

The North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, met in annual session at Raleigh on the 1st inst. and adjourned on the 7th.

There is nothing in the way of news about in Washington just now. The Government has been busy in getting away with unusual speed.

The surplus in the treasury is steadily increasing and the President, in his message, attracted attention to this fact.

When Secretary W. H. Taft's annual report came from the Public Printer on Monday, it contained a report on the revenue.

He discusses civil service reform and gives it his hearty support, as heretofore. He urges Congress to cheerfully support it, and says: "The continued operation of the law relating to our civil service."

So far as the late investigation of the Police Department is concerned, and in regard to the most consistent proofs of its necessity and usefulness.

The session's first ripple of a real exchange was seen on the streets of the city last Wednesday afternoon, when the tidal wave of money which follows the opening of Congress.

Mr. R. H. Cowan will serve the Raleigh News and Observer as its regular Washington correspondent this winter.

lying principle from the operation of their government, they will abandon the surest guarantee of the safety and success of American institutions.

Our Washington Letter.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4, 1886.

There is nothing in the way of news about in Washington just now. The Government has been busy in getting away with unusual speed.

The largest day's work ever accomplished in the Pension Bureau was done on last Wednesday, when forty of the lady clerks were employed all night long.

Secretary Tanner's annual report which is ready and will be before the public by the time this reaches you.

Not A Gorilla.

From the New York Star.

The remains of a gorilla, Long Island, are in a state of great excitement among the people who are spending a large portion of the winter in the woods a few miles from the village.

Yesterday a fire party went out and after a half-hour's search they discovered a large quantity of the remains of a gorilla.
