

LOCAL RECORDS.

Chatham is all right!

Didnt we tell you so?

Bear Creek is the banner township!

Faust was beaten 200 in his own county.

Centre township made the greatest gain.

A light vote was polled, about 500 less than in 1880.

Chatham democrats take no "liberalism" in their's!

All honor to the good and true democrats of Chatham!

The revenue officers fared rather badly here last Tuesday.

Don't you wish now that you had voted the democratic ticket?

For a one armed man, don't you think Edline is lively in a race!

Folk must be popular in Bear Creek township, where he received just 3 votes.

The prohibition and anti-prohibition democrats of Chatham stood shoulder to shoulder!

George Hamner has cause to feel proud of the vote in his own township—among the people who know him best.

The weather on Tuesday was delightful, and tempted too many democrats to stay at home to sow wheat and pick cotton.

The executors of Robert Dorsett, deceased, will sell on the 17th inst., at the late residence of said decedent, to the highest bid for cash, 100 barrels of corn in lots to suit purchasers.

The Cumberland Fair will be held week after next and will be a pleasant occasion. Visitors are offered cheap rates by the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad Company, whose advertisement we publish in another column.

Ho! The Hornaday Bros. Mr. J. A. Hornaday having taken into partnership C. H. Hornaday, lately of Troy, one of the best wood-workmen in the State, expects to make wagons, buggies, &c. Repairing of all kinds done neatly, substantially and on short notice.

Now the elections are over and see the pretty goods that London is offering. If you need a nice dress, he has it; nice Dress Goods 15 cents per yard worth 20; beautiful Plaids from 12 1/2 cents up. His stock of Prints are very pretty indeed. He has just received a lot of nice Cloaks and Shawls; he keeps the best 50 and 75 cents corsets in the market.

New Goods! Bynum & Headen are now receiving their stock of Fall and Winter Goods, consisting of a full stock of almost everything found in a first-class store; a fine line of Ladies' Cloaks, Ladies' Hats and Footers, and they will find Mrs. Horne ready to dress them up in the latest style. Give us a call and we have no doubt you can be suited.

Cold weather is at last on us and you need something to keep you warm, so call at London's and see those splendid Overcoats, Nobby Suits, splendid stock of Boots and Shoes. Will receive this week a splendid line of men's and boys' Hats and Caps. Will again call your attention to his stock of Sewing Machines; if you intend to buy one be sure and call at London's.

An Old Knife.—Mr. Henry T. Bright has shown us a pocket knife that he says is a hundred years old, and it still does good service.

A Tie Vote.—The importance of one vote was illustrated at the election for constable of this township, wherein there was a tie between the opposing candidates.

Dwellers Broken.—We regret to learn that, on the 3rd inst., the dwelling of Mrs. William Hackney, of Oakland township, was destroyed by fire. The roof caught from sparks from the chimney.

Second Crop of Peas.—Mr. George W. Thompson has raised a second crop of green peas. They are "volunteers," having grown in his garden from seed that dropped from the vines. It is a novel sight to see pods of peas in November.

Turner's N. C. Almanac.—We are indebted to Messrs. J. H. Eunis & Son, the publishers thereof, for a copy of Turner's N. C. Almanac for 1883. As usual this popular almanac is full of interesting matter and should be a welcome visitor at every fireside.

Examination of Teachers.—Rev. P. R. Law will be in his office on Friday and Saturday the 17th and 18th days of this month for the examination of teachers. This is a special opportunity to accommodate those teachers who were not able to be present during the regular examination days in October. As he will not be able to provide another opportunity until next January it is important that teachers bear this in mind.

CORN CROSSLIES.—Mr. Matthew Seymour, of Williams township, has a stalk of corn that is divided into two prongs about 3 feet from the ground, and on each prong are two ears of corn.

Master George E. Rives, of Gulf township, has sent to the Record's museum a cluster of six ears of corn that grew in the same shock.

THE RECORD COMPLIMENTED.—Amid the general rejoicing at the glorious victory in this county we are much gratified to hear so many of our countrymen compliment the Record upon its efforts in aiding to win such a victory. We thought it our duty to do all we could to defeat the revenue ring, and we did it. That, and nothing more. We know that a well conducted newspaper does have some influence, and it is always our object to use the Record's influence for the good of our county and State, and we are pleased and gratified to know that our efforts are appreciated.

THE RECORD'S ESTEEM.—We were determined to show our readers that the Record is a Live newspaper and could give the people of Chatham later news than any other weekly paper in the State, and therefore we an extra expense and trouble we are enabled to publish in this issue full returns of the election not only in this county, but throughout the State, and nation. In order to do this we sent a messenger last night to the nearest railroad station (10 miles distant) and thus obtained special telegrams from Raleigh. We hope our readers will manifest their appreciation of the Record's enterprise by extending its circulation and at ways promptly paying their subscriptions.

TO DELINQUENTS.—We wish to say a few words to those of our subscribers who owe anything on their subscription. On account of the short crops of last year we have indulged some of our subscribers by not stopping their paper, and we hope they will show their appreciation of this indulgence by now promptly paying up. The good crops of this year will enable every man to pay his subscription, and we will have to stop the papers of all who do not pay, for no paper can be published on a credit. During the coming winter we hope to make the Record specially interesting. Congress and the Legislature will both be in session, and every citizen ought to read what they do. We will publish weekly letters from a correspondent at Washington and at Raleigh, and thus keep our readers well posted as to what is going on at the capital of the nation and State.

Buxton, for jail fees, 12.00; W. B. Wilkie, for work on Hays wood bridge, 10.18; Norris, Wyatt & Taylor, for bacon for prisoners, 48.45; J. P. M. State News. Wilson Advance: Mr. F. I. Finch, of Black Creek, has an apple tree that has had apples on it every month since May. Winston Republican: Distemper is killing the cattle in large numbers in the Blue Ridge country.—Saleen, during her existence of more than a century, has been visited by only two fires. Oxford Free Lance: Late Tuesday afternoon Rob. Henderson, colored, was brought in Oxford and confined in the county jail, charged with the murder of his wife on the preceding Saturday night. Weldon News: On yesterday morning a man whose name we did not learn while going for Mr. Louis Summerill, near Garysburg, got his arm in the gin and it was cut entirely off between the wrist and the elbow. Charlotte Journal: It is learned that Mrs. Stonewall Jackson and her daughter Miss Julia, have received the bequest of $1,099 13, under the will of the late Wade H. Bolton, of Memphis. The county court of Memphis ordered the payment on the 15th of last month. Anson Times: A peculiar noise was heard in the heavens last Monday morning about 7 o'clock. Those who heard it say it resembled the explosion of a magazine, with a continued rumbling afterwards. It was probably a meteoric visitor.—We learn that a revenue officer by the name of Leonard had his tongue cut up and his horse mutilated on Fri day last in the lower edge of this county. Our informant tells us that the officer was guilty of unseemly conduct, and that his treatment was due to that.

Raleigh Visitor: A special telegram from High Point, dated November 8th, to Rev. E. L. Reid of this city, contains the full intelligence of the death of the Rev. B. Craven, D. D., L. L. D., the beloved President of Trinity College, and the Secretary of the North Carolina Conference, which sad event occurred at 11.30 o'clock last night. He died very suddenly of heart disease. He was 79 years of age.

Greensboro Patriot: W. J. Long, Esq., of Randolph, and well known in Guilford, died in Minneapolis, Minnesota, Sunday evening last. He sold off his property in Randolph some months ago and removed to Minnesota. Many years ago Mr. Long was a prominent lawyer at the Greensboro bar and was well known throughout the State. He attended the courts of this county for many years prior to the war, and was well known here.—Ed. Record.

News and Objections: The notorious W. J. Manden, late Republican member of the Leg. from Iron Pass, spent the week in jail from the 1st of the State, was captured, and placed in Pasquotank jail, in company with several desperate negroes; that not very strong hold, in company with several desperate negroes; was recaptured and confined in the strong jail at Edenton, to make sure of him. But they did not stop there. Yesterday a telegram was received at the Executive D. partment from Sheriff J. C. Warren, of Edenton, Clowan county, which conveyed the information that this plainly "W. J. Manden broke jail last night."

Greenville Reflector: Mr. Albert A. Pierce, a gentleman probably about 60 years old, died in this place on last Wednesday. He came to Greenville about ten weeks ago as a Book and Map Agent, and stopped at James Hotel, but was taken sick soon after his arrival and never recovered. He had no relatives nearer than New York, and a daughter living there was telegraphed to and informed of his death. She answered the telegram and ordered that he should be buried. The remains were interred in Cherry Hill Cemetery. The deceased traveled about in this county for several weeks, a few years ago, and will be remembered by many of our readers.—Ed. Record.

St. Joesville Landmark: Davidson township can boast of having the oldest Democrat probably in the county in the person of Matthew Gibbs. He is or will be 96 years of age next May. He has voted at 18 Presidential elections, and has lived to see 24 Presidents elected, and has voted the Democratic ticket every time, and says that if he lives to see the next Presidential election he will vote again the same way.—Among the many wives and mothers of this land who are helps and not encumbrances, is Mrs. Helton, who lives on the farm of Mr. A. McConnell in Davidson township, this county. A correspondent informs us that she has finger-picked, carded and spun the cotton and woven seven yards of cloth which her husband and son were wearing on the 27th of September. The cotton was raised this year.

Wilmington Review: We were pained to learn that on Saturday evening, last, at Magnolia, Duppin County, little Mary, daughter of Mr. B. C. Barden, was terribly if not fatally burned by her clothes taking fire.—The saw mill at Abbottsburg, formerly belonging to Messrs. W. E. Hill & Co., but now the property of Mr. John Colville, of this city, the surviving partner, was burned yesterday, together with five or six flat cars belonging to the C. C. R. Co., which were standing on the sidetrack near the mill.—A few minutes past midnight, on Sunday morning last, four Norwegian sailors who belonged to the barque, HAMMER, on the west side of the river, came to the dock at the foot of Chestnut street and hailed their vessel for a boat. They were all more or less intoxicated. In a short time a boat was scullied across by a young lad, and as it touched the wharf they all jumped into the bow of the little craft and their weight, which caused the forward end to rise for a moment, fell all into the river. Three of them, after a good deal of difficulty, were rescued by some colored men who were fortunately on a flat near by, but one of the sailors and the boy were drowned.

United States Senator Vest, of Missouri, had a narrow escape from drowning last Friday while fishing in the Ouachita River. He was carried over a milldam in the boat and came near being swept away by the swift current.

A Curiosity. From the Charlotte Democrat. The bullet that Sergeant Mason fired at Guilford, while in prison, passed through the window of his cell, struck the wall, glanced to the opposite side, and fell to floor. Col Crocker entered the cell, picked up the bullet and a few days after exhibited the same to a friend, who was an artist, and directed an artist to flatten and the other edge formed a fair similitude of Guyton's profile, so striking a mental effect would not notice the resemblance, and the artist was not to say it was one of his best. We learn from a gentleman who has examined this singular outline, that it requires no stretch of the imagination to trace the resemblance to Guyton.

Fight in Court. A St. Louis telegram, dated Nov. 4th, says: In the United States Court yesterday, while Ex-Senator, State Senator, B. Henderson and H. C. Cunningham were descending in order of the court, in a case in which Henderson was defendant, Cunningham had not been paid in some matter connected with the case. Cunningham held a heated opinion of the court's decision, when Henderson struck him from the shoulder and planted three blows on Cunningham's face and head, knocking him violently against an iron pillar in the Court room, and thence to the floor. Friends intervened and the defendants were separated. Judge Treat was greatly shocked and declared that after the most disgraceful thing that had occurred in court during the twenty-four years he had been on the bench, and fined Henderson, not standing the latter made an apology.
