

LOCAL RECORDS.

Another auction at Harris' store next Saturday and Monday, the 28th and 30th.

Read the advertisement of the Mount Vernon Springs Academy, one of the most flourishing schools in the State.

Have you seen London's stock of clothing? They are very cheap. Suits for $13, reduced from $20; suits for $10, reduced from $15. Good suits are very cheap. A few pairs of heavy Boots away below cost. Hats are very cheap.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement of those enterprising merchants and clever gentlemen, Messrs. Latta & Myatt, who are agents for the sale of the celebrated Van Winkle cotton gin, which is said to be the best ever made.

London is still selling goods at cost for cash. Remember his stock of goods must be sold and that at once, and you can buy for cash cheaper than you ever saw before. By calling soon you have a better stock to select from.

At the auction last Saturday great bargains were made. Among others Coats thread sold at 2 cents a spool. If you wish to buy anything for almost nothing go to the auction at Harris' store next Saturday and Monday, beginning at 9 o'clock each day. Ladies especially invited. Country merchants can replenish their stocks at little cost.

PRELUDE INSURANCE.—An insurance agent of our acquaintance recently received an application from a citizen of this county to insure a lot of barrel staves against worms. The applicant also wished the agent to insure that he (the applicant) would get a certain price for his staves. This would be a most novel insurance, the like of which we have never before heard.

A PAISNEL ACCIDENT.—At the saw mill of Messrs. Canale & Pelly (3 miles south of this place) a negro man, named Henry Clegg, was very seriously injured on last Friday. While removing a plank from the saw he fell and the saw cut a deep gash in his thigh, another on his neck, and lacerated his right arm so severely that it was amputated that night by doctors Budd, Hanks and Manning.

HOT WEATHER.—We do not publish it as an item of news, that the weather has been oppressively hot, for everybody has personal knowledge of the fact; indeed it has been so hot that every one is ready to declare it is the hottest ever known. For several days the thermometer indicated a temperature of "blood heat," and the nights almost equalled the heat of mid-day. The heat has been so oppressive that it has been hot work trying to keep cool.

A DWELLING BURN.—We much regret to hear of the misfortune that has befallen our former townsman, Mr. R. H. Cavan, who is now the editor of the Anson Times. On last Monday night his dwelling with nearly all its contents was destroyed by fire. The dwelling was built only last year and although there was $1500 insurance yet the loss will be quite heavy. The origin of the fire is unknown, and it was not discovered until the building was in flames.

THE WHEAT CASE.—In every neighborhood may now be heard the hum of the threshing. We hear such conflicting statements as to the wheat crop that we can hardly tell how it is in this county, but taking it altogether it is probably an average crop. Some persons say that they made little or nothing, while others admit that their crops have turned out "tolerably well." There is certainly no danger of a wheat famine, and hundreds of barrels of flour will be shipped from this county during the fall and winter.

GOING TO TEXAS.—Three of our young townsmen, Messrs. Thomas A. Hanks, Frank C. Poe and Willie Thompson, will next month obey Horace Greeley's advice of "Go West, young man," and move to Texas. While we regret to hear of any of our young men leaving the "old North State" and seeking their fortunes in other States, yet if they will go we hope their brightest anticipations may be realized, and each find his fortune and soon come back to spend it.

LATE MONEY.—In looking over the tax lists of this township, as recently reported by our tax collector, we were surprised to find so few persons reported as having any "money on hand." The law requires every taxpayer to make a verified statement of all his property liable to taxation, including any money that he had on the 1st day of June, and yet out of all the tax payers of this township (about 600) there are only 29 who are listed as having any money on hand on that day! Does anybody believe this to be true? Can it be true that only 29 persons in this township possessed a dollar on the 1st of last June? If so, where did all the currency go that day? If not so, where are the oaths of all those who swore that they did not have a single cent on that day?

TEACHERS' CERTIFICATES.—At the recent examination of applicants for certificates to teach in the public schools of this county there were twenty persons who entered for examination. Of these, two retired before the close of the examination, five failed to receive any certificate, and the remainder received certificates as follows: first grade to R. B. Linberry; second grade to A. M. Walters, H. F. Richardson, Lelia G. Wade, Belle Bradley, and Susie Van Dyne; and third grade to Etta Hollins, Melissa Cotten, Mary S. Smith, Louisa C. Harris, Valmore Cheek, O. S. Harris, and J. W. Hall.

A TRAIN IN TOWNS.—Owing to its secluded position our town is not often visited by the tramps who infest the towns situated on the railroads, but on last Monday a dilapidated old specimen of that species of humanity arrived here and before night was quietly slumbering in jail. He pretended to be a "fortune teller" and kept off his spirits by pouring down other spirits, until the spirits got him down and he laid outstretched on the side-walk, from whence he was taken by the town constable and lodged in jail. Next morning he seemed quite refreshed by his night's rest, and upon being carried before the mayor pleaded so eloquently for justice tempered with mercy, that judgment was suspended upon his promise to depart, and he hastened his departure without a moment's delay. We hardly think he will repeat his visit soon.

A GOOD COW.—What do our readers think of a cow giving nine gallons of milk a day? Last May while on a visit to Charlotte we admired the many good milk cows that we saw in that city, and in speaking of them to another visitor (Dr. Cureton, of Polk county) he told us that he owned a cow that had given at least eight gallons a day. This seemed incredible and we laughingly told our esteemed friend that while we did not doubt his veracity yet we could not believe his statement unless he sent us a certificate of "a disinterested witness," and we would publish it in the Record. A few days ago we received a letter from Dr. Cureton enclosing a certificate, and stating that the cow (named "Fau") now has a calf and that after leaving plenty of milk for the calf, the cow gives every day six gallons of milk. The certificate is as follows:

"FAVON, N. C., July 20, 1883. I certify that I have milked and seen milked from the cow, Fau, nine (9) gallons skimmed milk per day and believe the same quantity could be had now and not divide with the calf. V. M. JONES."

German Carp. BULLOCK, Chatham Co., N. C., July 21, 1883.

Enron Record: The question has often been asked, "at what age the German Carps reach their spawn?" An article written by Seth Green in "Home and Farm" stated that they did not spawn until three years old, and that the water and food had to be well adapted to them if they spawned even at that age. Now, in answer to this I wish to state that I placed 20 German carps, varying from 1 to 2 1/2 inches long, in my pond February, 1882, and that I now have a good stock of young carp varying from about 1 to 4 inches in length. The parent fish measures 19 1/2 inches long with broad dark colored backs, silvery sides, red fins and tail, perfect beauties. A. W. NORTON.

The "Suspension" Court. FAVER, N. C., July 23d, 1883.

Enron Record: Please give the following a space in your columns. TO THE MAGISTRATES OF CHATHAM: I recommend that, at your next meeting, you change the name of our Inferior Court to "Suspension" Court, and at the proper time suspend the court. At the last two terms of the court in nearly every case there was no penalty or punishment, but all turned loose. If a man can steal $100 and the costs of trying him amount to $25 and he is turned loose upon paying the costs, he makes $75 clear. It may not be a violation of the law for our court not to inflict the punishments laid down in the law for different crimes, but it is certain they are not carrying out the intent of the law; they are not making the law "a terror to evil-doers."

I hope some magistrate will count the expense of our "Suspension" Court and have the figures to show at the next meeting. A CRITIC.

State News. Weldon News: The Raleigh & Gaston and Seaboard & Roanoke Railroads will very soon begin the erection of a large ticket office and reception room for travelers at this place. It will be located just North of the hotel where the old shed of the Raleigh Road stood.

Salem Press: On last Tuesday, Daniel Sink, of Bethany, Davidson county, started to his field to haul wheat, with his feet hanging down under the wagon; and in driving over a stump one foot was caught between the stump and the axle of the wagon, breaking both bones of the leg between the knee and the ankle.

Oxford Torchlight: On the evening of the 11th inst., Mr. John Wood, who lives in the vicinity of Centre Grove, near the line of Grayville and Person counties, was suddenly thrown from his buggy—the horse at the time running at full speed—on the banks of Tar River, his head striking a pile of stones. The skull was fractured in several places and death resulted about 9 o'clock at night.

Asheville Citizen: We learn that a negro man, employed on the material train of Capt. Jack Edwards, was drowned at the Warm Springs on Sunday. He had gone into the river bathing, and from some cause we have not learned, perished in the waters.

Alamance Gleaner: Mrs. J. R. Stockard had a turkey gobbler that took a notion he would like to be a hen. So he went to setting and set three or four weeks with nothing under him except the ground. At last, Mrs. S. getting in sympathy with him, placed fifteen chicken eggs under him—twelve of which he hatched. There was a proud turkey.

Moore Gazette: It is with pleasure that we hear the crops are generally good. The farmers were, while back, almost discouraged, but they now take heart and successfully fight every obstacle in their way. —Mr. A. A. McPhail, of Greenwood township, a few weeks since, in attempting to jump from a buggy got his feet tangled in the reins and fell across the wheel, breaking several of his ribs, and has been suffering very much. It seems that his lungs were also injured, as he has been unable to cough or spit since the unfortunate occurrence.

Roidsville Times: Mr. H. F. Barnes, was robbed on Tuesday July 10th, about two and a half miles west of Danville. He had sold tobacco and was returning home, walking a hundred yards or so behind his wagon, he saw two negroes and a white man enter the road in front of him from the woods and walk on ahead laughing and talking. Passing them and anticipating no danger he was suddenly seized by the arms. Before he could get his knife the two others rushed up and choked him. Overpowering him they took all his money, $85. Not a word was spoken.

Fayetteville Observer: Yesterday morning a colored boy about twelve years of age, son of Nelson Starr, was drowned at Cameron's Pond two or three miles north-west of town. The water at that place is very deep, and good swimmers have often had their little trial there. Last week a very distressing accident occurred in this place. A young man named Chas. McDaniel, while working at one of the forges, received a piece of steel through his eyelid into the ball of his right eye. Surgical assistance was procured and everything done that was possible, but we regret to learn that the sight of the eye is probably lost beyond recovery.

Goldsboro Messenger: Mr. John Price, a young man keeping bar for Mr. Joe A. Parker, in this city, met a shocking death during Tuesday night in being run over by the through freight on the W. & W. Road. It seems that while under the influence of liquor the young man had strolled to the northern suburbs of the city, and was seen at about 2 o'clock by Mr. W. H. Underhill, who is the watchman at the rice mills, walking down the track of the Railroad. Half an hour later the through freight passed over the road, and soon after Mr. Underhill heard cries of distress coming from the direction of the railroad. On going to the spot he found John Price lying on his back about side of the track with both legs cut off just below his body, one of them was completely severed and lay some distance from him between the rails.

Monroe Enquirer & Express: Mr. J. W. Bell had a horse killed by running away with a plow last week. Also one Alexander, a colored man, had one killed by lightning, at Silver Run church. —Mr. Straller Snider and wife, of Lanes Creek township, were in town Tuesday, and had with them four children, one of them a son ten years of age last March, that measured four feet and a half in length and weighed 134 pounds. —Rev. A. T. Latta's young son, daughter aged five years, was badly scalded Monday evening. She was playing in the yard where the family washing was being done, and just at the moment when a large batch of clothing was lifted from the boiling pot, she ran against the washer-woman and the dripping clothing, coming in contact with her exposed limbs, she was considerably scalded with the boiling water.

Statesville Landmark: Miss Caroline White, a maiden lady about 65 years of age, went across the road, last Monday evening, to drive up the eyes, as had been her custom, and returning fell in the road and expired in a very few moments. She had been in good health and walked to church Sunday. Her death is supposed to have resulted from heart disease. —For the past three years there has been an increase each year over the year before, in the amount of wheat produced in this county. This is not due altogether to increase in average but to improvements in the preparation of the lands and the manner of seedling. Better plowing, more careful breaking of the lands, and the introduction of the drill have wrought the change. —The report is that all the children in Miller's township, Alexander county, are suffering with sore eyes. The cause is unaccountable but the affection is epidemic. The children cannot open their eyes, in the mornings, and have to be led from bed to the wash basin. A citizen of the township named, who was in this office, Monday, says that not a child in his neighborhood is exempt from the disease.

Wilmington Review: An enormous rattlesnake, which was measured at least twelve feet in length, was killed to-day at North-west by Mr. S. C. McKay, C. C. R. operator at that point. It was dispatched after a desperate struggle and after it had killed one dog and two cows. —We were shown a piece of black walnut board to-day which was evidently two trees which had grown together so as to form a complete union of the wood. In sawing it apart a cavity was discovered in which were walnuts and a portion of one of the trees with the bark on, which at a subsequent date had been entirely surrounded with another growth of wood. —On Sunday, the 15th inst., three colored boys, the largest of whom was Neil Culbreth, went to a place on South River, known as Pridgen's Landing, to swim, and that Neil took Williams, who could not swim, out into the stream and left him, saying as he swam to the shore, "Now, d—n you, swim or drown!" The boy was drowned and his body was not recovered until the next day, when an inquest was held and the verdict of the jury was that "the deceased came to his death by drowning, at the hands of one Neil Culbreth." The latter has fled from the section.

Greensboro Patriot: Mr. Shack, a wagoner for the Franklinsville factory, had his bows and cover torn to pieces by a freight train this morning. He had taken off the bows to load a fine card and the backing train caught it and rolled it up. —The Salem train last night ran over the dead body of a negro just above Kernersville. The train was instantly stopped, and the investigation disclosed that a dastardly murder had been committed and that the body of the murdered man had been laid across the railroad track. The body was lying in such a position as to be bent in two by the passing train. When found the body was quite cool, a diaphragm unaccountably that the diaphragm had been some time committed. —Thomas Baker, a Raleigh carpenter, died Saturday night from injuries sustained by some lumber falling on him. It seems that he was intoxicated and in passing by a pile of lumber stacked up near the railroad track he pulled a plank which precipitated the pile on him, crushing him to death.

News and Observer: From a private letter we learn that a horrible murder was committed at Terrapin Point, in the western part of Halifax county, on Friday last. John Lee, a merchant at that place, killed Amy Moore, a white woman who had been living with him for eight years. He shot her through the heart with a pistol. She left a family of six small children with no support whatever. Lee made his escape at once and has not been seen since. All attempts to capture him have failed. —A correspondent, writing from Greenville, N. C., says: "Robbie R. Cotton, son of Mr. R. R. Cotton, was drowned at Centre Bluff Pitt county, on the 15th. About 7 o'clock in the morning he went down to the river from his father's store near by, for the purpose of bathing. No one accompanied him. Two little negro children walking near the bank saw him sinking. The sight frightened them and caused them to give the alarm. But it was too late to save the boy. —A private letter from Marchand gives us the information that on Wednesday a boat containing several members of the Gate City Guard was capsized while sailing near Fort Mason. All the men were thrown into the water which was there about 40 feet deep. The cause of the capsizing was a sudden storm which came up and swept along the coast. The boat lay in the water four hours. The soldiers were all able to swim, and the only person not a swimmer was the boatman. He held on to the boat, as did the others. Once in the midst of a squall of driving rain a boat passed very close to the party but neither saw them nor heard their calls for help, so thick was the mist and so loud raged the storm. The scene of the accident was near the two mile buoy, out towards the bar. The situation was each moment growing more and more desperate, and the chances of a rescue became smaller, when very fortunately Capt. Dank Bell's boat came near the scene and rescued all the men.

Charlotte Journal: An old colored man named John Sparrow, living at Mt. Mourne, in Fredrick county, yesterday met with a shocking accident and one that will in all human probability prove fatal. He had been at work on top of a straw stack, and sliding rapidly down to the ground encountered a pitchfork, the prongs of which passed through his left thigh from side to side. The prongs of the fork entered the old man's leg about six inches below the thigh and came out well up behind, each prong piercing through about eight inches of flesh. —Wadsworth had the steam thrasher at work on his farm yesterday. He made 1,080 bushels of wheat on 27 acres, and an average of 40 bushels to the acre. —This wheat was raised on the "model farm" near Charlotte, which we visited last May and published a description of in the Record. It is another proof of the benefits to be derived from cultivating a small area and manuring it well. —Ed. Record: —The good people of Gaston county have been greatly interested during the past few days in a trouble which has arisen between ex-sheriff George W. McKee, and county treasurer J. A. Davenport, each one bringing charges of a grave character against the other. Ex-sheriff McKee charges Davenport with embezzling funds to the amount of $2,170, and treasurer Davenport charges the sheriff with forging two notes or receipts, purporting to be signed by Davenport. The matter has been given into the hands of the lawyers, and the board of commissioners of Gaston county are now holding a court of investigation. —Mr. Robt. Gray, yesterday received a sample of pine hair from the Arma Manufacturing company, on the Carolina Central road. This is one of the new industries that has lately sprung up in this State and a most profitable one. The hair is made by running the ordinary pine needles through a certain process, and supplied to the furniture factories North by the car loads. The demand for it is unexhaustible. It is equal to or superior to moss for stuffing sofas, etc., and brings a good price. The needles are first barked, by which process the oil is extracted from them, after which they are run through a stringing machine that cuts them into hair.

Salisbury Watchman: William Harrison, son of Saml R. Harrison, esq., of this city, was bitten by a pet dog a few days ago, which had symptoms of rabies. Mr. H. went to Fredell county to take the benefit of the mud stone, owned by Mr. Dalton, of that county, and returned, feeling more at ease in regard to his case, and after a day or two at home, went on a visit to the White Sulphur Springs in Virginia.

The funeral of Tom Thumby took place Thursday at Bridgeport, Conn., with Masonic ceremonies. Fully 10,000 persons viewed the remains.

The Oxford University of Mississippi is open to women from all the States, and forty to fifty are expected to enter at the ensuing fall session. Gen. Ord, a retired officer of the U. S. army, a passenger on a steamer bound from Vera Cruz for New York, died in the hospital at Havana Sunday evening.

Preparations are being made for the commencement of civil suits against star route contractors to recover moneys drawn from the Treasury on fraudulent representations for postal service under expediting orders.

Rescued by a Cow. From the Victorian, Miss. — We are pained to learn that Mrs. Judge Morris, of Covina, received on Saturday evening last at 6:30 o'clock, very painful injuries from an assault by an infuriated cow. The lady was walking alone near a pond in the pasture, about 100 yards from the house, and passing near the cow, which had a very young calf, when the animal made a plunge at her, caught her in its horns, and tossed her into the pond, then jumping in, gored her again while in the water, and trampled on her with its feet. Another milk cow ran from a distance of 60 yards and drove the infuriated beast away and stood guard over the prostrate form of the lady until aid came. Only for this it is believed that she would have been killed.

As when She was Young. "I have used Parker's Hair Balsam and like it better than any similar preparation I know of," writes Mrs. Ellen Perry, wife of Rev. P. Perry, of Goldbrook Springs, Mass. "My hair was almost entirely gray, but a dollar bottle of the Balsam has restored the softness and the brown color it had when I was young—not a single gray hair left. Since I began applying the Balsam my hair has stopped falling out, and I find that it is a perfectly harmless and agreeable dressing."

DIED. Notice of deaths and marriages inserted free. Obituaries charged seven cents a line. J. H. BOX — At his residence, N. C., after a short illness, on Wednesday, July 26, 1883, aged 9 months and 19 days. Burial in the cemetery, at 10 o'clock. The Burial will be at 10 o'clock.
