We were a little Charlotte Observ premature in aumouncing that the bill to charter the railroad company had been introduced last week in the Legislature, but it has been introduced since then and will probably pass in a few days. It provides that a rangoad may be constructed to this place from any point on the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line, or the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley, or University railroad, as the directors of the pro-posed company may determine. The idea is to build it to whichever road will offer the best terms. The bill a lows any township to subscribe to the capital stock of the company any amount that may be designated by petition to the county commissioners. It also authorizes the directors of the company to contract for convict our citizens only to be disappointed, but it does seem now that there is a favorable opportunity for at last get-ting a railroad to our old town if our We hear that at the late term people wid only prove that they de of Moore court the grand jury found serve one.
