

A Discourse held at Franklin, on last Saturday, between Gov. Jarvis and Messrs. A. Blodson and J. W. H. ...

Boston Exposition. A large crowd of persons attended the fair and much interest was manifested.

OUR EUROPEAN LETTER.

Our readers will remember with much pleasure the very interesting letters published a year ago in the Record that were written from Europe by our young townsman, Mr. James S. Manning.

We now have the pleasure of beginning the publication of a series of other letters from Europe written by another young North Carolinian, who is now visiting the "old country."

Scotland and Canadians together. The lines of demarcation were very clearly drawn all the while and prevented anything like unity of action for the purpose of looking after our interests.

History Mountain, Aug. 25, '92. Mr. Editor: As many of my friends have declined me for withdrawing my name from the National Convention, I have been thinking of you.

I would not encourage the distillation of whiskey, but I do say, let there be no discrimination in favor of classes.

Mr. Editor: As many of my friends have declined me for withdrawing my name from the National Convention, I have been thinking of you.

That is what a great many people are doing. They don't know just what is the matter, but they have a combination of pains and aches, and each month they grow worse.

The only sure remedy yet found is Brown's Iron Bitters, and this by rapid and thorough assimilation with the blood purifies and enriches it.
