and child, and he supposed, therefore, the objection of Mr. B., was no longer valid. Mr. B. replied that he now had two children, consequently the inequality still existed. The next year Mr. A. renewed his challenge, having now two children also, but his adversary had three. The matter, when last heard from, was still going on, the number being six to seven, and the challenge yearly renewed.'

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

And with a sudden sharp catching of the breath. Could any other man ever be the same to her as Charlie? Oh! she must not think of this. What is this? A bracelet to give her on the first anniversary of their marriage. No, she cannot take that. And her wedding ring! Yes, that must be left with the rest. Oh! she had not dreamed it would be so hard to part with the old love tokens. Even the despised Lelia caught up and kissed and cried over. And—what was she about to do? Yes, she was actually going to kiss the little white tily on the back of the sleep hollow where Charlie's head rested every night while he read the Spenser.

She thought So. When Mrs. Corlelia Lingsstone entered the court-room from the corridor, leaning heavily on Bijah's left arm and holding up her collar train, she slightly resembled the picture of Lady Jane Grey.

Are Our Pine Forests Doomed? A correspondent who had been journeying along the Atlantic Coast States writes: It is the immense waste of timber, more than its legitimate use, that is so rapidly destroying the forests of long-leaf pine from the Potomac to the Mississippi.

An Underground Stream. Last week a negro, while digging a well on Mr. John Walter's place near Albany, Ga., began suddenly yelling out at the top of his voice for the bucket to be let down, which was quickly done, and the darkey was drawn up to the top of the well, trembling and panting, with eyes as white as cotton, and big as saucers.

Trying to Make the Conditions Equal. A sensational journal, first of the south and now of the north, is giving the rounds of the press, wants its readers to believe this instead: 'There is an enormous debt now pending in Boston, which bears several years ago. Mr. A., a bachelor, challenged Mr. B., a married man, with one child, who replied that he must necessarily put more at risk with his life than the other and he declined. A year afterward he received a challenge from Mr. A., who stated that, he too, had a wife and child, and he supposed, therefore, the objection of Mr. B., was no longer valid. Mr. B. replied that he now had two children, consequently the inequality still existed. The next year Mr. A. renewed his challenge, having now two children also, but his adversary had three. The matter, when last heard from, was still going on, the number being six to seven, and the challenge yearly renewed.'

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

And with a sudden sharp catching of the breath. Could any other man ever be the same to her as Charlie? Oh! she must not think of this. What is this? A bracelet to give her on the first anniversary of their marriage. No, she cannot take that. And her wedding ring! Yes, that must be left with the rest. Oh! she had not dreamed it would be so hard to part with the old love tokens. Even the despised Lelia caught up and kissed and cried over. And—what was she about to do? Yes, she was actually going to kiss the little white tily on the back of the sleep hollow where Charlie's head rested every night while he read the Spenser.

She thought So. When Mrs. Corlelia Lingsstone entered the court-room from the corridor, leaning heavily on Bijah's left arm and holding up her collar train, she slightly resembled the picture of Lady Jane Grey.

Are Our Pine Forests Doomed? A correspondent who had been journeying along the Atlantic Coast States writes: It is the immense waste of timber, more than its legitimate use, that is so rapidly destroying the forests of long-leaf pine from the Potomac to the Mississippi.

An Underground Stream. Last week a negro, while digging a well on Mr. John Walter's place near Albany, Ga., began suddenly yelling out at the top of his voice for the bucket to be let down, which was quickly done, and the darkey was drawn up to the top of the well, trembling and panting, with eyes as white as cotton, and big as saucers.

Trying to Make the Conditions Equal. A sensational journal, first of the south and now of the north, is giving the rounds of the press, wants its readers to believe this instead: 'There is an enormous debt now pending in Boston, which bears several years ago. Mr. A., a bachelor, challenged Mr. B., a married man, with one child, who replied that he must necessarily put more at risk with his life than the other and he declined. A year afterward he received a challenge from Mr. A., who stated that, he too, had a wife and child, and he supposed, therefore, the objection of Mr. B., was no longer valid. Mr. B. replied that he now had two children, consequently the inequality still existed. The next year Mr. A. renewed his challenge, having now two children also, but his adversary had three. The matter, when last heard from, was still going on, the number being six to seven, and the challenge yearly renewed.'

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

And with a sudden sharp catching of the breath. Could any other man ever be the same to her as Charlie? Oh! she must not think of this. What is this? A bracelet to give her on the first anniversary of their marriage. No, she cannot take that. And her wedding ring! Yes, that must be left with the rest. Oh! she had not dreamed it would be so hard to part with the old love tokens. Even the despised Lelia caught up and kissed and cried over. And—what was she about to do? Yes, she was actually going to kiss the little white tily on the back of the sleep hollow where Charlie's head rested every night while he read the Spenser.

She thought So. When Mrs. Corlelia Lingsstone entered the court-room from the corridor, leaning heavily on Bijah's left arm and holding up her collar train, she slightly resembled the picture of Lady Jane Grey.

Are Our Pine Forests Doomed? A correspondent who had been journeying along the Atlantic Coast States writes: It is the immense waste of timber, more than its legitimate use, that is so rapidly destroying the forests of long-leaf pine from the Potomac to the Mississippi.

An Underground Stream. Last week a negro, while digging a well on Mr. John Walter's place near Albany, Ga., began suddenly yelling out at the top of his voice for the bucket to be let down, which was quickly done, and the darkey was drawn up to the top of the well, trembling and panting, with eyes as white as cotton, and big as saucers.

Trying to Make the Conditions Equal. A sensational journal, first of the south and now of the north, is giving the rounds of the press, wants its readers to believe this instead: 'There is an enormous debt now pending in Boston, which bears several years ago. Mr. A., a bachelor, challenged Mr. B., a married man, with one child, who replied that he must necessarily put more at risk with his life than the other and he declined. A year afterward he received a challenge from Mr. A., who stated that, he too, had a wife and child, and he supposed, therefore, the objection of Mr. B., was no longer valid. Mr. B. replied that he now had two children, consequently the inequality still existed. The next year Mr. A. renewed his challenge, having now two children also, but his adversary had three. The matter, when last heard from, was still going on, the number being six to seven, and the challenge yearly renewed.'

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

And with a sudden sharp catching of the breath. Could any other man ever be the same to her as Charlie? Oh! she must not think of this. What is this? A bracelet to give her on the first anniversary of their marriage. No, she cannot take that. And her wedding ring! Yes, that must be left with the rest. Oh! she had not dreamed it would be so hard to part with the old love tokens. Even the despised Lelia caught up and kissed and cried over. And—what was she about to do? Yes, she was actually going to kiss the little white tily on the back of the sleep hollow where Charlie's head rested every night while he read the Spenser.

She thought So. When Mrs. Corlelia Lingsstone entered the court-room from the corridor, leaning heavily on Bijah's left arm and holding up her collar train, she slightly resembled the picture of Lady Jane Grey.

Are Our Pine Forests Doomed? A correspondent who had been journeying along the Atlantic Coast States writes: It is the immense waste of timber, more than its legitimate use, that is so rapidly destroying the forests of long-leaf pine from the Potomac to the Mississippi.

An Underground Stream. Last week a negro, while digging a well on Mr. John Walter's place near Albany, Ga., began suddenly yelling out at the top of his voice for the bucket to be let down, which was quickly done, and the darkey was drawn up to the top of the well, trembling and panting, with eyes as white as cotton, and big as saucers.

Trying to Make the Conditions Equal. A sensational journal, first of the south and now of the north, is giving the rounds of the press, wants its readers to believe this instead: 'There is an enormous debt now pending in Boston, which bears several years ago. Mr. A., a bachelor, challenged Mr. B., a married man, with one child, who replied that he must necessarily put more at risk with his life than the other and he declined. A year afterward he received a challenge from Mr. A., who stated that, he too, had a wife and child, and he supposed, therefore, the objection of Mr. B., was no longer valid. Mr. B. replied that he now had two children, consequently the inequality still existed. The next year Mr. A. renewed his challenge, having now two children also, but his adversary had three. The matter, when last heard from, was still going on, the number being six to seven, and the challenge yearly renewed.'

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

And with a sudden sharp catching of the breath. Could any other man ever be the same to her as Charlie? Oh! she must not think of this. What is this? A bracelet to give her on the first anniversary of their marriage. No, she cannot take that. And her wedding ring! Yes, that must be left with the rest. Oh! she had not dreamed it would be so hard to part with the old love tokens. Even the despised Lelia caught up and kissed and cried over. And—what was she about to do? Yes, she was actually going to kiss the little white tily on the back of the sleep hollow where Charlie's head rested every night while he read the Spenser.

She thought So. When Mrs. Corlelia Lingsstone entered the court-room from the corridor, leaning heavily on Bijah's left arm and holding up her collar train, she slightly resembled the picture of Lady Jane Grey.

Are Our Pine Forests Doomed? A correspondent who had been journeying along the Atlantic Coast States writes: It is the immense waste of timber, more than its legitimate use, that is so rapidly destroying the forests of long-leaf pine from the Potomac to the Mississippi.

An Underground Stream. Last week a negro, while digging a well on Mr. John Walter's place near Albany, Ga., began suddenly yelling out at the top of his voice for the bucket to be let down, which was quickly done, and the darkey was drawn up to the top of the well, trembling and panting, with eyes as white as cotton, and big as saucers.

Trying to Make the Conditions Equal. A sensational journal, first of the south and now of the north, is giving the rounds of the press, wants its readers to believe this instead: 'There is an enormous debt now pending in Boston, which bears several years ago. Mr. A., a bachelor, challenged Mr. B., a married man, with one child, who replied that he must necessarily put more at risk with his life than the other and he declined. A year afterward he received a challenge from Mr. A., who stated that, he too, had a wife and child, and he supposed, therefore, the objection of Mr. B., was no longer valid. Mr. B. replied that he now had two children, consequently the inequality still existed. The next year Mr. A. renewed his challenge, having now two children also, but his adversary had three. The matter, when last heard from, was still going on, the number being six to seven, and the challenge yearly renewed.'

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.

It is stated that Sir Moses Montefiore is beginning his plans for the restoration of the Jews to Palestine. The land in front of the 'Judah Torah houses' is to be prepared for cultivation. The rocks will be removed, terraces built, as in Solomon's time, a large cistern constructed for supplying water, and a beautiful veranda placed in front of all the houses. Various other arrangements will be made to promote the comfort of inmates of the dwellings.