Renew your subscription when you come to court next week.

The fight will go bravely on between the farmers and "General Green."

When you come to court next week go to the store of J. B. Harris for cheap bargains.

The school of that accomplished instructor, Mr. A. H. Merrill, will reopen on the 22nd inst.

Great bargains at the store of J. B. Harris. Call at once, as these goods are being sold rapidly.

All persons indebted to J. B. Harris are notified to make immediate payment, if they wish to save costs.

Have you read the advertisement London has in this paper? He is offering some extra bargains—some things below cost. Ribbons, Laces, Flowers, and other Fancy Goods at half prices. You would be surprised to see how low you can buy Children's Hose, Ladies' Handkerchiefs, and Ladies' Neckwear. Almost give them away.

Bynum & Hadden have still on hand a nice stock of Millinery goods which they are offering very cheap for cash.

First come, first served, of course. The goods London is offering so very low cannot be replaced, and by not calling soon you will lose bargains you may never have offered to you again. These goods must be sold and you can buy them on cash cheaper than you could at an auction. Would call your attention to London's direct goods, the cheapest things you ever saw.

LARGE YIELD OF WOOL.—Mr. B. E. Webster, of Hickory Mountain township, showed us a few days ago some samples of wool recently shorn from his sheep that were 12 and 15 inches long and of superior quality. From one of his sheep that was 2 years old, he clipped 10 pounds of wool at one shearing.

A LOST MEDAL.—A young lady of this place was recently presented with a beautiful gold medal by the principal of her school, and soon thereafter it was lost on the cars between Durham and Raleigh. Of course there was no hope of its being found, but in a few days there appeared in the Raleigh News and Observer an advertisement of a medal that had been found near Morrisville, and upon investigation it was ascertained that it was the lost medal of our young friend, and was in due time returned to her.

A FOREIGN CRIMINAL.—A prominent citizen of this county, living near New Hope river, is so named a defender of the health of his section that he would never admit having had a chill, although it is said that he has them every year; but the other day he was at a neighboring store and was seized with so severe a chill as almost to shake down the building, and finally was forced to confess that he felt a "little chilly." His neighbors tell it as a good joke on him.

A DISTINGUISHED CREEPER.—Distanna county has lost its most distinguished citizen in the death of Hon. Abraham Rencher, who died on the 6th inst. at the residence of his daughter in Chapel Hill, where he had been visiting for several months. The deceased was born in Wake county, in the month of August, 1778, and graduated with high honors at the State University in 1822, having been thoroughly prepared for college by the celebrated colored Presbyterian preacher, Rev. John Clavin, who was one of the most remarkable men of his day. Immediately after graduating, Mr. Rencher studied law under Judge Nash at Hillsboro, and after obtaining his license settled at this place for the practice of his profession. He was elected to Congress in 1829, and was re-elected five times thereafter, making his term of service twenty years. It is quite a remarkable coincidence that he died on the same day with Hon. Mark Alexander, of Virginia, they being the two oldest ex-Congressmen then living. After serving so long a time in Congress, Mr. Rencher was appointed by President Tyler Charge d'Affaires to Fortin, where he remained several years. After his return he was appointed by President Buchanan Governor of the territory of New Mexico, where he resided until after the beginning of the late war, when he returned to cast his fortunes with his kith and kin in his native State. His only appearance in public life after the war was as a candidate for a seat in the State Constitutional (Reconstruction) Convention in 1867, but was defeated according to the count made by Gen. Canby, our military ruler at that time, and who by the way had been an officer under Gov. Rencher in New Mexico.

For the past two or three years Gov. Rencher had been in declining health, though previous to that time he had been remarkably well preserved both in body and mind, and notwithstanding the tender and menacing attentions of loving hands death came as a relief from suffering. We feel that we would not do justice to the subject were we to attempt to delineate the strongly marked character of the distinguished deceased. He needs no eulogy, for his services are indelibly written in his country's history, and full of years and honors he rests from his labors.

Insurance Company.—The regular semi-annual term of the Inferior Court of this county will begin next Monday. There are now on the docket 21 cases, none of which are of much importance, and it is probable that the business of the term may be disposed of during the first two days.

Fire.—The office and warehouse of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley R. R. Company at the Mill was burnt, on last Sunday night. The origin of the fire is unknown. No one was sleeping in the building, and when the fire was discovered (just before daylight) the flames had completely enveloped it, and it was too late to save any of the contents, the value which amounted to a considerable sum.

The Stock Law.—We have received a letter from some of our subscribers in a certain section of this county asking information as to the stock law. The question asked by them is this: "Under the law, would any number of contiguous farmers could avail themselves of it (the stock law) and place gates across public roads? Is it so now? or does it require an election?" In answer we would say that any number of landowners, whose lands are contiguous, may at any time build a common fence around all their lands, place gates across the public roads, and have the stock law in force within the enclosed territory. Or, upon the written application of the qualified voters of any district or territory, whether the boundaries of said district follow township lines or not, made to the county commissioners at any time, it is their duty to order an election to be held in that district for the voters to decide whether or not they will have the stock law, and if a majority vote for it, then the law will be in force in said district.

Justice of the Peace.—Mr. Justice: At the last meeting of the Justices of our county there was much difference of opinion as to when the term of office of our newly appointed Justices should begin.

At the time we recall attention to the following resolutions of the General Assembly, passed in 1876: "That the Justices of the Peace for the term ending on the 1st of January, 1877, shall be elected on the 1st of August, 1876, and their successors shall be elected on the 1st of August, 1877, and their successors shall be elected on the 1st of August, 1878, and so on." We all know that the Justices were held on the 1st of August in August until the manner of electing Justices was changed. Laws of 1876-77, chap. 141, sec. 1, relating to the Justices, read as follows: "And the clerk of the superior court shall notify said Justices of their appointment, and they shall be qualified to enter upon the duties of their office upon taking before the said clerk the oath of office prescribed by law for Justices of the Peace. But the terms of those elected at the present session of the General Assembly shall begin at the expiration of the term for which Justices of the Peace now in office have been elected, and not before."

From the above we find that the terms of those recently appointed, whether to fill an old or new place, does not immediately begin to run on the 1st of August, but on the 1st of August, 1877, or on the 1st of August, 1878, or on the 1st of August, 1879, or on the 1st of August, 1880, or on the 1st of August, 1881, or on the 1st of August, 1882, or on the 1st of August, 1883, or on the 1st of August, 1884, or on the 1st of August, 1885, or on the 1st of August, 1886, or on the 1st of August, 1887, or on the 1st of August, 1888, or on the 1st of August, 1889, or on the 1st of August, 1890, or on the 1st of August, 1891, or on the 1st of August, 1892, or on the 1st of August, 1893, or on the 1st of August, 1894, or on the 1st of August, 1895, or on the 1st of August, 1896, or on the 1st of August, 1897, or on the 1st of August, 1898, or on the 1st of August, 1899, or on the 1st of August, 1900, or on the 1st of August, 1901, or on the 1st of August, 1902, or on the 1st of August, 1903, or on the 1st of August, 1904, or on the 1st of August, 1905, or on the 1st of August, 1906, or on the 1st of August, 1907, or on the 1st of August, 1908, or on the 1st of August, 1909, or on the 1st of August, 1910, or on the 1st of August, 1911, or on the 1st of August, 1912, or on the 1st of August, 1913, or on the 1st of August, 1914, or on the 1st of August, 1915, or on the 1st of August, 1916, or on the 1st of August, 1917, or on the 1st of August, 1918, or on the 1st of August, 1919, or on the 1st of August, 1920, or on the 1st of August, 1921, or on the 1st of August, 1922,
