

The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1882.

LOCAL RECORDS.

Constables' tickets printed and at Ransom office.

Remember that the election will hold on Tuesday, the 7th day of November.

Do our colored people wish to be "got rid of," and foreigners brought in their place? If not, then don't vote for Dr. Faust.

Neither Faust, Headen or Wick will deny that they will vote for Dr. Mott, if they are elected. Do you want Mott as your Senator?

F. N. Strickland, esq., and others will speak at Biggabees's Store, on Saturday, the 4th of November. Speaking will begin at half past 12 o'clock. Rally up!

Shaw & Harris are closing out their business, preparatory to a change, and request that all who are indebted to them will come forward and settle immediately.

When "Devereux's" candidate was so warm in his denunciation of the late prohibitory bill, let it be remembered that he signed one of the petitions to the last Legislature that accompanied the passage of that bill!

For sale—a tract of land two miles from Pittsboro, containing 121 acres, of which 35 are cleared and balance well timbered. Good building terms. Terms easy. Apply to Joseph E. Embanks, or W. L. London.

When a man once gets his neighbors into trouble and keeps himself, they are not apt to trust him again. For this reason the people of Chatham will not vote for the new candidate, sergeant Headen, but of all the home guard.

Holiday Post. Mr. J. A. Hornaday having taken into copartnership C. H. Heyndry, lately of Troy, one of the best woodwork men in the State, expects to make wagons, buggies, etc. Repairing of all kinds done neatly, substantially, and on short notice.

The election will be held on the 7th of November. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. London's New Goods are here. He has just received a splendid stock of Ready-made Clothing. Would call your especial attention to his stock of Overcoats as the finest and cheapest he has ever had—his stock of Men's and Ladies' Underwear is very large. If you have rheumatism try some of his Medicated Chamomile. Large stock of Boots and Shoes.

New Goods! Bryanna Headen are now receiving their stock of Fall and Winter Goods, consisting of a full stock of almost everything needed—a first-class store on the line of Ladies' Cloaks, Ladies' Hats, and Gloves, and they will find Mrs. Headen ready to dress them up in the latest style. Give us a call and we have no doubt you can be suited.

London is now and will receive this week a very large, fine stock of Ladies' Dress Goods, such as cashmere, flannel, All-wool flannel, etc., at very low prices. These goods have been bought very low for each and she intends giving his customers the full advantages of the bargains. His third stock of prints will arrive the week after next. Call soon if you want to see something pretty and cheap.

A CORNERS CHAMBERS.—Mr. Thomas Kelly, of Williamston, has sold this year a cotton mill, that has 14 locks on it.

A TALL STALK.—Mr. J. A. Parcham, of Lockville, has a cotton stalk that is 9 feet and 10 inches tall. He asks how is that for high?

Faust, Headen and Wick are really opposed to the revenue system, why do the revenue officers electeer so much for them?

Fraser Frost.—The first frost of the season in this section fell yesterday morning, and it was quite a heavy one. Frost was rather later than usual this year. It will be remembered that last year a very destructive frost fell on the 6th of October.

PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT.—On last Monday night Mr. Fred. Page and wife, two blind musicians, gave a musical entertainment at this place. Their comic songs made "the small boy" fairly howl, and the old folks smiled quite audible.

Let the colored voters remember that Dr. Faust said, "THE NIGER SNEEZES TOO STRONG GET RID OF HIM AND ENJOY FOREVER LABOR."

KILLED BY A MULE.—A colored boy named Forrest Cotten, of Baldwin township, was thrown by a mule yesterday morning, and he was quite a heavy one. He was rather later than usual this year. It will be remembered that last year a very destructive frost fell on the 6th of October.

As it is customary to call persons by the title they bore in the late war we must honor the revenue, can dilute with his title of sergeant, for was he not commission sergeant of the home guard? Turn out the guard and salute sergeant Headen!

ANOTHER OLD CHAIR.—Our old friend John Newlin, of Hadley township, has a chair that is considerably over a hundred years old, and still has the same bottom in it that was first put in. It formerly belonged to the Braxton family and was brought here before the Revolutionary war.

Every vote given for Faust, Headen or Wick is a vote to place the Young or Dr. Mott in the United States Senate in the place of Ransom!

Mass Meetings.—We are pleased to announce that there will be a mass meeting at Godwin's Store, in New Hope township, on Saturday the 11th day of November. Prominent speakers from abroad have been invited to address the meeting, and a good time is expected. As that will be the last meeting of the campaign let's have a grand rally!

Do our colored people wish to be "got rid of," and foreigners brought in their place? If not, then don't vote for Dr. Faust.

Neither Faust, Headen or Wick will deny that they will vote for Dr. Mott, if they are elected. Do you want Mott as your Senator?

F. N. Strickland, esq., and others will speak at Biggabees's Store, on Saturday, the 4th of November. Speaking will begin at half past 12 o'clock. Rally up!

Shaw & Harris are closing out their business, preparatory to a change, and request that all who are indebted to them will come forward and settle immediately.

When "Devereux's" candidate was so warm in his denunciation of the late prohibitory bill, let it be remembered that he signed one of the petitions to the last Legislature that accompanied the passage of that bill!

THE COUNTY CANVASS.—As the day of election draws nearer the county canvass grows warmer and policies become more exciting. We attended the meeting at Faison on Tuesday and at Fearington's yesterday, and were pleased to see such orderly and sober crowds, and everywhere the democrats seem anxious and determined to do their duty. Senator Strickland joined the canvass yesterday, and will remain to the close of all the work and also speak at Biggabees's Store on Saturday evening. The election has passed yesterday, and was held with particular regularity, devoid of all character from whence they came, and seeming with bated breath to our people, they did their work effectively. So intolerable did the republican party become to our people, they rose in their might in 1870, and at an election held for members of the General Assembly two-thirds of both houses were chosen from the democratic party. From that till now the democrats have had control of the legislative department of the State, our taxes have been laid and collected under their direction, and whatever of character we may have as a people or as a State we owe it to the democratic party. Our colored and freedmen are particularly anxious for their freedom and independence, and though our country has been given them, we have not yet been made worth our own. This is like the legislation proposed upon us, and to-day, the pride of all fair and honest citizens; and no one can deny that the peace and prosperity that now reigns throughout the State is the glorious heritage of the grand old democratic party. Our cities have been numbered, our houses have been built in every manner, and taxes have been levied, collected and expended in their education, the results of which augurs for the standard of moral and intellectual culture hitherto unknown in our history. Long lines of railroads are being rapidly pushed to completion that will develop and wealth to the State. The great variety and value of our natural wealth has been brought to the knowledge of the outside world. Conditions have been restored among our people, and it is to the democratic party that we owe it. They have induced us to come along and help build up, and while preserving the soldiers every where shown to be a prosperous, contented and happy people. Our railroad interest, our manufacturing interest, our mining interest, our commercial interest, and, in fact, the value of labor, prosperity, happiness and demands public and national interest, all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the United States Senate, to anicipate the purpose it is evident that Dr. Mott is prepared to go any length and stick at nothing, as will be seen by the minute he sent yesterday. The course is without pretension but I am afraid somewhat injurious among the Republicans all over the State.

High-handed Proceeding, from the gallant Freeholders.

It is the opinion of Dr. J. J. Mott, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, that the recent nomination of General M. W. Ransom to the