The two candidates for the office of Judge of this district were democratic members of the Senate in 1914, and noted as Judges in the High Court of Impeachment that the Grand Jury of Gov. Holden. We possess commoning their conduct in that year, 1914, and will show that a common sense impartial and unprejudiced Judge while Edward is not a common sense and by his measure drive a scandal out of the courts in Three were right if they had known on which Holden was tried. He was acquitted on the first two trials convicted on the others. Among those who voted "not guilty" on the first trial was John A. Gilmer, while L. C. Edwards is a Republican. But den had made himself very odious to the democrats, but not unliking this when he was in office, and as an unprejudiced judge and voted according to the dictates of his conscience in opposition to a majority of the democratic members. He had the moral courage to stand up for the law to cast aside political prejudices and partisan bias, and such is commendable in a Judge. But how did Edwards act? As before stated he actually drove Holden from the court room! On the night of the trial the Senator Edwards, acting as a Judge, so grossly insulted Holden, that he abruptly retired, stating to the Court that he did not mean to stay to be insulted, and he never returned his appearance that Court although the trial continued for some days. Day after day the trial continued and yet Holden would not appear before the Court to answer one of the charges had been framed and that Judge now calls upon the old "drunken" Republicans to raise him a salute of your Superior Court!

A Judge should be free to administer justice and pass on the merits of the cases and should not be less than a fair and impartial administrator of the law. Mr. Edwards, in his conduct of the trial, acted as a party man, and not as a Judge. He should have been free to administer justice and pass on the merits of the cases and should not be less than a fair and impartial administrator of the law.
