

The Chatham Record.

VOL. IV.

PITTSBORO', CHATHAM CO., N. C., FEBRUARY 2, 1882.

NO. 21.

A Tomboy. She comes! she comes! with song and glad she leads her train of lawn and lace!

PORK AND POTATOES.

There was little of rhyme or reason in the monotonous reiteration of these homely words, yet they had their designed effect, for in the course of time the wide-eyed baby in the woman's lap began to nod a drowsy approval, and at last fell into an uneasy slumber.

cat, and it was her birthday, their wedding anniversary. The door opened, and John came in; not the fine, spruce young man who smiled on her so proudly four years ago, but a sallow man in dirty overalls, with shabbiness written all over his clothes, and care all over his face.

sacred to the memory of former sorrows. The fire was out, and the hearth was dark. A moment later, and a glad flame leaped and sparkled, the sleeping baby was left to his fate while his mother converted a few hoarded silver pieces that were to have bought her a dress into tea, sugar, crackers, hot rolls, and, while the fit of reckless expenditure was strong upon her, a pint of cranberries for old times' sake.

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD. Green Food for Fowls. Every breeder should see that his fowls are provided with green food for winter use. Fowls as well as other animals require a certain amount of coarse and refuse matter to keep them free from constipation, indigestion and other kindred complaints.

FOR THE FAIR SEX. Fashion Flashes. Red satin fans are popular for day receptions. Feathers supersede flowers in head-dresses. Dress-covered pedestals are effective for statuary.

Wonderful Strength of Insects. "If you want to see muscle," a New York naturalist said, "take a glance through this glass," pointing to a seat before a powerful microscope. The drop of Croton water was fairly alive with little round or oval bodies.

A Difficult Matter. She was a maiden fit to see, In fact a maiden passing fair. And all the dearest thing to me, Was her great wealth of golden hair.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A great revival is in progress in the Hawaiian Islands. The missionaries say there has been nothing like it since the revival of 1838. Miss Eliza Newell, daughter of ex-Governor Newell, of New Jersey, now governor of Washington Territory, has been appointed territorial librarian by the legislature.