A NOVEL suit is about to be institu ted in the city of New York by the United States District Attorney. It is a suit against a congregation in that city to recover the penalty of $1,000 for having employed a preacher in England to come to this country and become the pastor of their church. The suit is brought to enforce the Act of Congress prohibiting the importation and migration of foreigners or aliens under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States. The church of the Holy Trinity in New York employed, diagyman-Rey. E. W.
