Large Hog.

Mr. A. J. Holt, of this county, has killed the largest hog that we have yet heard of in Chatham, though not as large as that 1400 pound hog said to have been killed in another county. Mr. Holt's hog was two years and five months old, and weighed 619 pounds.

A Cold Wave.

An unusually protracted cold spell has recently visited us. A New Court House.

It is with much pleasure that we are able to announce that there is a probability of our having a new and decent court house in Chatham. At held this week a petition was presen ted, signed by a large number of the citizens of the county, asking them to request our members of the Legisla ture to secure the passage of a bill authorizing the issuing of county bonds with which to build a new court house. The commissioners unanimously agreed to accede to the request of the petitioners, and adopted a resolution asking the passage of a bill authorizing the issuing of bonds by the county to an amount not exceeding $12,000, to draw interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, and to be paid in six years, the interest and one sixth of the principal to be paid annually. Another Warning.

Again has the fire fiend visited one of North Carolina's towns, and in a very unpromising. London's. Will receive this week a Plymouth has been burned. Thus far our little town has escaped the fate of so many of its neighbors, but do we take warning from them? What means have we for suppressing a fire in our town? Not any whatever: absolutely nothing! And yet we supinely await the fate that has befallen so many others. Can we not organize some kind of a fire company?
