LOCAL RECORDS.

SCHEDULE PITTSBORO' R. R. a. m. and 9.45 p. m., making close connection at Moncure with the trains to and from Raleigh, Charlotte, Wilmington and intermediate points.

farmers complaining that the cotton convenient to them. crop is not turning out as well as was expected. The equinoctial storm arrived last Friday-one day behind time-

F Master Joseph Bland attained the distinction last week of being on the "Roll of Honor" at Mr. S. S. Jackson's school.

When you come to court next | county paper. come, send it by some neighbor.

and caurs sold anywhere. Can and that is saying sufficient.

Messrs, Wan, Woollcott & Son have just placed in their store front so as "to turn on the light" as truch as possible on their immense stock of goods. Read their "ad." and give them a cali.

Lewis & Co. need no introduction to thing in the machinery line. the people of Charlean, with whom they are so well and favorably known. What you can't get in the hardware line at their store, you need not try to get elsewhere.

ure in showing to all persons desire out the back near the wrist. ous of buying anything in that line Call on him at . see them.

boro, will be here during court-week frog would catch young chickens. and will do any kind of Dental work for those needing it, such as extract-consequently a very large crowd from injury. this section will attend.

cost. Come and see his goods and dy lathered with sweat. get the latest styles. All kinds of handsome Trimmings.

There will be quite a large attendance at the meeting of the Sandy Creek Association which be-Sandy Creek Association which begins today (Thursday) at Gum Spring is a total loss. It was insured in the being a national bank with a capital church. Many will go from here North Carolina Home Insurance Com- of $100,000 and the other a savings or exchange any kind of new or secand return in the afternoon, as the pany of this city for almost full value. bank with a capital of $25,000. cars will stop within 100 yards of with pension warrants. Applications church here.

summer visitors. We are gratified to know that they were all much pleased with our old town as a sum ber will be greatly increased. Many more would have been here this summer if they could have been comfor.

The receipts of cotton at Wilmington, thus far this season, are 24,000 father, in Hadley township, on the 14th fust, by Rev. M. islawin, Mr. W. A. Long to Miss S. E. mer if they could have been comfor. more, at Capt. W. L. London's.

go to Arkanasa, as has been rumored. Isn't it a strange case?

more of the Chatham trade goes to Henry Thompson, in Horse Creek From the Rateigh News and Observer Durhacs each succeeding year. Be. Township, Ashe county, was killed A gentleman who arrived in the Raleigh merchants state that more ed him almost beyond recognition.

appreciation of its value, and there so the prisoners easily effected their fore recorded in this State. and has made quite a change in the fore they advertise for it in the Rec- escape. The other three returned to one, as will be seen by reading our the stockade with Mr. Hicks, though advertising columns. We hope our they too had ample means of escape. countymen will carefully read these ham, will do their trading with those formed by a private letter that Mr.

week be sure to pay your subscription to the Record, and, if you don't Durham are W. F. Ellis, Muse & Shaw, and Chas Roberts. It will pay you to go into their stores, even if When you come to court re you do not buy anything, just to see member that Hal London sells their magnificent display of goods. BEST BIDING and THE CHEAPEST ECOGIES. They are a credit to Durham, and

For any kind of groceries go to W. J. WYATT & Co., and you can get anything in that line that you wish. For books, stationery, &c., call on the largest panes of glass in Raleigh, W. A. Muse & Co., the senior partner at this season of the year is very freof which firm is our young county- quently attended with fatal results. side places, but there was not suffiman who formerly lived a Egypt.

State News.

was seen he Sanday morning, the boant, of Wikesboro, were sold here part of the milker. Sanday morning, the boant, of Wikesboro, were sold here quietly taking the place of the milker. List here were at from 14 to 17½ cents per charlotte Chronicle: A little pound to Coi. W. A. Eliason. Avertwelve year-old son of Mrs. Elizabeth

A. P. ferry respectfully in named M bane Barnett lives on Mr. right cylinders, through which the Palermo. The inhabitants are deforms his friends and the public gen- Daviel C. Hol's plantation. Mebane's case is passed, when the "sweep serting the town. The population erally that he has opened a harness wife heard a ben making a big racket struck him and knocked him down numbers about 80,000 souls, of whom and saddle shop at Pittsboro, and at the creek year by and went to find Unfortunately, he fell towards the only 30,000 remain. will be glad to do any work in that out the cause, and to her great sur line Mr. Joan Y. Webster is his price she tound a buil frog holding caught between the cylinders. Before Almost the entire business portion foreman, and is the best in the State. on to a young chicken's head, and the Dr. J. D. Webster, of Hills- We never knew before that a bull

ing and filing teeth, &c. Examina Trinity College on Thursday night, yesterday morning kicked on the tions made free. All work done in a while asteep wasked out of the tourd head by a horse, receiving an injury skilful manner and at prices to suit story window, fell to the ground, from which it is feared, he cannot broke his arm and went back up on possibly recover, as the fittle fellow's the second story and into a fellow skull was badly crushed. The acci-Railroad rates to the State student's room becare he became dent occurred in front of Mr. Nelson's Fair will be lower than ever before conscious of what had happened we sine, where the horse was standing instantly killed Thursday night by an RLACK CASHMERE 25, 50 and 75c. known, only one cent a mule for all remember a f w years ago when a The little fellow was in the door unknown negro at Lawrence, Kansas. distances over fifty miles. From this classmate of the writer fell out of the playing with a whip, or switch, and He became engaged in an altercation with some negroes and was seen to COLORED CASHMERE 121, 15, place the price of a round trip ticker third story window of the same build stepping out, struck the horse on the with some negroes and was seen to will be only ninety-five cents, and ing without sustaining any serious leg. The animal kicked vicuously, fall. The negroes fled and Richter

Now cold weather is coming the boldest thef sever known to this section was committed here last Mon-Wraps to get. London has just drove in town and hitched his horse opened a large stock and is offering at the end of Main street. After them very cheap. When you come to court be sure and call at London's and see his stock whether you wish to get his horse and buggy to go to how, and to his utter astonishment to how another and to his utter astonishment to how another and to his utter astonishment to how another and the home, and to his utter astonishment to how another and the home, and to his utter astonishment to how another another and the home, and to his utter astonishment to how another another and at the end of Main street. After Several attempts have been made are, nowever, sadden are, nowever, to buy anything or not. It is worth both were gone. He was soon informed that a very black negro boy, W. L. London is now showing apparently about 18 years old, was the handsomest and cheapest line of seen to deliberately hitch his horse Dress Goods ever seen in Chatham, to the buggy and drive off and the He is NOT SELLING AT COST, but will same chap with his turnout was met sell you new goods for the cash as at Springfield by Mr. John Living- nettsville, S. C., on Sunday by a fall cheap as you can buy old goods at ston driving for life, the horse alrea- from a horse.

county. The building with all the list will probably be increased con- on an extensive scale. Personal Mention.—The summer siderably over last year, and it is An industrial parade ten miles long bas gone, and so have nearly all our possible that the amount due each and of great elegance was a feature of pensioner from the appropriation of the blue and gray remion as Evansyear the amount drawn by each pen- sand people attended.

mer if they could have been comfor- has just occurred in our community, date last year. "Our city by the tably accommodated. But although the truth of which is unquestionable: sea" may yet become one of the chief most of our summer visitors have Mr. Ed. M. Hendrix, of the firm of cotton markets of the South. returned home, yet other visitors are Hendrix Bros., grocers of this city, arriving nearly every day. Among was taken ill some two weeks ago, Florida, stabbed his wife Sunday them we note that Miss Pannie Stan and was bereft of both speech and back, of Richmond county, is visit hearing. In this condition he confiast and immediately afterwards ing at Mr. Stephen Henley's: and tinued about one week. One night struck her with a rail, killing her in-Miss Helen Zimmerman, of Balti- he went to bed at 94 o'clock and slept stantly. He is supposed to be insane until about 10, at which time the stantly. He is supposed to be insane Good Middling, and roamed the swamps the previous strict Midding. Mr. E. W. Pou, Jr., of Smithfield, north bound train on the Piedmont was here the first of this week. It is railroad, which runs near the dwell-

Reidsville Democrat: We are inmen who advertise for it in their county paper.

John Pleasauts, a young farmer living in the "Dark Corner" of Person check the flames proved unavailing county, about 8 miles north of Roxboro, was bitten by a large moccasin snake on the wrist one night last in Mowrey's foundry, at the north week. He was curing tobacco and went to the wood-pile to get some wood to put in the furnace when the of Main street were soon destroyed. snake bit him. He ran to his house his wife seized his arm and put her burned. lips to the wound and sucked nearly all the poison out. This prompt treatment perhaps saved Mr. Pleasants' ed, and fully lifty families are with life as the bite of a moccasin snake out food or shelter. Supplies of

Another Chathamite is the senior Sunday morning at his residence on committees have been organized. The parti or of the firm of J. D. Goodwin the east side of the Cape Fear, Mr. loss is now placed at $200,000, with The old reliable firm of Julius & Co. who will furnish or repair any- Lee Cade, son of Mr. Joseph Cade. trifling insurance Mr. Cade was a young man 22 years of age. Some days ago he cut his hand while pulling todder with the dew on it, which poisoned it. Erysipelas followed, and he died from Hillsboro Recorder: Little Robin the effect of it. -A gentleman in youngest son of Thomas Webb, Esq., town who has a fine cow noted for seas. On Sept. 6 the seas were mak-Mr. R. I. Rogers, of Ducham, of this place was attempting to drive her milk giving qualities, has for log a clean breach over the vessel, will attend our court next week and down a carridge in an old pistol, some time been sorely perplexed bewill have a large lot of de igns for when it exploded and the ball entered cause she had of late suddenly ceas them. Oil was used with marvellous tombstones, which he will take pleas the palm of the left hand and came ed to give her usual quantity. No results. As far as the eye could reason could be assigned until the State sville Landmark: Nine wag. other morning in going into the lot, seas were quiet, caim and unbroken, on looks o dried peaches in a body, be beheld the pig with his fore legs while outside the wake they were The f | frest of this season belonging to J. T. Ferguson, mer, resting on the hind legs of the cow, > mill and the hair of his head was tible mass of bloody pulp. - Little sand dollars. Hugh, the six year old son of Mr. Durham Recorder: A student at Waster S. Neison, of Monroe was Laurinburg Enterprise: One of producing a fracture of the skull two cut.

Siight shocks of carthquake were feit in Cuba on last Monday.

A young man on a bet took twentytwo drinks of whiskey at Dayton, be ared but Salvation Oil is pain-Ohio He died after swaiiowing the less and certain. It costs only 25

J. P. Marshall, a drummer from Richmond, Va., was killed at Ben-was received here yesterday of the and Davidson there is not a single mail. destruction by fire of Mr. George license to sell liquor. But there are Massengill's cotton gin in Johnston many stills there.

Two more banks were organized

The New York syndicate that purthe church door. Preaching by some one of the visiting ministers is expected every night at the Baptist church here.

with pension warrants. Applications for pensions are being examined, and applicants put on the list as their claums prove to be well founded. The church here.

Greensboro, N.C. Engmes, Boners, Malls, Saws, Belting, Shafting, Pulleys, Locomotives, wood-working Machinery, Boiler Feeders, Cotton Gins,

$30,000 will not exceed $8 00. Last ville. Indiana, which thirty-five thou-

Isaac Brown, at Federal Point, morning while she was getting break

A woman who gives the name of said he came to court, but he was just a week ahead of time, as our court-week begins next Monday. He will probably come again.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he denies that he has accepted a call to go to Arkaneau as has been runneed.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he denies that he has accepted a call to go to Arkaneau as has been runneed.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he has accepted a call to go to Arkaneau as has been runneed.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he has accepted a call to go to Arkaneau as has been runneed.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he has accepted a call to go to Arkaneau as has been runneed.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he has accepted a call to go to Arkaneau as has been runneed.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he has accepted a call to go to Arkaneau as has been runneed.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he has accepted a call to go to Arkaneau as has been runneed.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he has accepted a call to go to Arkaneau as has been runneed.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he has accepted a call to go to Arkaneau as has been runneed.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he has accepted a call to go to Arkaneau as has been runneed.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he has accepted a call to go to a forgery.

The many friends of Rev. P. R. Law will be pleased to hear that he has accepted a call to go to a forgery.

DURHAM ADVERTISEMENTS -- More and Winston Republican: A son of Immense Swarm of Butterflies.

fore the war Fayetteville was our by a rolling log last week. His fath- city from Forsyth county yesterday chief market town, and at certain er was working out rails on the reported having seen with others an seasons of the year long lines of mountain side while his two sons were immense swarm of butterflies, or Chatham wagons night be seen al. cutting sprouts below him. A tree something they supposed to be but-most any day crowding the streets was felled and rolled down the mount of that ancient town. After the war tain. The father continued work miles east of Salem. The swarm was The passenger train on the Hustore rain and the Hustore rain and it took half leaves Pustern daily, except Sundays, at 5.40 a. Fayetteville to Raleight, and the lat-down the mountain in the track of an hour for it to pass. A look to-m, and 7.30 p. m., and arrives at littleborn at 7.43 ter town became Chatham's chief the runaway log, discovered that it ter town became Chatham's chief the runaway log, discovered that it ward either north, south, east or market. We have frequently heard had caught his eldest son and crush west, showed millions upon millions of the insects fluttering and evidentcountry produce was brought to their | Carthage Blade: Three prisoners | ly trying to escape from something. A second-hand Rockaway for town from Chatham than from any escaped from the guard at the stock. The lowest were about 20 feet from Sale cheap. Apply at Record office. other county. And while a very ade near town on last week. The the ground, and they could be seen considerable trade still goes to Ralguard, Mr. Hicks had six prisoners as high as the eye could reach. It If you see a X mark made with eigh from this county, yet much that out cleaning out the right of way and appeared as though there were from a lead pencil on your paper, you may formerly went there now goes to some time after they had commenced five to ten of the insects in every know that your subscription is due. Durham, and it increases every year. work one of them, a burly negro, square yard of the space over which Our countymen are fortunate in hav- walked up to him and asked for a the swarm extended. They moved We regret to hear some of our ing two such desirable markets so chew of tobacco, and when Mr. Hicks slowly and at times appeared to come put his hand into his pocket to get to a standstill. The insects were Some of the enterprising business it, the negro and another, according not much larger than a ten-cent piece. men of Durham are desirous of cul- to a pre-arranged plan, seized him About half an hour after the swarm tivating and encouraging the Chat- and took his gun and pistols away passed, the thermometer fell ten deham trade, and of expressing their from him. No other guard was near grees. This is something never be-

A Canadian Town Burned.

GRAVENHURST, Outario, Sept. 23 .-A terrible fire broke out here late last evening which threatened to wipe the owing to the inflammable nature of the buildings. The fire originated end of the town, and aided by a strong wind the buildings on the north side Every business place in the town was Forty-five places of business and thirty-eight dwellings were destroycient to go round. Assistance is Fayetteville Observer: Died on greatly needed, and relief and shelter

Oil Calmed the Waves.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—The steamer Warwick, at Philadelphia, from Newport, England, reports terrific northwest gales with mountainous reach, where the oil had touched, the breaking in every direction.

Choiera in Sicily.

Rome, Sept. 24.—The news from cold that the mercury in the there aging 1,630 los, to a wagon at 15c. Hill, in Gaston county, met with a Messina today is very bad. Yestermometer full to two degrees above about $1.350 for his pie material. horrible death yesterday, by having his head can ht in a case mill. The of which 117 ended fatally, More Alam mee Gleaner: A colored man boy was standing in front of the up doctors and nurses have arrived from old hen fighting the frog for dear life. boy's hend had been drawn through by fire last Friday. The damage the machine and crushed into a hor- is estimated at three hundred thou-The steamship Alesia, from Mar seilles and Napies, arrived at New York last Friday with four cases of Asiatic cholera on board. Eight of her passengers died with the disease Henry Richter, a stone-masor, wrs striking Hugh on the forehead, and was picked up dead, with his throat SATINE DIAGONALS 15c.

Some fashionable ladies are not BLACK AND FANCY VELVETsatisfied with ready-made fans, but must have them made to order; they are, however, satisfied with Dr. Bull's

"One fire burns out another's burning," and most pain suffers more to

DO NOT FORGET THAT J. W. SCOTT & Co., Greensboro', N. C., carry one of ()RETONNES 10 and 121c. the largest stocks of goods in Central In the four adjoining counties of North Carolina. Merchants invited News and Observer: Information Alamance, Randolph, Montgomery to call in person or send orders by Very respectfully, J. W. SCOTT & CO.,

Greensboro', N. C. April 21, 1887.

DON'T BUY SELL end-hand Machinery before obtaining prices from W. R Burgess, manager, Greensboro', N. C. Engines, Boilers, chinery, Boiler Feeders, Cotton Gins, Presses, Threshers, Buggies, &c., at wholesale prices.

MARRIED. Notices of deaths and marriage inserted

THE MARKETS.

Reported for THE RECORD by WYATT & TAYLOR, GROCERS & COMMISSION MERCHANTS. No. 12 South side Martin St., RALEIGH, N. C., September 27, 1887.

COTTON MARKET: WHOLESALE GROCERY MARKET. 10 Flour, 9% Bolted Meal, Corn, Oats, Mullets— $4 00@6 25 72 %

9@10 8@9 Eggs, 25@35 Chickens, 6@15 dagging, 21 n/24 Ties, These prices are for large lois,

New Advertisements.

AT THE BANNER

WE ARE OFFERING

A Complete Stock

Dry Goods, Notions, CARPETS, RUGS, MATS. LADIES AND MISSES SHOES, Gents' Furnishings, second to none in size and variety;

Dress Goods and Trimmings a specialty.

We are offering them at prices which must commend themselves to the public. We guarantee satisfaction and one rule will be to deal fairly with all men. This is our platform and we trust it will find a hearty support from the readers of the RECORD. Samples sent to any address on application.

Yours respectfully, MUSE & SHAW, Successors to ELLIS & MUSE, STOKES BLOCK, MAIN ST., DURHAM, N. C. Sept. 29, 1887. 3ms.

W. J. WYATT & CO.,

DURHAM, N. C.,

Wholesale and Retail Grocers and Commission Merchants.

A FULL STOCK OF

STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES

AT BOTTOM PRICES.

Highest Prices paid for all kinds of Country Produce!

CLOVER AND GRASS SEED AT RICHMOND PRICES.

Feed Stuffs a Specialty.

GIVE US A CALL! Sept. 29, 1887. 3ms.

DRESS GOODS!

FANCY TRICOTS 50c.

ENGLISH SUITINGS 25c.

DRESS FLANNELS 25, 44 and 50c.

SATINES 10 and 15c.

COULARDS (DRESS AND SHIRTings) 8% and 9c.

FANCY DRESS PRINTS 4, 5, 71

CHAMBRAYS AND GINGHAMS

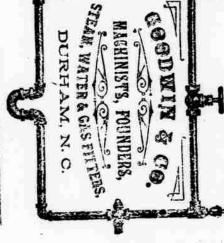

WM. WOOLLCOTT & SON'S RETAIL DEPARTMENT, No. 14 E. Martin Street,

RALEIGH, N. C. W. A. MUSE & CO.

DURHAM, N. C., PROPRIETORS OF DURHAM BOOK STORE

A FIRST CLASS STOCK

Books, Stationery, &c., AT LOWEST PRICES. September 29, 1887.

This Space Belongs

CHARLES ROBBINS,

DURHAM, N. C.

Who is too busy opening his

FALL STOCK

to write an advertisement.

September 29, 1887.

W. F. ELLIS, DURHAM, N. C.,

(Late of the firm of ELLIS & MUSE).

Takes pleasure in announcing to his friends and the public that he has just returned from the Northern Markets, where he spent one month in making extensive purchases in Dry Goods, Notions, Cloaks, CARPETS, RUGS, OIL CLOTHS, ETC.

All my Goods are NEW and FRESH!

No Old Stock on Hand!

MY STORE IS THE HANDSOMEST

IN DURHAM,

AND IS FILLED WITH THE BEST STOCK EVER SEEN IN DURHAM!

ALL ORDERS BY MAIL PROMPTLY FILLED!

September 29, 1887. 3ms.

Established 1865. HARDWARE!

Sash, Doors, Blinds, COOK AND HEATING STOVES.

Rubber and Leather Belting LIME, PLASTER, CEMENT,

GLASS, PAINTS, OILS, AND TEN THOUSAND OTHER THINGS!

LARGEST STOCK IN NORTH CAROLINA! Julius Lewis & Co.,

Sept. 29, 1887.

Opposite Market, RALEIGH, N. C.

S. R. PERRY,

DURHAM, N. C.,

-DEALER IN-

DRY GOODS, NOTIONS,

CONFECTIONERIES, SHOES, BOOTS,

Trunks, Hats,

TINWARE, &C.

All the above goods will be sold at Panic Prices!

Sept. 8, 1887. 2ms.

A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—
John Underwood, decaysed, having this day been granted to the undersigned, W. P. Campbell, ne hereby notifies all persons having claims a control of sundry executions in my hands for collection. I will self for each at public auction at the court-house door in Plusbero', on MONDAY the 3rd day of October, 1887, the following real estate:
One tract of land in Bear Creek township adjoining the lands of Ell Welch, R. W. Phillips and others, containing 78 acres, and levied on as the property of J. F. Williamson, te satisfy execution in favor of J. F. Williamson, te satisfy execution in favor of J. F. Williamson, te satisfy execution in favor of J. F. Utility and others, containing 70 acres, and levied on as the property of John M. Moring, J. F. O'Kelly and others, containing 70 acres, and levied on as the property of John M. Moring to satisfy an execution in favor of C. B. Green.

Bept. 8, 1881.

B. W. BREWER, Sh'ff.

DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—
John Underwood, decaysed, having this day been granted to the undersigned, w. P. Campbell, need the decaysed to exhibit them to him within twelve mouths from this date, otherwise this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. This the 5th of Sept., 1887.

Sept. 8, 1887.

FARM FOR REST.

That valuable farm belonging to the estate of the late J. W. McPherson is offered for rent or lease for a term of years. It consists of 500 acres, and levied on as the property of John M. Moring to satisfy an execution in favor of C. B. Green.

Bept. 8, 1881.

B. W. BREWER, Sh'ff.

July 7, 1887.

Letters of administration on the extate of John Underwood, decaysed, having that gaming the undersigned, w. P. Campbell, me mouths from this date, otherwise this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. This the of Sept., 1887.

FARM FOR REST.

That valuable farm belonging to the estate of the late J. W. McPherson is offered for rent or lease for a term of years. It consists of 500 acres, and levied on as the property of John M. In the control of

W. BREWER, Sh'ff. July 7, 1887.

COTTON GINNERS

OUGHT TO INSURE

THEIR GINS

-IN THE-

N. C. Home Ins. Co. OF RALEIGH, N. C.,

This Home Institution, established in 1868, deserves the patronage of all

W. S. PRIMROSE, Presidents

North Carolinians.

All Losses Paid Promptly. All classes of insurable property nsured at reasonable rates.

Apply to

H. A. LONDON, Agent., Aug. 25, 1887. PITTSBORO, N. C.