The Old Mill. Here from the brow of the hill I look Through a lattice of boughs and leaves On the old gray mill, with its gabled roof...

RUBY'S VISIT.

"Let her come to the arm," said old Mr. Ennis. "She'll enjoy the blue-bells and the peach orchards, and the white clover blossoming along the roadside. It will be a great deal cheaper than Newport and more sensible than Cape May."

"Mr. Dubarry, indeed," said Ruby turning very red. "A stuffy old professor who don't know anything except about the ruins of Pompeii and Herculaneum!"

at all surprised. I always wondered where he got the money to pay for so much jewelry. I'm sorry for his poor mother, though. Are you quite sure that Jerry is safe, Mr. Safford?"
