Rain at last!

Harnett court next Monday.

Now is the time to sow your turnipseed.

Mr. O. S. Poe has moved into the store lately occupied by Mr. J. B. Harris.

Mr. M. T. Horton offers for sale one of the most valuable farms in the county.

Maj. Robert Ringham will deliver an address at the temperance celebration to be held at New Exam church, on the 1st day of September.

Remember if you need any clothing you can find it at London's away below cost. He is going to sell them while the iron is hot...

We are pleased to learn that our former townsmen, Mr. H. M. Cowan, has been appointed Mayor of the treasury department at Raleigh.

I rode 15 miles to see London's goods and bought all I could carry on my horse and only regretted that I had not brought my wagon...

PHROGIOUS PELLET.—Mr. O. J. Hatch, of Guilf township, has a pellet that is just four months old, and has laid two liters of eggs.

MILL BURN.—On last Saturday afternoon the steam mill and saw mills of Mr. Solomon Womble, of Guilf township, were destroyed by fire.

FIRE.—Our town was excited last Friday afternoon by the burning of a "fire," and the ringing of the bell, all caused by the burning of an out building in the yard of Mrs. M. A. Y. Palmer.

WATCH FOUND.—A few days ago, a white boy, named Joseph Stephens, was walking in Deep river at Rock ville and found a gold watch in the bottom of the river.

THE PEACH CRAB.—The peach crop in Charlotte has been almost a failure this year. Very few peaches have matured in good condition...

PROTECTED MEETING.—Quite an interesting protected meeting is going on at Hetcher Mountain church, six miles west of this place.

SUMMER VISITORS.—Notwithstanding the summer has almost gone visitors continue to arrive in our town. Since our last issue the arrivals have been the following...

REVISING TAX LIST.—The county commissioners have been in session for the past three days revising the tax-lists. There were not many complaints made because of increased valuations...

A DEAF MUTE.—We saw a negro man in Raleigh, a few days ago, who has wonderful pecuniarity—and that is he never talks.

WAKE COURT.—While in Raleigh a few days ago we visited the new court house, and found it a very handsome and conveniently arranged building.

ARRAIGNING DEATH.—Mr. Charles Diskins, who resided three miles north of this place, died on last Saturday, aged about eighty years.

THE C. F. & Y. V. R. R.—We are pleased to hear that work on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad is now progressing very favorably.

A REFRRESHING RAIN.—The drought is ended and at last we have had a most refreshing rain.

AS OLD CRYSTAL.—We had the pleasure of meeting, on last Saturday, Mr. Simon Ratcliff, of Boss county, Ohio, who was born near Love's Creek in this county in August, 1809.

OSFORD ORPHAN'S FRIEND.—We regret to learn that Mr. W. S. Grandy, of this town, met with a very painful accident a few days ago.

RALEIGH VISITOR.—Fifty years ago to-day, Mr. Patrick McGowan arrived in this city. There have been many changes here since that date.

A WAR INCIDENT.—In contrast with the robberies committed by Sherman's "bummers" was the strict discipline of Gen. Lee's army.

LETTERS, N. C., Aug. 10, 1883. Mr. Editor: A day or two before reaching Appomattox on the memorable retreat of our army from Petersburg...

WASHINGTON GAZETTE: About two weeks ago a stranger called at the house of Mr. Bass, who lives six miles from Edenton, and asked for dinner.

ANSON TIMON: Last Wednesday night the residence of Mr. Joseph P. Dunlap, in the upper part of the county, was totally destroyed by fire.

EDENTON ENQUIRER: Mike Righton, colored, who lived in Washington county, had a quarrel with his wife on the 28th ult., and shot her.

NEWS AND OBSERVER: One of the convicts in the penitentiary, a simple-minded white man, has been one of the gang-movings in the capital square.

MORGANTOWN MOUNTAIN: On last Saturday a reunion at Mr. Robert Patton's family was held, which was the largest ever occurring in this vicinity.

STATESVILLE LANDMARK: From the farm of P. Tomlinson, esq. comes a report of a corn stalk on which there are twenty-four small ears of corn.

The Valley Mutual Life Association

Of Virginia

Offers the following advantages over other life insurance companies:

1st. It does not cost One-half to carry a certificate of membership in our Association as in old line life insurance companies.

2nd. Our Assessment Table is lower than in any other life insurance company, association, or society.

3rd. Our charges are at actual cost of carrying risks; our policy holders are our treasurers.

4th. The utmost caution is exercised in accepting none but sound risks.

5th. Not more than $3000 carried on any life.
