Dark Side of City Life.

Amid all the splendor, wealth and magnificence of New York city there is squalor and wretchedness. As an instance of what is frequently seen in that city, we copy from a recent issue of the Herald the following:

A revolting picture of depravity was presented in the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday morning. A middle-aged man, bearded and stupefied with drink, was brought up to the bar of justice.

Justice Dudley examined the couple to the degraded couple who had not sufficient clothing to cover his body. A little girl, five years of age, very poorly clad, another child of the couple was also brought into court.

Swain Memorial Hall.

From the News and Observer. The committee of the board of trustees of the university, viz: Messrs. P. C. Cameron, John Manning and Kemp P. Battle, met at Chapel Hill on Monday last.

The main (Cameron) avenue, to the west of Gerard hall (the present chapel) on the south side of the avenue, opposite the new west (Dial) building. The plan submitted by the architect of the Governor's mansion, (Mr. Swan) was adopted and Mr. Cameron was authorized to contract for the needed lumber at once.

This building is greatly needed. Very many ladies and gentlemen are unable on commencement days to obtain admission into Gerard hall and go away dissatisfied. All the people of the State who desire it have the right to witness the exercises of their own University.

Mr. B. H. Lewis, chairman of the gymnasium committee, expects to have the gymnasium finished by commencement next, so that it is probable Chapel Hill will witness such a congregation of our people as never before met in its beautiful groves.
