Go to Byrum & Headen's for Apples and Peach Peckers. Georgia Stocks and Double-Shovel Plows on hand.

Our esteemed young friend, Mr. J. D. Mann, will open the Rock Road Academy on the 25th of July, and will do all to sustain the reputation of that institution.

The attention of our farmers is called to the advertisement of L. L. Polk & Co. Save your fruit by buying some of their pumps, evaporators, &c. They keep an immense stock of all kinds of improved machinery.

Bargains in Ready-made Clothing. You will find at London's a large stock of Alpaca and Linen Dusters and Coats, nice White Vests for 75 cents. Splendid stock of Gingham, Shirts, best Unlaundered Shirts in the market, Ladies' Shippers, Gents' Low Shoes, Fans of every style, Parasols and Umbrellas very cheap.

Now the splendid wheat crop has been harvested when you come to Pittsboro' be sure and call at London's and see his splendid stock of goods. He is offering special inducements for cash—has a large stock of Straw Hats which will be sold at New York Wholesale prices for cash. Also a lot of Ladies' Hats, Flowers and other Millinery Goods at greatly reduced prices.

You can find the genuine Brown Malta Double Shovel Plow, with patent Clevis, at Shaw & Harris. Also the largest stock of Tinware in the place. They have just received a large stock of North Carolina made Segars—the best in the market. They have made a reduction on their Cotton Hoes to close them out. If you have wool to sell Shaw & Harris will give you the best prices.

POWELLSON VINE.—We are informed by Mr. P. P. Thompson that one of his neighbors has a potato vine that has 16 well formed potatoes on it, being well at the joints.

A LARGE ONION.—Mr. Jas. L. Fields, of Gulf township, has sent us an onion that measures thirteen inches in circumference, and yet it is only the average size of a lot of five bushels raised by him.

FIRST COTTON BLOSSOM.—We are enabled this year to announce the first cotton blossom earlier than usual, as Mr. H. K. Dorsett, of Matthews township, informs us that he had blossoms on the 12th of this month.

A LARGE POTATO.—The largest Irish potato, that we have seen or heard of this year, was sent us last week by Mr. W. A. Ellington, of this county. It weighed one pound and three ounces. Who can beat it?

HUNG HIMSELF.—On the 10th inst. Mr. John Burroughs, of Bear Creek township, committed suicide by hanging himself. About two weeks previous his wife had died, which affliction deranged his mind and caused him to take his own life.

GOOD WHEAT AND OATS.—The largest and best filled heads of wheat and oats, that we have seen this year, have been sent us by Mr. W. A. Bayler, of Gulf township. They are remarkable specimens. The stalk of oats measured an inch and a half in circumference.

CHILD FATALEY SCALDED.—The little six year old son of Mr. King, of New Hope township, met with a horrible death, on last Saturday. He was sitting in a chair near a pot of boiling water, into which he accidentally fell and was scalded so badly that he died soon thereafter.

LARGE VEGETABLES.—The largest beets, onions and potatoes, that we have seen this year, were brought to us a few days ago by Mr. John T. Farrell, the kind hearted superintendent of our county poor house. We measured one of the beets and it was seventeen inches in circumference. What can beat that beet? If Mr. Farrell feeds his paupers on such vegetables they certainly have no cause to complain of their fare.

ENCOURAGE OUR YOUNG MEN.—We take pleasure in calling attention to the professional card of our young townsman, Dr. John M. Manning. Unfortunately for North Carolina, and for this county especially, too many of our best young men move away and seek their fortunes elsewhere, so that it is with much pleasure we note that Dr. Manning will remain among the people of his native county. Let us encourage our young men to remain with us.

INFERIOR COURT JURORS.—At the last meeting of the county commissioners the following persons were drawn as jurors for the July term of our inferior court, viz: George Glosson, R. W. Dixon, W. F. Wynne, Ransom Lambeth, C. D. Poe, Calvin Siler, W. W. Brady, L. H. Dowdy, E. M. Beay, J. W. Holloman, William Deaton, John W. Whitehead, Benjamin Williams, J. H. Dark, William Moore, Sr., R. G. Eubanks, B. N. Mann, A. J. Burns, J. T. Brooks, John W. Beckner, Robert Poe, A. W. Leonard, I. S. Nalle, P. M. Pearson, W. E. Boudinot, A. H. Merritt, Marion Perry, R. F. Cook, J. C. Jones, and Harman Sears.

A BOUNTIFUL HARVEST.—The harvest is about over, and a most bountiful one it is. All the wheat has been cut and the hum of immemorial threshers will soon be heard resounding o'er hill and vale. Nearly all the oats has also been cut, so that man and beast can now have plenty to eat. During the past winter and spring our people have had scant allowance for themselves and their stock, indeed it was only by the closest economy that actual starvation was avoided, but now with so abundant a yield of wheat and oats, plenty once more "smiles o'er a happy land." An abundant amount of fruit is also enjoyed by our people and vegetables were never more abundant, so that we may term this a year of plenty. If there ever was a year when a plenty was needed, surely it is this.

TOWNSHIP MEETINGS.—We would remind the democrats of Chatham that, at 3 o'clock next Saturday afternoon (the 24th of June), the several townships will hold meetings to appoint delegates to attend the county convention that is called to meet here on the following Wednesday. Each township may send as many delegates as it wishes; but will be entitled to vote in the county convention only according to its democratic strength. These are important meetings and we hope they will be largely attended. The county convention will appoint delegates to represent Chatham in the State, Congressional, Judicial, and Senatorial conventions, so that, if you have any choice as to who should be nominated by any of these conventions, be sure to attend your township meeting and express your wishes. Don't stay away, and then complain about the nominations.

THE BISHOP'S VISITATION.—The arrival of a bishop in a country village is quite an event, and so the recent visitation of Bishop Lyman to this place was an occasion of more than ordinary interest. He preached here and administered the rite of confirmation, on last Sunday, in the Episcopal church in the morning and at the colored mission in the afternoon. He preached without notes to a crowded congregation, composed of different denominations, and his sermon gave universal satisfaction, being one of the best that we have ever heard, and was forcibly and impressively delivered. He confirmed eight whites and eight blacks. On Sunday night a large congregation enjoyed a sermon delivered by Rev. Dr. Marshall, who has been and resides in this place, but is now the beloved pastor of Christ church at Raleigh. He is justly considered one of the most eloquent ministers in the State. Bishop Lyman will again visit this county and preach at the Gulf, on Sunday the 9th day of July.

"Saxapahaw" River.

It seems quite remarkable that there should exist any doubt as to what river the Indians called "Saxapahaw," and yet there is much uncertainty. We recently referred to a statement made by Mr. E. J. Hale in one of his letters to the Fayetteville Examiner, wherein he said that the Indians had given this name to what is now the Cape Fear river. In a subsequent letter he says: "My friend of the Pittsboro' Brown questions the accuracy of my statement, founded upon Dr. Brickell's History of North Carolina, that the Indian name of the Cape Fear was Saxapahaw, and he cites Lawson's History, published 25 years before Brickell's, to show that Saxapahaw was the Indian name for Hay river, and Sapaha the Indian name for Deep river. Since the receipt of the History, my friend who consulted Brickell at the Aston Library has again examined it and has furnished me with the lines of the rivers as laid down on a map, down to the junction (now Haywood), and I find that along the line of the Western river (Deep river) are the words "Saxapahaw or Cape Fear river." (Saxapahaw not Saxapahaw.) Which is right, Lawson or Brickell, I have no means of determining, but probably the records of Chatham and Orange counties may show.

If any of our readers has any information that would throw any light on this mooted question we would be pleased to hear from them. The records of this county furnish no information, as they do not go back earlier than 1770; the year when Chatham was organized. We find it to be the general belief of all our old citizens (gathered doubtless from tradition) that "Saxapahaw" was the Indian name for our Hay river, and we are inclined to think that Lawson was correct. As early as the year 1701 he travelled on foot through this country, was afterwards Surveyor-General of the Province, and ought to have known whereof he wrote.

Gilmer for Judge.

EDITOR RECORD: As the judicial convention will soon be held, it is pertinent to ask what will Chatham do about it? Does she wish Judge Gilmer to be his own successor? If not, why not? It seems to me that every consideration of policy and justice demands this. Two years ago, the convention at Durham, endorsed and confirmed the wisdom of Gov. Jarvis' appointment, and that too over some of the best lawyers in the State. Since that time Judge Gilmer has conducted the business of our courts with the utmost acceptability to the bar and to clients. Unfortunately he has not had the opportunity to preside in a single court in his own district. But, if we can believe the unanimous testimony of those who have seen him upon the bench, no judge in the State has acquitted himself with more honor. By consent of all, he is a pure man and a christian gentleman. As a judge he is firm, prompt, patient, courteous and incorruptible—just such qualities as have made the judiciary of North Carolina illustrious. Judge Gilmer was a gallant soldier, and has both done and suffered much in defence of his country, but modest man that he is, his patriotism is to be judged by his works and not by his conversation. Let Chatham do herself the credit of standing square and firm for John A. Gilmer for Judge; for if this tried and true man and able judge, should be set aside for one who might prove himself to be peevish, petulant, partial, and less worthy, it would not be well for the State, nor in accordance with the earnest wishes of many democrats of CENTRAL CHATHAM.

Long for Solicitor.

MR. EDITOR: How can the democrats of this district better show their appreciation of the manhood of Jacob A. Long, of Caswell, than to give him the nomination for Solicitor? He is a native of our neighboring county of Alamance, a genial, popular and wholesome gentleman, and withal a good lawyer; and as a prosecuting officer will command the respect and admiration of all. He has shown his devotion to democracy by being the only democrat tendered a nomination by the late "assistant and Republican convention" who fathly refused to allow his name to be used.

A Visit to Richmond.

PITTSBORO', N. C., June 16, 1882. EDITOR RECORD: Having just returned from a visit to Richmond county, perhaps a few items might be of some interest to some of your readers. The larger part of Richmond county, as you perhaps know, is inhabited by people of Scotch descent, and a more hospitable people cannot be found any where. What they have is at your service, and they usually have in abundance. The prospect for good crops is encouraging. Cotton is small, it is true, but there is a usually good stand, and when the weather turns warmer it will grow off and give its usual abundant yield. The prospect for good corn crops is especially good. We saw large fields of corn waist high, yet it is said by some that the soil there is not adapted to corn raising; we think differently. Harvest in that part of the world is a thing of the past, everybody having reaped their crops of small grain and many of them have had their wheat threshed out. I was told that the yield of wheat was good, indeed better than it has been for many years. I do not wish to be severe on our Chatham friends, but certainly there is not as much enterprise among the farmers here as there.

During our stay in Richmond we attended two very interesting debates, and while both sides of the question were ably discussed on each occasion, and while there are certainly some fine speakers belonging to the Society at Oak Lawn; yet they must not presume to compete with old Chatham; by this you may infer that the Chatham side was on the successful side each time and, of course, claims part of the honors.

On Sunday, the 11th, we attended St. John's church which was made a station at the last annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South. We found it filled to its utmost capacity (and it is a very large church) with bro. T. W. Guthrie (than whom there is not a more eloquent preacher in the State) in the pulpit, yet he did not preach, but his place was ably filled by bro. F. B. McGill of the N. C. Conference. Bro. McGill preached a fine sermon. His theme was "Moral Courage," and he handled the subject well.

After enjoying ourselves with those good people for more than a week—feasting on good things—we, on Thursday night the 13th, boarded the train for our home in Chatham, where we renew the battle for that living which we believe the world owes us. A CHATHAMITE.

State News.

Winston Leader: A watch passed through the mails Tuesday last that was mailed in New Mexico and came all the way with remarkable safety. It was a gold watch with open face and mailed in an ordinary envelope. The envelope was greatly worn by much handling.

Montgomery Star: Harvest is far vernaly progressing and the farmer are happy over the bountiful harvest. Montgomery never had finer wheat and more abundant fruit crops. A negro boy was drowned in Russia's mill pond, near Sulphur Springs, in this county, last week. He was in bathing and was alone. It is thought that he was seized with cramp and could not reach the bank.

Elizabeth City Economist: Thos. Williams, who lives near Carrutuck Court House, dug on Monday, June 5, 54 barrels of good Irish potatoes from a piece of ground, 1 of an acre, by actual measurement, which he sold in Norfolk for $307.47 net after deducting expenses. Besides the good potatoes there were three barrels of "cubs." The land was a sandy beam, manured with guano made into compost. They were planted early in March.

Wilmington Star: Mr. H. I. McDuffie has sold the Lumburg Enterprise to Mr. J. C. Troy. The paper under the new management will advocate the Radical nominations just made at Raleigh. It calls itself "Laborer," and talks of "Bourbon Democracy."—We learn that a colored woman by the name of Hall, died a few days ago, at an appearance, and the family and friends were making the necessary preparations for her burial when she suddenly showed manifestations of a return to life, and at last accounts she was still living. A gentleman showed us a very old coin yesterday which was picked up from the streets by a colored boy. Its date is 1652.—We learn from Capt.

David Sherman, of the steamer John Dawson, that Mrs. Geo. W. Corbett, of Callie Creek, Pender county, went fishing on Saturday last, taking with her two of her little boys. Upon the approach of the storm, about 5 p. m., she called her children and started for home, and had reached a point within two hundred yards of her gate, when she looked back and saw one of her children and a little colored boy coming through a swamp. Having no misgivings of anything being wrong, she gave no more attention to them until about one hour later. The storm had then ceased and little George, about 8 years of age, was found to be missing. Immediately a search was commenced and continued throughout the night, but without avail.

Charlotte Observer: A little negro boy, aged about fifteen years, was yesterday lodged in jail at Concord, on the charge of trying to poison the family of Mr. Jacob Stireswalt, at Mill Hill, in Cabarrus county. For several days none of Mr. Stireswalt's family could drink the coffee placed on their table, on account of its unpleasant taste, and strong suspicions pointed to this boy who was arrested and a quantity of strychnine was found on his person.

News & Observer, 20th: We had two storms yesterday, the last one which came about 7 o'clock in the evening, being very threatening, but its centre was north of us. Mr. Richard Battle, who came in on the train, says the wind did considerable damage on the line of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, at Neuse and beyond. The fences were leveled and the crops evidently injured by its violence. South of the city a storm raged in the afternoon and at other last night, and no doubt both did damage. The electrical display was the grandest this season.

Goldsboro' Messenger: Mr. Harris Waters, of Onslow, was married last week, and lived only four days after his marriage, dying of heart disease.—A young man named John Burnum, aged 25 years living near this city, was drowned in the Neuse yesterday morning while bathing.—Extensive iron furnaces or smelting works are to be located on the banks of the Neuse near this city, by a company composed of Gen. Hoke, Hon. R. R. Bridgers and others, now operating a valuable iron mine near Chapel Hill, from whence the iron ore is to be brought here.

Tuisant Sunny Home: There is a farmer in Gardner township whose example of economy is worthy of notice and whose idea of home industry is of some practical value. In the month of January he purchased a side of meat weighing about 34 lbs. with which to supply his household for the year. He stated that he had been using from this meat since January, and in the meantime had rationed a laborer six days. Desiring to know the loss the meat had sustained he weighed it the other day and found that 11 lbs. had been used. The advance in prices will have no effect on him, as he has a plenty to last the remainder of the year. This man has a good crop, has given no mortgage, but expects to have money to spare this fall. We do not doubt it.

Statesville Landmark: A few days ago some hungry dogs got into a flock of sheep owned by Mr. Arch Brady, of Shiloh, and cleaned them out. Of course there was a dog killing afterwards, but what does that amount to? Last year Mr. R. C. Platt, of Shiloh, had a flock of some twenty nice sheep. He has none now. Dogs killed every one of them. And yet, the real value of these sheep was greater than that of all the dogs in the State.—Mr. C. L. Poston, of this place, joined a matrimonial guild last year. A few months ago he married. He had paid to the guild $20, and a few days since he received his premium, amounting to $122.50. Upon the merits of the case marrying beats dying, and an insurance against marriage has its advantages over an insurance against death, since in this case a fellow can both eat his cake and have it.

Fayetteville Examiner: A colored man by the name of William Marsh, in the employment of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway was badly injured on Tuesday last (13th) near Little River. He was at work on the track at that point and went between an engine and a gravel car for the purpose of coupling them, when he was caught and severely mangled. On the same day, as the train which brought Marsh, the injured man, down to this place, was returning towards Little River, the engine ran off the track above McClellan's cut, about ten miles from this place, and John Monaghan, the engineer, in jumping from the engine, got his foot badly injured.—On Monday last Mr. Alexander Graham, the Principal of the Fayetteville Graded School, left this place in company with several of his pupils, bound for the University, where the latter will make application for admission. Among them are two young ladies, and Mr. Graham proposes to test their preparation for the University. Should they pass the examination and become students there, he will be entitled to the credit of having pioneered this new departure in the educational programme of the University.

[We learn that the two ladies successfully stood their examinations at the University, but do not intend to enter college, having been examined simply to test their ability to pass the examinations.—Ed. Record.]

The best friend a sewing woman can have is the Pennsylvania Singer Sewing Machine and WILKETS & Co. sell it for Twenty Dollars. Last week five expectations to ask place under Judge Lynch.

A rising in Ireland is feared. Guards and sentries all over the country have been doubled.

Salem Female Academy celebrated its 78th annual commencement last week, being the oldest female school in the State.

William H. Vanderbilt and seven married children will soon be living on Fifth avenue, New York, in houses costing nearly eight millions of dollars.

The President has approved the sentence of the court martial dismissing from the army Lieutenant Flipper, the negro officer convicted of embezzlement.

On last Sunday a terrific tornado swept through a portion of Iowa and Kansas, killing over 100 persons, wounding over 200, and destroying a vast amount of property.

Money for a Rainy Day.

"For six years my daughter was sick from kidney and other disorders. We had used up our savings on doctors, when our dominion advised us to try Parker's Ginger Tonic. Four bottles effected a cure, and as a dollar's worth has kept our family well over a year, we have been able to lay by money again for a rainy."—A Poor Man's Wife.

No Whiskey! BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

The President has approved the sentence of the court martial dismissing from the army Lieutenant Flipper, the negro officer convicted of embezzlement.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is guaranteed to be a non-intoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. Rice, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

Cin., O., Nov. 16, 1881. Gents:—The foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.
