

LOCAL RECORDS.

Advise your neighbor to take the Record, and read what the Legislature is doing.

Subscribe for the Record during the session of the Legislature and thus learn what our law makers are doing.

When you come to court next week, be sure to call on Shaw & Harris, they will sell you as good goods as any one, and as cheap as they can be bought anywhere.

When you come to Pittboro' be sure to give W. L. London a call. He has the largest, best and cheapest stock in the place.

If you need any groceries you can find all kinds at London's, sugar, coffee, tea, canned goods of all kinds.

Almost a Murder. One day last week Andrew Benton Wilson dangerously, if not fatally, stabbed William Deaton.

Runaway Accident. We regret to learn that Mrs. Mary Lawrence, of Buckhorn township, was recently thrown from a buggy and severely injured.

Phenomenon of Nature. We are informed by Mr. William Henley, of Albright township, that, on the night of the 5th inst., there was a brilliant flash of lightning in his neighborhood followed by a loud report of thunder.

Somebody's Negligence. On last Tuesday no Raleigh papers were received at this place, which was a great disappointment to many persons.

Killing Robins. For the past week the robin-hunters have had fine sport. Every night everybody, white and black, who could get a gun has been killing robins.

Railroad Fare Reduced. We are pleased to learn that round trip tickets are now issued from the several stations on the Raleigh & Augusta Air-line Railroad at 34 cents.

Two Children Burnt. A sad burning occurred in this county a few days ago. A negro woman named Fanny Bray, left her two children—one two years old and the other four—in the cabin while she went off for a short time.

Inferior Court. The Inferior Court of this county will be held next week. We know of no case of any special interest that will be tried.

We would suggest that it is a good time to pay subscriptions to the Record, and hope the suggestion will be acted on.

Sudden Death. We regret to hear of the sudden death of Miss Maria L. Spears near Chapel Hill, on the 5th inst.

Bad Roads. The condition of our roads is about as bad as can be, indeed almost as bad as the streets of Raleigh.

Chatham Complimented. Chatham county has been particularly complimented by the positions assigned her members of the Legislature on the different committees.

In the Senate Mr. Merritt is chairman of two committees—Education and Library—that on Education being second in importance to none.

Cotton Factories. We take pleasure in calling attention to the letter of our esteemed correspondent, "Guilielmus," and heartily approve his suggestion in regard to building cotton factories in our county.

CORRESPONDENCE

CANE CREEK, Chatham Co., N. C., Jan. 1, 1881. Editor Record: Winter's bleak weather is now upon us, the thermometer ranging below zero.

One thing that gives us hope, is the position our commissioners have taken on the liquor license question, for which I hope a large majority of the good people of Chatham county will honor and respect them.

On the 12th inst., at the residence of her son, George W. Poe esq., in the city of Raleigh, Mrs. MARY A. PHILLIPS, formerly of Pittsboro'.

Notice is hereby given that application will be made to the next General Assembly of the State of North Carolina for a charter to build a Railroad from some point in Caswell county, in a South-eastern direction along the valley of Haw River.

The citizens of Chatham are respectfully informed that I keep the largest and best stock of Tombstones, &c., in the State, and am selling at greatly reduced prices.
